Russ Propose Slashes In Armed Forces

Cuts Would Apply To U.S., Soviet Union, Red China

GENEVA (AP)—The Soviet Union today proposed that the United States, the U.S.S.R. and Red China cut their armed forces to 1,700,000 men each within 18 months.

Soviet Delegate Valerian A. Zorin made the proposal to the 10-nation disarmament conference at a closed session during which the five Western allies formally submitted their three-stage plan to halt the arms race. The Western plan was made public yesterday and got a chilly reception from the Soviets.

SOVIET PLAN

The Soviet plan—which has not been formally put before the conference—is based on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's proposal to the U.N. General Assembly last September that all nations disarm completely within a four-year period.

Zorin said the Soviet plan also calls for disarmament in three stages. Paralleling the troop cuts for the three biggest powers, he proposed that Britain and France reduce their armed forces to 650,000 men each.

PRESENT SIZES

The United States now has about two and one-half-million men in uniform. The U.S.S.R. says it has 3,623,000, but Khrushchev has announced 1,200,000 will be demobilized within the next year or so. U. S. military officials estimate Red China has 2,600,000 men in its army and an air force large enough to man 2,000 jets.

The Western plan calls for the United States and Soviet Union to hold their forces to two and one-half million men each in the first stage, and to cut them to 2,100,000 in the second stage, with corresponding reductions in other countries. The plan sets no timetable for the stages.

In the second stage of the Soviet plan, said Zorin, all armed forces would be disbanded and all foreign bases would be liquidated.

In the third stage all types of nuclear weapons would be destroyed.

Ike Gives Nixon His Endorsement

President Leaves No Doubt As To Choice

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower publicly endorsed Vice President Richard M. Nixon today as his choice for the Republican presidential nomination.

Eisenhower made plain at a news conference that he supports Nixon, who at this point has no opposition for the nomination.

The President was asked about published reports that at a dinner Saturday night he indirectly tapped the vice president as his choice to succeed him in the White House.

The reporter was alluding to the annual dinner of the Gridiron Club, an organization of newsmen. Eisenhower spoke there but the club rules specify that "reporters are never present."

DISPATCHES WRITTEN

Nevertheless, some news writers who did not attend the dinner got word that Eisenhower had in effect endorsed Nixon. They wrote dispatches saying so.

When the matter of these published reports was brought up today, Eisenhower chuckled and said that at the dinner he actually had been referring to geographical areas at the dinner table.

His suggestion was that he had not actually endorsed Nixon there.

DEFINITE 'YES'

But when he went on to say that if anyone is wondering whether he has any preference or bias as to a choice for the GOP presidential nomination, the answer very definitely is yes.

A little later he made it crystal clear that his preference is Nixon.

That happened when a reporter asked whether he had Nixon in mind in talking about whether he had any bias in the matter.

In reply, the President fired a question of his own. It was: Was there any doubt in your mind?

Eisenhower's reference to geographical areas at the dinner table related to the stories drawing the inference he had endorsed Nixon at the Gridiron dinner. The stories said he had suggested that those at the head table move a couple of places—which would have put Nixon in Eisenhower's seat.

RICHARD STRAW
Peryam's choice

Peryam Urges His Job Be Given To Aide

Thomas W. Peryam recommended to the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday that Richard Straw be appointed his successor as Marin County agricultural commissioner upon Peryam's retirement April I.

Straw has been deputy commissioner since August, 1957, Peryam pointed out, declaring that he is "familiar with the county's needs" and is in all respects eligible.

Peryam took the opportunity to express his appreciation of the "friendly cooperation of the board members" and pointed out that he is terminating 28 years of service to Marin County, as well as 42 years of public service.

Continuing the matter until Peryam has completed his term, the board seemed cordially disposed toward Straw.

"I have watched his work closely," commented Supervisor William Gnoss. "He checks things more closely than anyone has done before, especially regarding eggs. He protects the people."

"He's a good man," concurred Chairman Walter P. Castro.

Fairfax School Tax Boost Beaten Again

The proposed school tax increase for the Fairfax School District was defeated at the polls yesterday by a 109-vote margin.

There were 465 yes and 574 no votes cast in the election on a proposed increase from $1.25 to $2 per $100 assessed valuation in the general purpose school tax.

This is the second time the measure has been defeated at the polls in five months. Last October the same proposal went under by a 137-vote margin, with 594 no and 457 yes votes.

The increase in tax rate was sought for, increased teachers' salaries, purchase of a new school bus and an "enriched program for the seventh and eighth grades, said Supt. Harold R. Depue.

Out of 2,800 registered voters 1,050 turned out for the special election.

In the Deer Park precinct, 379 ballots were cast, 176 yes and 203 no; Manor precinct, 329 votes cast, 173 yes and 156 no, and Central precinct, 331 ballots cast, 116 yes and 215 no.

$40,000 Tiburon Home Burns Down

A $40,000 home in the exclusive Seafirth area on the Tiburon Peninsula burned to the ground early today.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Madden at 80 Seafirth road was labeled "a total loss" by Tiburon Fire Chief Frank J. Buscher. He reported the first of several alarms turned in at 11:30 p.m. and that when the three trucks and 24 men raced to the scene flames had already enveloped the entire house.

Mr. and Mrs. Madden had entertained guests earlier in the evening and had left with them for dinner at about 8:30 p.m. When they returned home their house was a mass of embers.

Buscher said the fire evidently started in the living room area. He said Madden mentioned that when they left, there were a few logs burning in the fireplace.

Madden, a retired Navy captain, is employed by the state Division of Highways in San Francisco. His state car was burned in the fire.

The Maddens have no children. Their pet cat, Mr. Snow, was missing and presumed dead.

The Maddens had resided at Seafirth for about three years, Mrs. Stanton said.

Firemen stayed at the scene until 2:30 a.m. to be sure there was no further outbreak. Buscher said none of the other houses in the area was at any time in danger.

SHARP-WITTED 5-YEAR-OLD SAVES MOTHER

A 5-year-old San Rafael boy, described by police as "sharp as a whip," was credited with possibly saving the life of his ill mother yesterday.

About 12:30 p.m. the boy, James Lantz of 11 Lodge lane, called the sheriff's office to report his mother was lying helpless on the floor.

Chief Criminal Deputy Ellis Siebert asked the youngster for his address. The boy didn't know, but on instructions from Seibert, he ran outside, looked at his house number, and ran back to the phone with the information.

San Rafael police were notified, and an ambulance took Mary Mayo Lantz, 39, to San Rafael General Hospital.

The boy told Sgt. Louis Foster his mother was ill and took five pills before collapsing on the living room floor.

The victim was reported in "fine" condition today.

Hamilton Jobs Still Idled By Picketing

R. V. McNair, owner of the McNair Paint Co., charged today that Painters Union Local 83 members "are not picketing me; they're picketing the Air Force."

McNair said three employees of his McNair Paint Co. were working as usual today on repainting apartments in housing units south of Hamilton Air Force Base, despite the presence of pickets.

NON-UNION HELP

But the pickets have shut down work on the $7,500,000 Capehart Housing project at the base and several lesser projects there.

They were placed late Monday in a dispute between the Painters Union and McNair, who employs non-union help.

Pickets continued to patrol today in front of both gates of the North Marin air base. But McNair said: "We are not working on Hamilton Air Force Base. We are working on what is known as the Village. There are entrances to it from both sides of the highway, not through the base."

PAY RATES GIVEN

Frankly admitting that his three employees on the job are non-union, McNair declared he pays the base union rate of $3.50 per hour, plus time and one-half for overtime. In place of union "fringe benefits" which total 28 cents per hour, he said, he is paying the rent for quarters for his employees ($100 per month for one man

45 SECONDS TO SPARE

Pilot Lands His Plane Before It Freezes

Forty-five seconds before his plane engine might have frozen, a Hamilton Air Force Base pilot landed his F104 Starfighter safely at an abandoned air strip at an old naval auxiliary field west of Santa Rosa yesterday afternoon.

Five minutes earlier, Capt. Richard E. Quigley, 28, of 161 Tamalpais avenue, Mill Valley, had taken off from Hamilton on a training mission.

The pilot noted a zero oil pressure reading. The oil lubricates the main bearings of the engine—and a zero reading means 45 seconds before the engines freezes, a Hamilton public information officer explained.

Rather than turn about to return to Hamilton, Quigley flew straight ahead to the strip near Santa Rosa.

He landed without damage to the plane. Hamilton sent mechanics and equipment to the field to check the trouble.

The Starfighter carried two Sidewinder missiles, as it does on all training missions, the Hamilton public information officer said.

Quigley, with the 83rd Fighter Interceptor Squadron, has been at Hamilton three years. He is single.

14th Body Found In Coal Mine, 4 Men Still Missing

LOGAN, W.Va. (UPI)—Workers recovered the 14th body today from the depth of Holden No. 22 coal mine near here where 18 miners were trapped eight days ago by a cave-in and fire.

The search continued for the four missing miners, but there was virtually no hope they would be found alive.

Stretcher bearers, working in a blinding snowfall, began bringing the bodies to the surface. It took one hour and 45 minutes to bring each body to the pithead.

Sally Stanford Starts Sausalito Fund To Purchase Cove Property

Sally Stanford has started Sausalito on the way to purchasing privately owned land in the Shelter Cove area to be preserved as a natural beauty spot for the city, with an offer to give $15,000 toward a fund for the purpose.

With this as a starter, other Sausalitans matched her gesture. At last night's city council meeting in gracious words, if not in money.

City Councilman Marjorie Brady said she would be at home all day today to receive calls of persons interested in collecting money or working on a committee to collect money towards the fund.

Leonard Bjorklund, attorney for two property owners in the Cove area, said he knew of four or five persons who would surely want to telephone Mrs. Brady.

George F. Carney of 309 North street, in an heated attack on the city council, said, "We're losing patience with you . . . We look to you for information. We need leadership and someone to tell us what to do . . . We've got to know what we're talking about before we go asking for money (for the waterfront lots)."

The land referred to is mostly underwater land, but has been referred to as "one of Sausalito's most beautiful natural resources." It consists of six pieces of property in two blocks between Richardson and Main streets and four pieces of property 25 feet wide and 100 feet deep north of Richardson street.

The total price, according to Councilman John E. Koenig Jr., is estimated at $115,000. Councilman Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. said it might be possible to purchase the land for as little as $75,000, but that the maximum would be $115,000. He said he felt much could be done by individual contributions, but that it would also be necessary to get a bond issue passed for the remainder.

Ehrlich said, "I think we should recognize what the owner of the Valhalla has done to get us a good start." The audience applauded.

The matter of purchasing the Cove property, having been discussed at length at previous council and planning commission meetings, came up last night while the council spoke of rezoning Shelter Cove for

County School Unit To Meet In Secret?

The Marin County Board of Education will meet in special session tomorrow night—and part of the meeting may be in secret.

The special meeting agenda calls for an "executive session" to consider "employment and re-appointment of personnel for 1960-61." E. L. Blackmore, secretary pro-tem of the board, said the agenda was worded to allow the board to go into secret session if it desires.

Also on the agenda is consideration and passage of the 1960-61 budget for the county school service fund.

Motherwell Linked To 2 Other Deaths

DOWNIEVILLE (UPI) — The prosecution said today it would bring up the deaths of Larry Lord Motherwell's wife and daughter in asking the gas chamber for the convicted murderer.

Motherwell was convicted of first degree murder last night by a gold miner, a carpenter, a laborer and nine housewives after nine hours deliberation. The jury ruled that he killed Mrs. Pearl Putney, 72, Washington, D. C., widow for $18,000.

Prosecutor Lynn Compton said, "There is evidence that Motherwell committed at least two other murders."

He referred to the apparent drowning in a bathtub of Motherwell's second wife, Sarah, in 1953, and the death of their 14-month-old mentally retarded daughter, Heather, in 1954.

Police have said that Sarah was alone when she died and her death was ruled accidental.

Motherwell has admitted that he buried Heather in a pet cemetery as his "beloved dog" who had saved his life behind enemy lines in Korea. But he insisted that she had choked accidentally. A Frederick County, Md., grand jury refused to indict Motherwell because of insufficient evidence.

California law permits the prosecution to bring up the other two cases—although he wasn't tried on either occasion—in a second trial before a jury to assess the penalty for the Putney killing.

The jury found Motherwell guilty on circumstantial evidence. It was shown that Motherwell and the widow made a cross-country auto trip in 1958, registering as "Dr. and Mrs. Motherwell."

One witness said he saw the pair in Marysville in August, 1958.

A suitcase full of human and animal bones was brought into court. They had been found buried on an isolated mining road near Downieville, and included a skull which was identified by a dentist as that of Mrs. Putney.

Other witnesses identified jewelery which Motherwell pawned and as having belonged to Mrs. Putney, widow of a university professor and heir to $50,000 from her late mother.

New Licensing Law On Boats Causing Chaos

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Chaos and confusion surrounds California's first attempt to license all boats.

The chaos is centered principally in the Department of Motor Vehicles, the agency charged with registering an estimated 350,000 pleasure boats before April 2.

The confusion is among the boating public, a condition which is compounded by ignorance. The department figures that 50 per cent of the boat owners don't even know about the new law.

A department spokesman said less than 10 per cent of the boat owners have registered so far.

To aid boat owners during the inaugural year, the department sent out sample registration blanks which were printed in many newspapers. They carried the warning that the blanks were not to be used and that registration could be done only in person.

About 300 of those forms were sent in with the $5 fee. All had to be sent back.

Many persons who do know about the law erroneously think that because they are registered with the Coast Guard or county assessor's office, no further registration is necessary.

The department said that whatever the cause, anyone who doesn't register his boat as required before April 2 will have to pay an additional $2.50. Also there is a $50 fine for anyone caught operating his boat without the new state number on either side of the boat's bow.

Students To Hear Two Candidates

Two aspirants for the state Assembly from the 7th Marin-Sonoma District will speak before San Rafael High School's chapter of Junior Statesmen tomorrow.

Joseph G. Wilson (D) and William T. Bagley (R), will give 10-minute talks on why they think their party could best represent the district, said Mike Kleinmann, president.

A question and answer period will follow the talks.

The U. S. Army and Air Force now have about 4,000 dogs on active duty.

Cigarette Tax Invoice Plan Clears Hurdle

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Legislation to boost the state's take from the cigarette tax by $1,900,000 a year went to the Assembly today with the unanimous approval of the revenue and taxation committee.

The committee, rejecting industry warnings that passage would lead to bootlegging, voted 11-0 yesterday in favor of the measure authored by Assemblyman Thomas J. MacBride (D-Sacramento).

The bill calls for collection of the three-cent-a-pack tax on invoices instead of by stamps. Distributors are paid 2 per cent for collecting the stamp tax, but would receive nothing for an invoice levy.

This would give the state an extra $1,900,000, MacBride said. The total income from the tax is about 65 million dollars a year.

The Assembly voted in favor of an invoice tax a year ago, but the Senate stood firm in favor of a stamp tax.

Ceylon Election

COLOMBO, Ceylon (UPI)—This restive Indian Ocean island is slated to elect a new Parliament Saturday, but with 23 parties in the field, it is doubtful any will emerge with a clean victory.

Political leaders agree firm and decisive government is vitally needed to tackle Ceylon's pressing economic and social problems. But they don't see much hope of a solution after a confused campaign in which 898 candidates competed for 151 seats in the lower house.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Demand Plane Return

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has demanded immediate return of five B26 medium bombers which it claims the Dominican government acquired illegally.

Informed authorities who disclosed this today said the five American-built planes, rebuilt twin-engine models used during World War II, have shown up as part of the Dominican air force although arms shipments have been banned to the Caribbean area for two years.

The aircraft were shipped by a Miami exporter last year with assurances they were going to Chile to be used in aerial photography work. Chilean authorities report the planes never arrived.

Missile Reports Back

WHITE SANDS, N. M. (AP)—NATO troops yesterday fired a missile equipped with a new device to let field commanders know instantly what damage it has done.

The Redstone missile carried its own TV transmitter in a capsule. As the missile plunged toward its target, the capsule was parachuted from it.

A televised broadcast of the damage done by the missile was transmitted to an Army control station 75 miles away.

Adoption Approved

OLD BRIDGE, N. J. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Combs went ahead today with plans to adopt their brilliant 4-year-old foster child, Alice Marie, following a surprise state decision clearing the way.

"I'm so completely happy," Combs said after the New Jersey Board of Child Welfare yesterday abandoned its contention that the girl was too intellectually gifted for her foster parents to rear.

Messy Junk Yard

ST. LOUIS (AP) — It would seem to be an occupational hazard but a St. Louis junk dealer was fined $250 for having a messy junkyard.

Adam Laub pleaded innocent in City Court, saying he could not get the price he wanted for the junk and had no place else to put it.

Sent To Girls' Home

SANTA MONICA (AP)—Cheryl Crane, Lana Turner's 16-year-old daughter, is in a county-operated home for teen-age girls.

Superior Court Judge Allen T. Lynch disclosed yesterday that Cheryl had been removed from her grandmother's house last week and taken to the El Retiro School for Girls in suburban Sylmar.

Cheryl was made a ward of the court after she fatally stabbed her mother's boy friend, Johnny Stompanato, April 4, 1958. The court gave custody to her maternal grandmother, Mildred Turner.

Quiz Winner Broke

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Teddy Nadler, the St. Louis clerk who won $264,000 on television quiz shows, is trying to get a $13-a-day job as a census taker.

"I'm broke," said Nadler. "I need money."

Nadler, who has a photographic memory, ground out answers to difficult questions steadily from 1956 through 1958 on TV quiz shows.

When his television appearances ended, Nadler couldn't find work. He says he has had "a lot of doctor bills and some bad callers who gave me bad advice."

Harbor Loan Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Senate has approved a resolution by Sen. Donald L. Grunsky (R-Watsonville) appropriating $13,541,000 for small craft harbor loans during fiscal 1960-61.

The resolution now goes to the Assembly.

Murder Charge Set

SAN LUIS OBISPO (AP)—James A. Cathey, a mental patient who is blamed for four killings, is to be charged with murder.

Dist. Atty. Paul Davis said Cathey, 29, would be charged with the knife slaying yesterday of John C. Tiessen, 21, a psychiatric technician at Atascadero State Hospital.

Cathey went berserk in his hospital room, knifing Tiessen and four other attendants. The others were reported in good condition.

Snow Hits Midwest

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A blustery snowstorm landed another wintry blow today at broad areas in the Midwest, already punchy from a month of heavy snow and unseasonable cold.

The new storm, powered by easterly winds of 20 to 35 m.p.h., dumped heavy snow from eastern Kansas and northern Missouri as it swept northeastward.

The fresh snow fell atop a covering more than a foot high in many places in Kansas, northern Missouri, southeast Nebraska and southern Iowa.

Tenor Stricken

LONDON (AP)—Jussi Bjoerling, Swedish opera tenor who sang in "La Boheme" last night despite a light heart attack, told the Royal Opera House today he felt well and would make his third appearance Friday in Puccini's opera.

Bjoerling suffered last night's attack—his second in seven months—just before he was scheduled to go on as Rodolfo. The 50-year-old singer heard that Queen Mother Elizabeth was in the audience and insisted he would not disappoint her or the capacity audience at Convent Garden.

U. S. Arms Called Best

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates Jr. testified today that the United States outstrips Russia "by several times" in power of nuclear weapons and in long-range ability to deliver them.

He told senators studying the nation's defense that the Russian threat is not met best "by matching missile for missile." In fact, he said, "We must not allow ourselves to overconcentrate on any instrument of war."

"We have, in combination, 'enough' to bring destruction to anyone who attacks us," Gates said. "We are designing our programs to maintain this strength."

Gates made the statements before the combined Senate space committee and preparedness subcommittee.

Sonoma County State College Bill Introduced

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Is the Legislature killing the "master plan" for higher education with amendments?

A Senate committee yesterday adopted major changes and put off a vote on some more which would alter the character of the compromise plan.

"We'll soon be laboring over a corpse," warned Sen. Donald Grunsky (R-Watsonville), one of the sponsors.

While the Senate Education Committee rewrote the master plan, other educational matters which depend on it advanced.

The Assembly Ways and Means Committee added three million dollars to the budget for acquisition of three new campus sites for the University of California—at San Diego, Orange County, and in the Santa Clara-Santa Cruz area.

The Senate Education Committee approved a bill for a new state college in Los Angeles, and a new bill was introduced by Sen. Joseph Rattigan (D-Santa Rosa) for a state college in Sonoma County.

One of the main things the master plan hoped to achieve was an end to competition for sites by the university and state colleges.

The master plan, worked out by a college-university liaison committee, has as its key feature a separate, independent board to administer the state colleges, which are now operated by the state Board of Education.

The colleges insist on this board—which would be similar in financial independence to the University of California Board of Regents.

The Senate committee adopted amendments by Sen. George Miller Jr. (D-Martinez) which would retain legislative control over salary levels, expansion of research facilities, and much of the state college finances.

Miller warned of insulating the board from the people," but Grunsky said the amendments were wrecking the compromise.

The committee delayed vote on another set of amendments by Sen. Hugo Fisher (D-San Diego), which would further restrict the independence of the state college board.

Solons Study Stiff Exhaust Control Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A tough anti-smog bill designed to require all cars registered in California to have exhaust control devices went before the Senate transportation committee today.

The bill, stronger than an administration-backed Assembly anti-smog proposal, was introduced by Sen. Richard Richards (D-Los Angeles).

The administration bill, submitted to the Assembly by Assemblyman Ronald Cameron (D-Whittier), already had been approved by the Assembly Public Health Committee and was ready for action later today by the Ways and Means Committee.

Meanwhile, another anti smog bill showed up in the Senate.

Sen. Hugo Fisher (D-San Diego) introduced a bill yesterday to require that the state Department of Public Health maintain a program of air sanitation and air pollution surveillance.

Purchase Of School Site Gets Approval

San Jose School District trustees agreed Tuesday night that they want to purchase 17½ acres at the end of San Jose boulevard, beyond Rafael Village, for an intermediate school site.

Official approval of the purchase was delayed, however, until a special meeting at 6:15 p. m. March 24, to permit a check on a detail of road cost.

The property is owned by Ruben Kaehler and a group of owners represented by Merritt Pollock of San Rafael. The site has San Jose boulevard on one side and Sunset parkway on the other.

A 28-room school is being planned for the site, although only half if it probably will be Schneider said.
built at first, Supt. Phillip Schneider said.

The board also approved a recommendation that some half dozen apartment houses next to Lynwood School be included in the San Jose district. The houses are now in Novato Unified School District. Children in the houses have to walk across Lynwood School property to get to a school in Novato. The property owner filed a petition asking to be incorporated in the San Jose district. Novato Unified School District disapproved. The county committee for school district organization will take up the matter next.

In other business, the board:
1. Approved maternity leave for Mrs. Carol Place, second grade teacher at Lynwood, and resignation of Mrs. June Lord, seventh grade teacher at Pacheco.
2. Hired Mrs. Kay Fisher to teach new first and second grades at Meadow Park.

Vending Machine Stolen In Novato

A 300-pound cigarette vending machine, with about 400 packs of cigarettes and $30 in change inside, vanished from Novato during the weekend, sheriff's deputies reported yesterday.

The machine, owned by the Redwood Empire Vending Machine Co. of San Francisco, was located in front of the HiFi Restaurant.

John Elmer Hoekman, who operates the restaurant, said he did not notice the theft. When a customer asked him for a cigarette, he referred him to the machine. But the whole machine was gone.

The machine is valued at $350.

Olema Man Again Dairymen's President

Armin Truttman of Olema, West Marin dairyman, is starting his fourth year as president of the American Dairy Assn. of California as result of re-election during a recent two-day annual meeting at Sacramento.

Truttman was also named to the national board of the American Dairy Assn.

English engineer George Stephenson invented the locomotive. His son, George, invented the tubular bridge.

Silver Dollar Days Slated In Novato

Novato shoppers will find bargains galore this week in the city's stores.

The annual Silver Dollar Days—one of the biggest sales events of the year—will be held tomorrow, Friday and Saturday.

More than 100 merchants are participating in the bargain days, all pledged to give customers an opportunity to buy at lower-than-usual prices.

A number of stores will remain open until 9 p. m. Friday to give more shoppers time to take advantage of the bargains.

SPEECH BRIEF, BUT IT BEATS FILIBUSTERING

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—Sen. Walter H. Jones was caught flat-footed when his name was called to talk about one of his bills.

He had no idea which one it was.

But Jones was equal to the occasion. "If I'm sponsoring it, it's a good bill," he said.

Naval Academy Honor

Midshipman Bruce W. Churchill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Asa G. Churchill of 120 Kinross drive, San Rafael, has been named to the superintendent's list at the U.S. Naval Academy for the first half of the second term of the 1959-60 academic year. To achieve the List a midshipman must attain an outstanding academic average as well as demonstrate proficiency in physical education.

Congress To Debate Foreign-Student Bill

A bill that would allow the taxpayer a $600 exemption for each foreign student who resides in his home while attending high school in the United States will be debated on the U. S. Senate floor sometime next week, said Mrs. Mortimer Weiss, president of the Redwood High School chapter of the American Field Service.

She urged persons interested in the measure to get letters to their congressmen immediately. Letters should refer to "The heading under Section 4 dealing with Certain Foreign Students of HR9660," she said.

POLICE GET TOUGH WITH NEGRO PUPILS

Mass Arrest In South Draw Accusations That Officers Are Using Fascist Tactics

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

More than 500 Negroes have been arrested in the largest mass police crackdown since demonstrations against segregated eating facilities in the South began a month and a half ago.

The blanket arrests yesterday led one state official of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People to charge that police were engaging in strongarm, Fascist-like tactics.

Police at Orangeburg, S.C., used tear gas and fire hoses to quell an estimated 1,000 demonstrating students and arrested 350 of them. All were charged with breach of the peace and released under $10 bond each.

At Atlanta, in segregation-minded Georgia, 77 Negroes and two white youths were jailed in connection with sit-ins at 10 downtown cafeterias. The Negroes were released later on $300 bond each. The white youths were given 30-day jail terms.

Among those arrested was Rev. A. D. William King, a brother of Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., Negro integration leader and exponent of passive resistance.

Arrests also occurred in two other South Carolina cities and at St. Augustine, Fla.

The Orangeburg arrests came after police tried to break up a protest march by about 1,000 students from South Carolina A. & T. and Claflin colleges. The students refused to disperse. Fire hoses were turned on about 300 of them and two tear gas cannisters were exploded.

Rev. H. P. Sharper, a Florence Baptist minister and president of the South Carolina NAACP Conference, said that because of "strong-arm, Fascist-like tactics" of peace officers "we conclude that appeal to federal agencies is our last resort."

In other South Carolina developments, 70 Negroes were arrested at Rock Hill as they picketed city hall. Ten Negroes were arrested at Columbia and charged with trespassing at lunch counters in variety stores.

13 Found Dead In W. Virginia Mine Disaster

LOGAN, W.Va. (UPI)—Stretcher bearers worked in a blinding snowfall today to carry out the canvas-shrouded bodies of 13 miners from the cavernous depths of the Holden No. 22 mine near here where they and five others were trapped eight days ago by a roof fall and fire.

The search pressed on for five other still missing miners, but there was virtually no hope they would be found alive.

The words, "The Lord is my shepherd," were heard above the gusty wind as three members of a Salvation Army disaster unit recited the 23rd Psalm.

MEG'S FIANCE NOT SO COMMON AFTER ALL; HAS ROYAL BLOOD

LONDON (UPI) — Princess Margaret's commoner fiance has turned out to be the great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great grandson of English King Edward I.

Not only that, but Anthony Armstrong-Jones who will marry the princess May 6, also happens to be her 12th cousin twice removed—their first common ancestor being Collwyn ap (son of) Tangno, a Welsh chieftain who ate his rarebit about 1,000 years ago.

These "thrilling" discoveries were announced last night by Patrick Montague-Smith, an expert on such things who serves as assistant editor of Debrett's, the bible of British titles.

"I am pretty certain Princess Margaret and the rest of the royal family are unaware of Mr. Armstrong-Jones' descent from the royal line," Montague-Smith said. "I am sure it will come as a pleasant surprise to them all."

A copy of his calculations was being rushed to Buckingham Palace, he said.

Rhee Forces Win Bloody Korean Vote

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Syngman Rhee's forces won the presidency and vice presidency of South Korea today in a landslide after a bloody election the opposition charged was rigged. The anti-Rhee Democratic Party promised a court contest.

Post-election violence flared anew as demonstrators, disgruntled with the outcome of the voting, scuffled today with police in front of the Democrats' Seoul headquarters.

At least seven and perhaps as many as 11 persons were reported killed yesterday in election violence.

'WAITED A LIFETIME'

Air Crash Victims Treated After Rescue From Peak

ELY, Nev. (UPI)—Five persons were being treated at the Stepdoe Valley Hospital today for injuries suffered in the crash of their light plane on a rugged, snow covered mountain peak early Sunday.

Hospital officials reported two of the five, Mr. and Mrs. Wes L. Stoddard, Anchorage, Alaska, suffered back injuries in the crash.

Three other occupants of the plane which crash landed at the 11,100 foot level of South Shell Peak, about 15 miles northeast of Ely, were not seriously hurt.

They were plucked from the mountainside yesterday by an Air Force helicopter which defied buffeting winds to get the five to safety. The helicopter was part of rescue operations organized from Hamilton Air Force Base.

The five huddled for two days in the cabin of their crashed airplane waiting and praying for help while outside temperatures dropped to 15 below zero.

"It seemed like we waited a lifetime," Stoddard said.

Philip Egner, a cellist in the Metropolitan Opera orchestra, was bandmaster at West Point for 25 years. He abandoned his cello for a rifle in fighting with the 17th U. S. Infantry in the Spanish-American war.

Hendrickson Admits Lies On Finances

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—John R. Hendrickson, 40, San Rafael manufacturer, admitted at his bank embezzlement trial yesterday that his glowing financial statements were "out and out lies."

Hendrickson is on trial in federal court on charges of misappropriating $3,740,000 from the U.S. National Bank of San Diego's Long Beach branch.

Prosecutors claim the sum is possibly the largest embezzlement in the history of this country's banking system.

Hendrickson interrupted his testimony while being examined by Asst. U.S. Atty. Bruce A. Bevan Jr. to try to clarify his financial worth. Earlier, he said a 1958 statement setting his worth at two-million dollars was basically correct.

"After doing some careful thinking over the weekend," he said, "I want to say that would not be true—it was off considerably.

"It did not reflect the true net worth of myself at that time."

Hendrickson told Federal Judge Alexander Bicks he was "in a confused state of mind" when he testified earlier.

Mumps, Measles Top Disease List

Measles and mumps continued unabated in Marin County last week.

The weekly report of Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, today showed 45 new cases of measles and 31 new cases of mumps reported to her office during the week ending last Saturday.

Novato had 16 measles cases, followed by San Rafael with 13, San Anselmo with 10, Corte Madera with four and Fairfax and Sausalito with one each.

Mumps were most heavily concentrated in San Rafael, where 19 new cases were reported. There were five in San Anselmo, four in Novato, two in Mill Valley and one in Kentfield.

There were also reports of 20 new cases of streptococcic infections, of which 10 were in Novato, four in Mill Valley, two in Fairfax, and one each in San Rafael, Sausalito, Ross and San Anselmo.

A case of gonorrhea was reported in San Rafael.

20 Schools To Participate In Tam District's Science Fair

Twenty Marin County elementary high schools will participate in the 1959-60 Tamalpais Union High School District Science Fair opening tomorrow.

Andrew W. McClain, Tamalpais High science teacher and director of the fair, announced exhibits were being set up today in the high school in Mill Valley. Judging will begin at 7 p. m. tomorrow, and the fair will be open to the public Friday from 7 to 9 p. m. Elementary school classes may visit by previous arrangement throughout Friday.

The Tam High fair has been designated the official elimination event for the annual Bay Science Fair to be held April 2-6 at the California Academy of Sciences in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park.

Judges for the district fair are Dr. Paul Bedessen, professor of biology at San Francisco State College; Dr. R. O. Bolt, research chemist for Cal Research; John Burke, science department chairman at George Washington High School, San Francisco; Richard Couvillion, mechanical engineer for Cal Research; Robert H. Prather, coordinator of child welfare and attendance and former science instructor in the Tamalpais district, and Dr. Delman D. Smith, chairman of the Tam District board of trustees.

Working with McClain as a planning committee are Leon G. Bennett and Mrs. Katherine M. Flanagan, Tam High; Keith MacNab and Norman N. Goldstein Jr., Drake High; William J. Edick and J. Woodward Johnson, Redwood; Miss Jane Adams, Edna Maguire School, Mill Valley, fair coordinator for elementary schools; and Raymond J. Palmer, retired Tam High science instructor, as fair consultant.

Basis for awards, McClain said, will be demonstrated creative abality, scientific thought, thoroughness of work, skill, clarity of presentation, dramatic value, utilitarian value, and originality.

Participating elementary schools include Fairfax Central, Deer Park, Manor, Adeline Kent, Larkspur-Corte Madera, Neil Cummins, Edna Maguire, Reed, Ross, Isabel Cook, Sleepy Hollow, Pacheco, Richardson Bay, Marin County Day and Dominican Lower.

High Schools are Novato, San Rafael, Sir Francis Drake, Redwood and Tamalpais.

McClain said the fair is to promote a county wide event as a preliminary to the Bay Area fair, to stimulate student interest and inspire careers in science, to encourage educators in guiding interesting students, to provide recognition, to offer opportunity for exchange of experiences, to arouse public interest in the value of student scientific achievement, and to enlarge the pool of trained people in the Bay Area, thereby assisting business, industry and civic communities.

ALCOHOLISM TO BE RADIO PANEL TOPIC

A discussion of "What is being done for alcoholism in Marin," will be held from 9 to 10 a. m. tomorrow on radio KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board."

Guests of moderator Kitty Oppenneimer will be Dr. Samuel T. D. Anderson, psychiatrist; Rev. Wesley C. Baker of the First Presbyterian Church, San Rafael, and two members of Alcoholics Anonymous, both residents of Marin.

The program will be rebroadcast at 12:30 p. m. Sunday from a recording.

Dostoyefsky, noted Russian novelist, also was a Siberian exile.

Teachers Set Benefit Event

The Mill Valley Teachers Assn. will hold its second annual benefit April 1 to raise funds to provide a scholarship for a Tamalpais High School senior in the field of education.

The benefit will be from 8 p.m. to midnight at the Park School auditorium.

Selection of the student is now being considered and the scholarship presentation will be made April 1, according to Glen Skelton, chairman of the scholarship committee.

Plans are being made to hold a variety show and a dinner, Skelton said, and there will be tables available for those wishing to play bridge.

'CHUCK HOLES'

Developer Lashes Out At Council Criticism

San Rafael developer F. Lloyd Grandi, who was sharply criticized at the San Rafael City Council meeting of March 7, lashed back today with a statement of his own.

City fathers, forced to use city funds to fill chuck holes on a portion of undedicated Elizabeth way, castigated Grandi on March 7 for not bringing streets and sewers up to city standards.

This raised the ire of Grandi, who was not at the meeting.

"I regret that people in public office see fit to use such office to vent their personal spite," Grandi declared in a letter to the Independent-Journal.

Grandi related difficulties with the city government dating back to 1955, blaming the city council for obstacles placed in the way of his development of Fairhills.

As to the street and its chuck holes, he wrote that on Dec. 16, 1955, Warren Gonnason, then city engineer, "wrote me saying he had made final inspection of the improvements and they were ready for acceptance by the city upon completion of a few 'minor items.' . . . All the work requested by Mr. Gonnason was done . . . It was my understanding the matter terminated as I heard nothing more about it.

"On Oct. 6, 1958, I received a letter from Mr. (Norris) Rawles, street inspector, saying the city did not have title to the extension, it belonged to me, and it had some chuck holes which needed immediate repair." He informed Rawles, he wrote, that the street had been approved for acceptance by Gonnason.

Since then, Grandi contends, he kept asking what was needed for the street to be accepted by the city, but "Rawles repeatedly refused to list the requirements on paper."

Many of Rawle's demands were unfair and not necessary, Grandi contends. And additional demands were added.

"Incidentally," wrote Grandi, "the chuck holes of which Mr. Rawles complained were not because of any deficiency in the street work. The underground phone lines to Hamilton Field went up the street, and the trench had sunk, creating the chucks . . .

"I have never installed any streets or sewers which did not meet standards. (How could the city engineer have accepted them if this were true?) . . .

"At no time have I refused to cooperate, providing the requests were fair."

Africa Topic Of Lecture In Mill Valley

"Faces of Africa," an illustrated lecture by Mill Valley artist Helen Gapen Oehler, will be presented on March 25 as a benefit for the foreign exchange student fund of the American Field Service.

The program will start at 8 p.m., in the Ruby Scott Auditorium of Tamalpais High School, announced Mrs. Carl Mosher, Marin chapter chairman of American Field Service.

Highlight of the lecture, based on Mrs. Oehler's recent safari, will be colored slides of rarely photographed bushmen and wild animals in areas she says were never before visited by an organized tou .

Mrs. Oehler, whose paintings have been exhibited nationally and abroad, has traveled throughout the world. Her interest in color photography stems from her sketching trips.

Curios collected by Mrs. Oehler also will be on display. Refreshments will be served by a committee headed by Margot Lieberman of the Tamalpais International Club.

Death Dates Set For Three Killers

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Superior Court judges have set death dates for three convicted killers.

Judge Leroy Dawson fixed May 13 as the execution date for James D. Hooten, 27, convicted of the June 20, 1958, slaying of police officer Thomas Scebbi. Dawson also fixed May 20 for the execution of George A. Scott, 38, killer of film executive Kenneth F. Savoy during a Dec. 30, 1958, tavern robbery.

Donald Cash, 32, who murdered his landlady, Mrs. Etta Weatherspoon, 73, with an ax on Nov. 6, 1958, was scheduled to die May 13 by Judge J. Howard Zieman.

Student Director

Warren T. McFall, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McFall of 66 Corte Solano avenue, San Rafael, and a senior at the University of California at Davis, has been named traffic director of the 47th annual Cal Aggie Picnic Day to be held April 23 on the campus.

PUPPETS, 'TELEVISION'

Greenbrae Kids Give Novel Study Reports

You can take back your rhumba-ay if you want to, but the sixth graders in Mrs. Mabel Burnett's class at Greenbrae School won't.

They have found South America a fascinating subject, and recently presented reports on the continent.

One student presented a diorama in illustration of a talk on ancient Incan civilization. Two other students presented a roundup of facts on coffee, and gave a puppet show starting "Mr. and Mrs. Cacoa from Brazil."

A homemade "television" set was used to illustrate facts on rubber and Brazil nuts.

The children heard such facts as these: that a quipu is an Incan device for record keeping, that balsa is the Spanish word for raft, and that most detergents are made from Brazil nuts.

Mrs. Burnett had prepared her class for report day by letting them read or tell what they had learned in out-of-class reading. Next, they worked from an outline, and finally they learned to prepare card notes. Thus, they had in hand the mechanics for preparing a report on their own—such as the one on South America.

They selected topics from a list prepared by the teacher, and were asked to think of an original way to give a report. After the reports were given Mrs. Burnett offered no criticism. Later, she said, the class itself will evaluate the reports and review their contents.

Mrs. Burnett, a Greenbrae teacher since 1954, teaches all subjects, but is a specialist in social studies. She has been awarded a life membership by the Greenbrae-Wolfe Grade Parent-Teacher Association for outstanding contributions to children.

Principal George Renworth said her class on South America paid a dividend, in that it improved the reading of a problem reader 100 per cent.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) —When Policeman J. Waverly Applewhite wounded himself with a pistol while target practicing, his greatest worry was about six acres of corn ready for harvest.

Written Policy On Twin Cities Recreation Set

The Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission decided last night to prepare a written statement of commission policies.

Chairman Albert E. Kogler will head a three-member committee appointed to draft the statement. Another committee of three, headed by Roy Davis, was asked to prepare the commission's 1960-61 budget.

The commission approved a spring recreation program for Twin Cities children of all school ages. Plans for the program, to start April 4, were submitted by Bill Gordon, recreation director.

Commissioners learned that a special committee of nine volunteers has started work on planning and financing the annual Twin Cities Fourth of July fireworks display. Co-chairmen are William Snell and Carl Brown.

WED 50 YEARS — Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sage Hannis pose for golden wedding picture at family dinner given them by their two sons. They will be feted on the anniversary a second time Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo. (George Wheeler photo)

Two Fetes Mark Golden Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sage Hannis will celebrate their golden wedding a second time Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo.

The family of the long-time Marin couple feted them with a family dinner Saturday at the Alta Mira Hotel in Sausalito. Their fellow church members will attend the church reception Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hannis, who call Alpine Dam home, were wed March 11, 1910, at Fairview Orchard, near Chico, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Wilson.

MET IN CHICO

Jessie Bergetta Wilson was attending Chico State Teachers College when she met Russ Hannis, a young Chico surveyor.

During the early years of their marriage, Mrs. Hannis taught school and her husband often traveled from place to place in his employment.

For two years, he surveyed for the Sacramento Valley Irrigation Co., which was developing 50,000 acres in Glen and Colusa counties, eventually used for rice culture. After completion of this project, he worked for the state Division of Highways, surveying for roads in Sacramento Canyon from Red Bluff to Dunsmuir.

TAUGHT SCHOOL

Jessie Wilson started her teaching career at Placer School, from which she had graduated as a young girl. She recalls that she had 25 pupils in nine grades. The pay was $90 per month.

At another school she taught all grades for $78 per month.

After her marriage, she taught seventh grade boys at Bakersfield for $102 a month. "I thought I was sitting on top of the world," she says.

Mrs. Hannis is a past matron of Penrhyn Chapter 159, Order of Eastern Star. Since moving to Marin County, she has been a member of Eastern Star Chapter 215 of San Rafael. Her husband is a member of San Rafael Masonic Lodge 215.

RESIDE AT DAM

During their long Marin residence, Hannis has been employed by Marin Municipal Water District. He is now superintendent of Alpine Dam, and they have their home at the dam, with an impressive view of Marin's hills and valleys.

Their two sons, both reared and educated in Marin, are Russell W. Hannis, a California Highway Patrol captain in San Leandro, and Eugene, assistant in the California National Guard with headquarters at the Richmond Armory.

Northern Demos, GOP Agree On Rights Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—House Republicans and northern Democrats agreed today on a compromise voting referee formula aimed at preventing Southern foes from knocking a key provision out of the civil rights bill.

The Southerners in a series of parliamentary maneuvers almost killed the section in a stormy session yesterday.

In the Senate, Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen (Ill.) said he was "confident" the House would "get back to the voting referee plan" in its final version of the bill.

Dirksen made the prediction to reporters as the Senate also resumed civil rights debate.

The new, and somewhat shaky House agreement, was designed to keep the civil rights forces together on the floor today. Whether it would do so remained to be seen. The agreement was reached shortly before the House met to begin action again on the legislation.

Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) of the House Judiciary Committee, Democratic floor manager, said there was "substantial agreement" among the Republicans to support the proposed new Democratic amendment to be offered by Rep. James G. O'Hara (D-Mich.).

Rep. William M. McCulloch (R-Ohio), Republican floor manager, told a reporter that the amendment was acceptable to the administration.

Of the new House amendment, northern Democrats said the proposed revision would strengthen the administration plan by insuring that Negroes qualified by referees could vote provisionally pending final outcome of legal challenges.

The administration was reported to have accepted the proposed amendment in exchange for assurances from northern Democrats that they would not back a new effort to win House approval of an alternate, and tougher, voting rights plan.

Money-Back Guarantee

MILWAUKEE (AP) — When Llewellyn Culbert discovered the record player he gave his wife for her birthday was not in working condition, he hastily demanded that a department store service department repair the machine.

Repairs were made, but the only trouble, according to police, was that Culbert had stolen the machine from the store.

He was found guilty of theft.

Choked For Words

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP) — George Norman was arrested in connection with a $55 robbery. En route to the police station officers noted Norman was trying to talk about it, but just couldn't.

Officers took a long look at Norman's swollen cheeks, forced his mouth open and found 12 one dollar bills. The money was seized as evidence.

Debut of the Comet

Tomorrow, at Mercury-Comet dealer's, first compact car with fine-car styling —priced with or below other compacts.

You're looking at the exciting new value-packed compact—Comet.

NOTE ITS BEAUTIFUL STYLING. No sawed-off, cut-down look, here. The Comet is proportioned like a fine car—long flowing lines, outstanding good looks.

LOOK CLOSELY AT THE EXTRA FEATURES. You pay nothing more for dual headlights, front and rear arm rests, door-operated dome light, foam padded front seat. And the trunk holds enough for the whole family on a long trip.

YOU'LL MARVEL AT THE ECONOMY. Comet's new simplified "six" engine delivers up to 28 miles per gallon of regular gas.

YOU'LL REVEL IN THE RIDE. No choppy steering, no bumpy travelling in Comet. The longer wheelbase (114" instead of 107" in average compacts) gives Comet a smoother ride, yet it turns on a dime.

NOW, CHECK THE PRICE. Comet is priced with or below other compacts like Rambler, Corvair, Lark, Valiant and Falcon.

COMPARE ALL THE COMPACT CARS —and you'll come away with a Comet. It's now at your Mercury-Comet dealer's.

FINEST COMPACT WAGONS ON THE MARKET. The new Comet wagons go far beyond what you might expect in a compact station wagon of this size. There is over 76 cubic feet for storage—as much room as in some wagons costing hundreds of dollars more; a retractable rear window takes the place of the old-fashioned liftgate. And, there is ample room for six adults with plenty of space left over for baggage. Along with the Comet two- and four-door sedans, there are two- and four-door wagons as well.

WHAT'S A DIODE? LOOK CLOSELY

Since Fairchild Semiconductor Corp. started erecting a San Rafael plant and training local employees for manufacture of diodes, many people have been wondering what a diode looks like. Here's the answer: Look closely, for each of the six little tube-like affairs on each panel of this "electronic cribbage board" is a diode. The two center cylinders are transistors. This is an integral part of Bendix Aviation Corp.'s new G20 computing system, which will do a great variety of computations at speeds up to 45,000 per second. It uses 5,000 transistors and 30,000 diodes. Bendix is one of Fairchild's customers, but these particular diodes were not made by the company now building in Marin, a company spokesman said.

Adenauer Urges Plebiscite In Berlin

WASHINGTON (UPI) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said today the people of Berlin should be asked to vote prior to the May 16 summit meeting on whether they prefer the present status of the city or Soviet-proposed changes.

He told a National Press Club luncheon audience it was "simply unacceptable" not to apply the principle of self-determination in Berlin.

The overwhelming majority of Berliners, Adenauer said, would favor keeping the city's status unchanged.

Knowing this, he said, Western leaders could tell Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev at the summit session that the people rejected his desire for Western troops to leave Berlin and for the city to become an international zone.

Adenauer said the idea of a plebiscite occured to him only this morning and that he had not mentioned the proposal in his talk with President Eisenhower yesterday.

Adenauer also said:

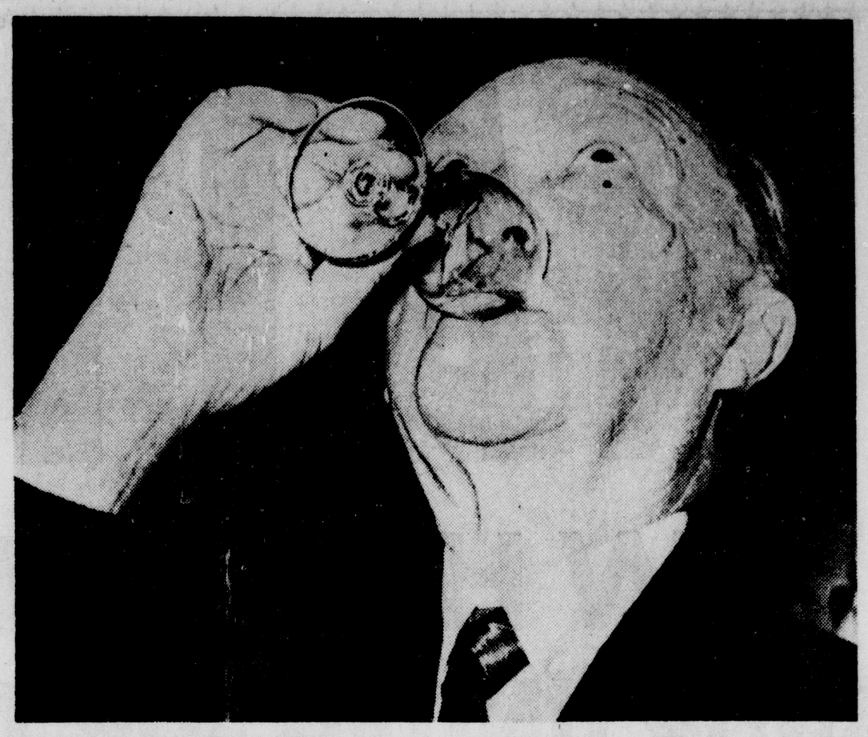
West Germany will remain a democratic state and "every citizen of Jewish faith enjoys the same rights and same privileges of any other citizen" there.

He expects the United States to succeed eventually in bringing about controlled world disarmament—"if not in this first summit meeting perhaps in the second or third summit meeting."

He believes a Western summit conference probably will precede the May 16 meeting in Paris of the leaders of the United States, Soviet Union, Britain and France.

The May 16 talks should be "the beginning of a period which should bring rest to the world." He said Khrushchev agreed with him that its most important problem is "to liberate the poor and terrified people from fear" of a world holocaust.

Adenauer appeared satisfied that his talks here with President Eisenhower had helped assure a firm Allied summit stand on the Berlin issue.



A TOAST BY ADENAUER — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer presented this study as he drank a toast during a visit to the AFL-CIO headquarters in Washington today. There he was hosted by top union officials. The wine? It's a clear one from the Rhine region. (AP Wirephoto)

Reporter Hurt In Car Crash; Two Arrested

Two Terra Linda housewives were arrested late yesterday after a car operated by one of them smashed into an auto driven by an Independent-Journal reporter.

The accident happened in the southbound lanes of Highway 101 just north of the Black Point Cutoff.

TWO CHARGED

Mrs. Carolyn Brolan, 32, of 576 Whitewood drive, was charged with drunken driving, and her passenger, Mrs. Mildred S. Burgess, 43, of 572 Whitewood drive, was charged with being drunk in an around an automobile. Mrs. Brolan was released on $315 bail, Mrs. Burgess on $52 bail.

The California Highway Patrol said the car driven by Mrs. Brolan struck one being driven by Dorothy Blackman, 32, of 1011 Second street, San Rafael, an I-J reporter. Miss Blackman's small English sedan was knocked into the rear of a truck driven by Mario L. Ferrero, 29, of Irvington.

The CHP said Miss Blackman was slowing down behind the truck which had stopped for a stop light at the intersection. The crash caused major damage to Miss Blackman's car. The rear of the truck had minor damage and the car driven by Mrs. Brolan had damaged front fenders and grill.

'DRIVING PROPERLY'

The patrol said Mrs. Brolan told them she didn't know what happened, except that she was driving properly.

Miss Blackman suffered leg and back injuries and was confined to her apartment today under care of a physician.

Contractor Gets Order To Move His Equipment

The Larkspur Planning Commission last night gave contractor P. H. Vincilione 21 days to move all of his unused or inoperable equipment from property owned by millionaire A. A. Tiscornia on Magnolia avenue, south of Bon Air road.

Items to be cleared away include old truck bodies, wheels and gasoline tanks. Vincilione was told to report to the commission April 5 on the status of contracts requiring him to use his operable heavy equipment, also stored on the open site.

Residents of nearby Hillview Gardens long ago asked cessation of the non-conforming industrial use on property zoned for business. They complained the equipment is an eyesore.

The zoning violation has continued despite several letters to Vincilione from the planning commission and City Manager Ronald E. Piper.

Vincilione told commissioners he has an agreement to obtain earth fill from Tiscornia for use on the site of a future Safeway Store at Bon Air road and Magnolia avenue. He said he will need some of his heavy equipment for the job.

The commission urged adoption of the city's proposed new zoning ordinance as an emergency measure to forestall a rush of applications under the present, less stringent ordinance. The city council has indicated it may take such action at its April 6 meeting.

For the third consecutive meeting, the absence of Commissioners Vaughn Marker and John Vandall prevented action on a petition by Schultz Building Co. for apartment rezoning of about 37 acres on Bon Air Hill in Greenbrae. A four-fifths vote is required for rezoning.

The shortage of commissioners also forced deferral of action on Charles T. Kendall's request for business rezoning of a lot immediately south of his garden Spot Nursery at 1144 Magnolia.

A delegation of College Court residents was prepared to oppose Kendall's petition and ask reversal of a two-year-old action which classified the nursery land as a business zone.

A petition signed by 28 residents claimed the "public welfare was not fully considered" by the 1958 action. It asked that the nursery property be returned to single-family residential and that the Garden Spot be operated on a use permit basis.

The commission approved the addition of two units to a four-unit apartment house at 27 Locust avenue. It postponed action, pending a site study, on Eugene Bissatini's plans for a six-unit apartment house at Hillcrest and Bayo Vista avenues.

N. Marin Water Board Sets Fire Line Charges

Directors of the North Marin Water District last night set up a schedule of charges for fire protection lines direct to certain types of large buildings.

At present there is only one such line in the district, a four-inch main into Rickey's Rancho Rafael at Ignacio. An eight-inch line will be constructed to the Nave Bowling Center north of Hamilton Air Force Base.

According to Jerome Gilbert, district manager, such lines and charges are set up by most water districts.

Charges will be: two-inch main, $3 a month; four-inch, $4; six-inch, $8; eight-inch, $12, and ten-inch $16.

At the same time the directors approved a $36,000 transmission line the Crown Development Co.'s Rancho Village Unit 4, northwest of Novato High School.

A discussion on salaries for engineering and accounting departments was postponed.

Terra Linda Firemen To Serve School

Terra Linda Community Services District directors decided last night to make one exception to the rule against sending the Terra Linda Fire Department outside the district's limits.

The fire department, the board ruled, may answer calls to the new Vallecitos School of Dixie School District. The school is just south of the district's boundary.

Directors held that the fire department acted properly in not responding to a recent call to a house fire about two blocks from the district boundary but across the ditch from the firehouse. The area, they pointed out, is neither within the community services district nor within the City of San Rafael.

Ship Is Showplace

BEACH HAVEN, N.J. (AP) — "Lucy Evelyn," say people around here, "is beached as high and as dry as a marshmallow in a drained cocoa cup."

She is a 140-foot packet and sailed the seas for many years. Now, the ship serves as a tourist attraction and houses a gift shop.

Built in 1917 for $64,000, authorities claim it would cost at least $200,000 to duplicate her.

HIZZONER ESTABLISHES FINE RECORD

PORT JERVIS, N.Y. (AP)—A crackdown on overtime parking caught up with Asst. Dist. Atty. Jerome Cohen.

"I must have the record so far," he remarked to the desk sergeant at the police station as he paid four $1 fines.

"No, I'm sorry," replied the sergeant. "You don't have the record. William J. Gregg has it."

Gregg, who has six fines, is the city court judge.

SUPERVISORS ROUNDUP

3-R School Gets Expansion Permit

Education without recreation got a boost from the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday when it voted 4-0, with Supervisor Vera Schultz absent, to reverse planning commission denial of a use permit to expand the 3-R School north of San Rafael.

Thomas P. Boyd, San Rafael attorney, made a brief presentation describing the school as one "nationally acclaimed" with its services much desired by "parents who are not looking for recreation, but for education."

He said the school started five years ago with 15 pupils and the enrollment has now grown to about 140. Parents must spend almost $1,000 a year to send a child, but there is an increasing demand so that it is desired to add 12 more rooms—10 classrooms and two for administration."

B. D. Dobbs of the planning staff reviewed the adverse recommendation of the planning commission based on lack of land for recreation and poor appearance of the premises.

Boyd said there is uncertainty as to plans of the state Division of Highways, and that it seemed futile to dress up the appearance only for the sake of people passing nearby on Highway 101.

"I am familiar with the school and it is very good," said Chairman Walter R. Castro. "At this time I too feel that landscaping isn't a good purpose and I move for a use permit."

Supervisor William D. Fusselman promptly seconded and Supervisor William A. Gnoss added that quite a few Novato boys are attending and "all are happy about it—it's doing a good job."

The board also:

1. Turned down a request from the probation department for payment of $40 tuition for University of California classes for juvenile hall supervisors.
2. Asked for a detailed written explanation from Chief Probation Officer Walter H. Busher on a request for $745 overtime in his department since last July 9.
3. Approved $1,158 in supplemental expenditures for the county health department to cover laboratory, postage and psychiatric consultation costs.
4. Appointed Violet Demnsmore a deputy clerk in the municipal court at monthly salary of $341.
5. Set for 2 p.m. April 5 a public hearing of Felix M. Warburg's proposal to zone a large West Marin area for minimum lot size. Four acres was originally suggested by Warburg but one acre was approved by the planning commission.
6. Appointed Arnold Heise, Franklin Gustafson and Emil Renati directors of the North Marin County Water District as had been proposed by a resolution of the district's board. No election was necessary, due to lack of opposition.
7. Approved Mill Valley agreement on Scott Valley Unit 1, adjacent to Mill Valley, later accepting a planning commission-approved map of the four-acre subdivision.

Supervisors To Look Into Permit Row

Corinthian Island's acute traffic problem was put forcefully to the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday by objectors to a building permit granted by the planning commission last week to A. P. Birich.

After hearing three letters and a personal presentation by Mrs. T. W. Harris of 19 Alcatraz avenue, Belvedere, the supervisors members decided they'd better see for themselves the allegedly dangerous situation on Tamalpais avenue, termed by the objectors "the only exit."

"More than 40 families use this avenue as their sole means of getting out," said Mrs. Harris. "Mr. Birch should be made to provide parking space so he wouldn't have to back out into Tamalpais, which is only 10 feet wide. When we drive down, we're flying blind."

Supervisor Vera Schultz of Mill Valley, in whose district the area lies, was absent, but had left a letter moving approval of the Birich application.

Impressed by the opposition, her colleagues said they would make personal visits to Corinthian Island and report their first-hand observations at 2 p.m. next Tuesday.

Faubus To Run For 4th Term As Governor

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus, a symbol of segregation since his defiance of court integration orders in 1957, announced today he will seek a fourth term.

Faubus is the first governor in the history of Arkansas to seek a fourth term, and is only the second to have won three terms.

The governor said he would continue to defend the "sovereign rights" of Arkansas and the right of the people to "manage their own affairs" as set out in the state and federal constitutions.

"On this, there will be no compromise on my part," Faubus said. "There can be no compromise with the usurpation of the people's rights which brings about tyranny."

Student Expelled For Taking Liquor To Party

The expulsion of a 15-year-old eighth grade student at Brookside School for taking liquor to a school party was confirmed at an executive session of the San Anselmo School District board Monday night.

The Independent-Journal erred yesterday in reporting the incident occurred at Isabel Cook School. It had been correctly reported as Brookside School in previous stories.

"We have had 63 dancing parties in the last seven years here and have never before had such an incident," declared James W. Stinchcomb, principal of Isabel Cook School.

The purpose of the executive session was noted on the agenda for the school board meeting. Supt. Harold R. DePue said he made no mention of it in reporting the meeting to the Independent-Journal yesterday because the action was routine, merely confirming expulsion by the superintendent, and "I took it for granted you knew all about it."

Legion Post Dinner

The annual corned beef dinner for members and families of Mill Valley Post 284, American Legion, will be held at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, at the Legion hall at 467 Miller avenue. William P. Cavanagh is in charge.

Planes Collide; 3 Die

TOKYO (AP)—A Japanese airliner carrying 28 passengers and a Japanese air force Sabre Jet collided tonight on the runway at Komaki air base, in central Japan. Three passengers were reported dead and 19 injured. Five of the injured were reported in serious condition.

A spokesman for All Nippon Airways in Tokyo said a DC3 of the line landed on the runway after a flight from Tokyo and was turning to go to the unloading area when the Sabre Jet crashed into its tail.

BAD MISHAPS HAPPEN IN GOOD WEATHER

SACRAMENTO (AP) — More than half the serious traffic accidents in California last year occurred on straight, level and dry roads in the daylight and clear weather-proof, the California Highway Patrol says, that "people rather than conditions cause traffic accidents."

CHP Commissioner Bradford M. Crittender said, however, that there were more fatal accidents at night. There were 95,880 death and injury accidents during 1959.

The toll was 3,588 fatalities and 143,634 injuries.

Man's Condition 'Fair'

Gary Huntington of 201 Sir Francis Drake boulevard, Fairfax, was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital. He was seriously injured in a motorcycle accident in front of his apartment Monday night.

The Comet, America's Newest Automobile, On Display Here

America's newest automobile, the just-over-compact-size Comet of Lincoln-Mercury Division of Ford Motor Co., went on display in San Rafael today at Bugna Lincoln-Mercury, Third street and Lincoln avenue.

The car is slightly larger and higher styled than the recently announced compacts of the "Big Three" and is based on Ford's Falcon with virtually the same six-cylindered 90 horsepower regular-fuel engine.

But it has more length, greater luggage space, more brightwork, a roofline of Thunderbird type with good headroom, and a body resembling that of the 1960 Mercury. Sedan wheelbase is 114 inches, over-all length 195.

Comet has more rear seat legroom, the designers claim, than some cars in the medium-price bracket. Initial models include two and four-door sedans and two and four-door station wagons, all with unitized bodies.

Fifty Comets will be given away nationally through a free drawing in which Bugna Lincoln-Mercury is participating. Entry cards are available to all visiting the showrooms between March 17 and 31. Only one car can be awarded within a single family, and all entrants must be 21 years or older.

Bank Invites Public To See New Building

The spacious new quarters of the First National Bank in Corte Madera Shopping Center will be open for public inspection Saturday from 3 to 6 p.m.

Beverley Sill, manager of the Corte Madera office, said refreshments will be served during the open house.

Complete banking services will be offered, including safe deposit facilities, a night depository and photographic check protection, Sills said. The bank will have nine teller windows in addition to its safe deposit window.

A special display will be in the lobby for open house of the newly completed bank build building. A replica of Sir Francis Drake's historic "Plate of Brasse" will be on dispaly, along with a supply of pamphles telling of Marin's early history. In addition, an exhibit of counterfeit currency and of old U.S. large currency will be available for the public's viewing. Also shown will be currency which was actually issued by First National Bank in the years when commercial banks had the power to issue money. The bills are signed by W. P. Murray, president of the bank.

The new building replaces First National's two temporary locations in Corte Madera (one near the post office and the other in the arcade of the Corte Madera Shopping Center). The bank has been operating in Corte Madera since October, 1956, with Sill as manager.

The new quarters will contain about 4,000 square feet of floor space. The building is of contemporary design, making generous use of glass, cement, plaster and ceramic tile. It features a massive canopy which extends around its side and front.

Death Row Inmate Asks To Give Eye

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A condemned murderer today sought court permission to give one of his eyes to save the sight of a minister.

Luis Moya, 23, awaiting execution in San Quentin Prison's Death Row for his part in the slaying of nurse Olga Duncan, 29, in November, 1958, said he wanted to submit to the corneal transplant operation "in atonement for past misdeeds."

Yesterdays court action was a move to force California prison director Richard McGee to allow the operation. He turned it down last fall as conflicting with prison regulations.

Rev. David Hansen, 33, minister of the Yucca Valley Commuuity Church, is going blind from wounds suffered as a marine in World War II.

He said he hoped he would "prove worthy" of receiving sight from Moya if the courts allow the operation.

Ceremonies Tomorrow Open New Ward Store

Grand opening ceremonies for Montgomery Ward and Co.'s new Corte Madera retail store will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow in Corte Madera Shopping Center.

Marin County business and civic leaders have been invited to the public ribbon-cutting program, which is expected to attract many hundreds of opening day visitors. The ribbon will be snipped with a pair of six-foot scissors.

Master of ceremonies will be Robert C. Batty, store manager. Batty previously managed Ward's San Rafael store, which closed March 5 after 31 years of operation. The new Corte Madera outlet, with 78,000 square feet of space, is more than twice as large as the old store.

PLAN TO ATTEND

Dignitaries planning to participate in tomorrow's rites include Chairman Walter R. Castro of the Marin County Board of supervisors; Mayors Roger F. Morse of Corte Madera, Daniel Allen of Larkspur, John McInnis of San Rafael and Robert D. Huber of Mill Valley; Frank Rusalem, developer of Corte Madera Center, and John T. Gray, president of the center Merchants Council.

The opening also will be attended by Elden E. Peterson, general manager of Montgomery Ward's western region, and Marvin R. Yost, the firm's district general manager for Northern California, Nevada and southern Oregon.

Also scheduled to open in Corte Madera Center tomorrow are a Herbert Sherbet Shoppe, a beauty salon (Mam'selle Stylings) and Keifer's Shoe Repair Center. All are located in the new building of the First National Bank in San Rafael. An open house will be held in the bank's new Corte Madera office Saturday from 3 to 6 p.m.

KEY PROJECT

Built by Bishop-Mattei Construction Co. of San Francisco, Montgomery Ward's newest store at 4600 Madera boulevard is a key project in the firm's 500-million-dollar nationwide expansion program. It includes an outdoor and seasonal sales area and a separate eight-car auto service center.

Describing it as Marin's largest full-line department store, Batty said, "Our objective has been to make Wards of Corte Madera a complete one-stop center. I am confident our customers will agree that we have succeeded."

The partial two-story structure has a single-floor shopping area larger than a football field. From the lingerie department north to the garden department entrance, the store measures 343 feet. The main hall entrance is 170 feet from the door leading to the shopping center's west parking area.

Largest of the 33 stores and services in Corte Madera Center, the Ward outlet will employ 185 men and women who have received more than 4,500 hours of special training in sales and customer relations. The San Rafael store had 65 regular employees.

Grand opening customers will find many items on sale in each of the 45 departments at Wards. A centerwide merchandise event will be held in conjunction with the three-day opening fete.

Flowers will be given to the first 2,000 women entering Wards, and thousands of balloons will be distributed to youngsters.

Free grand opening prizes will include a $1,450 Sea King boat, motor and trailer combination; two $100 paid-up charge accounts, a $200 Easter outfit, an automatic washer, a set of tires and a sleep set. The boat outfit will be awarded April 19. Recipients of other gifts will be announced tomorrow and Friday nights.

Store hours for Ward's opening sale will be 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. tomorrow; 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Saturday.

Regular hours will coincide with those of other Corte Madera Center stores: 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily except Wednesday and Friday, when closing time is 9 p.m.

WARD'S TO SET RECORD WITH FOUR OPENINGS

Montgomery Ward and Co. will set a one-day record in its current 500-million-dollar expansion program tomorrow with the opening of four retail stores, one of them in Corte Madera Center.

Because of the nation's time zones, the Corte Madera store will be the record setter. At 10 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, three hours before the Corte Madera opening, ceremonies will begin at Ward stores in Baltimore, Md., and Tampa, Fla.

In Austin, Tex., one hour later, grand opening ceremonies will start at 10 a.m. Central Standard Time. And at 10 a.m. Pacific Time, Robert C. Batty, manager of Ward's Corte Madera store, will welcome the hundreds of persons expected to attend the grand opening there.

Education Meet Set

The executive board of the Novato Advisory Council for Education will meet at 8 p.m. today at the home of Mrs. James Helmick, 1409 Dawes Court. The organization will hold a general meeting March 30, when a panel will discuss a recommendation on the teaching of English in Novato schools.

Navy Man Re-Enlists

David Ellis Freeman of 1598 Sir Francis Drake boulevard, San Anselmo, has re-enlisted in the Navy at the Marin County Navy Recruiting office in San Rafael. After spending a 10-day re-enlistment at home, Freeman will be sent to the Naval receiving station at Treasure Island for assignment to the Pacific Fleet.

Way Cleared For Dam Construction

Approval in substance was given by the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday for a contract with Marin Municipal Water District on road relocation, clearing the way for construction of the Nicasio dam.

"One-season" construction is contemplated on the approximately three-million-dollar project, to catch rainfall of the 1960-61 season, manager William Seeger of the district said after the board's action.

Seeger said that the timetable provides for calling for bids for April 13 on both dam and relocation of parts of the Nicasio road and the Petaluma-Pt. Reyes road.

Final discussion of contract details was completed by the board yesterday and signature is expected next week, according to chairman William R. Castro.

County Counsel Leland H. Jordan had advised the board that the California Supreme Court had reversed decisions of Marin County Superior Court and the District Court of Appeal which held county roads were subject to condemnation.

As result, engineers of the county and the district worked together to design relocated roads to be approved by both parties and the state Division of Highways. Yesterday's hearing found agreement already virtually achieved. Some questions of maintenance of slopes were worked out during the session.

Union Backs Teacher Who Sounded Off

The Marin County Federation of Teachers last night unanimously voiced support of former Lassen Junior College instructor Jack Owens, who was fired for his criticism of the school system in letters to a Susanville newspaper.

Warren Ewing, San Rafael High School teacher and president of the federation, which is local 1077 of the American Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO), declared:

'SOLID CITIZEN'

"I feel it is safe to say that Owens is a solid citizen and not just a rabble rouser. Although some of his letters are provocative and he does swing pretty wide at time, under the circumstances I can sympathize with him."

Another member said "they (federation members) were not supporting Owens as a person, necessarily, but the right of freedom of speech for teachers everywhere."

FIRED BY BOARD

Owens, 39, father of four, was dismissed Feb. 3 by a 4-1 vote of the Lassen Unified School District's board of trustees after a superior court ruled the teacher was guilty of unprofessional conduct by attacking the board and school administration in letters to the Lassen Advocate last year.

The state Department of Education has announced it will hold a hearing on the case on March 22, to decide whether Owens should be denied the right to teach anywhere in California.

ASK NEW LAW

Also at last night's meeting it was reported that a resolution, aimed at curtailing the power of the College of Marin's board of trustees, is to be presented to the 1961 session of the state Legislature by the state teachers federation.

The resolution, introduced by delegates Ewing and Philip Ruby at the state convention last December in San Diego, asks a change in the state education code to empower the county superintendent of schools to appoint the replacement to fill a vacancy on junior college board occuring before the elected vacancy member's term expired. Under present law, the college district board makes the appointment.

The resolution asserted, "This device (appointment by the board) has been used in Marin County and possibly elsewhere to perpetuate the policy of the junior college."

The resolution further stated that the present "practice is undemocratic, pernicious and contrary to the best interest of the public and the educational system of California."

Volunteers For Library Work Eyed

Employment of more professional help to improve Mill Valley school library service has been suggested to the Mill Valley School District board by six volunteer librarians.

The recommendation is now in the hands of the Mill Valley Council of Parents and Teachers for further study. Trustees asked the association to work with the volunteers to attempt to answer the following questions:

Are we getting full utilization from our present book collections? If not, what can we do about it? What are the steps necessary in moving from a mere collection of books to a usable library?

A letter from the "volunteers recommended employment of professional help and requested the district to set aside additional funds for school libraries. The district has one professional librarian who works full time at the Edna Maguire School. Volunteers operate the other libraries.

The volunteers also asked if the district might take advantage of free state consultant services.

Besides considering the letter about the libraries, the school board, at its meeting Monday night:

1. Accepted the resignation of Barbara Wilson, teacher at Edna Maguire School, effective at the end of the school year. No reason was given for the resignation.
2. Approved employment for the 1960-61 school year of Mrs. Ruth Shehi, teacher at Old Mill. Mrs. Shehi is 65 so her employment beyond the retirement age required special action by the board of trustees.
3. Approved unanimously offering 1960-61 contracts to all teachers now employed.
4. Approved warrants totaling $10,301.

McNair, now living in Fairfax, formerly operated his business out of Fairbanks, Alaska, where he did painting at Elmendorf Air Force Base.

"I never was able to get along with the union locals up there," he said. "I had no reason to believe I would be able to sign an agreement with the local here. It is part of the same union."

The union has carried the dispute to the Federal Mediation Service and a meeting with a mediator was held yesterday. But no progress was made, McNair said.

He said the work here will be finished in a few weeks and "my men aren't interested in joining the union for a short-term job."

"My men are satisfied; they are working," said McNair.

But some 300 others, on the giant Capehart project, were not working because of the McNair dispute and the union pickets.

Just about that time, Sheriff's Deputy George Barns, on patrol near Marinwod, found the car smashed off Lucas Valley road. He said the car had apparently rolled over. ## Dispute Over Nicasio Dam Roads Settled

Three and one-half miles of the San Geronimo-Nicasio road and the Pt. Reyes-Petaluma road will be re-routed to go around the Nicasio reservoir site by the Marin Municipal Water District.

This is the result of an agreement between the MMWD and the county board of supervisors in a hassle over which county-owned roads would be in the new district dam and reservoir area.

The San Geronimo-Nicasio road will be moved to the east and the Pt. Reyes-Petaluma road will be re-routed to the northwest side of the reservoir, that is being constructed between the Nicasio School and the gauging station in the Black Mountain area.

Bids for the road job will be accepted next week, according to a spokesman in the office of Marvin W. Brigham, county director of public works.

Contracts for the construction project will be awarded around May 1.

The MMWD will negotiate to obtain the necessary rights-of-way before May 1, Brigham said.

yacht harbor use. The planning commission last week voted unanimously against rezoning.

Bjorklund was against denial of rezoning and, in his talk, was called to order several times by the loud gavel of Mayor Howard Sievers. At the end of the arguments, the matter was put over to allow Bjorklund time to present evidence to support his theory that, contrary to a special subcommittee's finding, a yacht harbor would be feasible in the Cove.

A request for a use permit by Views Land Co. to permit building of two overwater apartments on the Cove was continued. Views Land Co., owner of the lots which the city wishes to buy, has given the council a 45-day extension since March 1 to try to come up with some method by which the city could purchase the land.

Bodies Of 3 Women Found In Park Cave

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP)—The wives of three Chicago business executives were found beaten to death today in a cave in Starved Rock State Park, an all-year resort.

Sheriff Ray Eutsey of La Salle County said "it is definitely murder." He added that the possibility the women had been raped would have to be determined later.

The women had been beaten on the head, Eutsey said.

The bodies, the clothing disarranged, were found in a cave at the bottom of St. Louis Canyon in Starved Rock State Park, a scenic tourist attraction on the Illinois River about 100 miles southwest of Chicago.

Harland Warren, state's attorney of La Salle County, said it is possible that the women might have fallen into the canyon and crawled into the cave for shelter. He added, however, that a preliminary examination indicated they had been beaten and hauled into the cave.

They were:

Mrs. Francis Murphy, 47, wife of R. W. Murphy, vice president and general counsel for Borg-Warner Corp.

Mrs. Mildred Lindquist, 50, wife of Robert Lindquist, vice president of the Harris Trust and Savings Bank.

Mrs. Lillian Oetting, 50, wife of George H. Oetting, general supervisor of internal audits for Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

Parents Should Make Sure Their Teen-Agers Get Driver Training

I came along after a crash, recently.

Two teen-agers were killed. They'd been to a basketball game. The driver was showing off his new "rod." He crashed in at 100 miles per hour. He was 16; his girl friend, 15.

They could have been your kids, or mine.

Do you have teen-agers. Then you know how badly they want cars. But at 16 or 17 they aren't mature. They're apt to drive too fast. They may take wild chances and kill themselves, or others.

Here are some things you can do to protect your teen-agers:

Be sure they take the "driver-education" and "driver-training" courses at high school. The driver education course is taught in a regular school room. The driver - training course is taught behind the wheel of a dual-control car. If your high school does not offer both of these courses you should get busy. Ask to have them started.

Teen-agers who take these courses are better drivers than those who don't. They have less than half the accidents. They get fewer tickets.

Be sure your teen-agers can control themselves, before they get their licenses. Is your boy harum-scarum, flighty, given to showing off? Then don't sign for his license. His life may be at stake. Wait until he grows up a bit. Make him prove that he can be responsible.

Be sure your youngsters pay at least part of the cost of driving. They can get jobs. The work will do them good. They should understand how expensive it is to operate a car. If they use their own money, they'll be careful.

Finally, don't try to protect them. When they get a ticket, let them pay their own fines.

Driving is an adult responsibility to be met in an adult way.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "The cops in our neighborhood swoop down on teen-age drivers for the slightest infraction. Is this fair?"

N.D.S.

(A) Because of the high accident rate for teen-agers, most officers watch them carefully. I think it is a wise precaution. Those who don't break laws have nothing to fear. Those who do need to be stopped.

Police Arrest Peron Backers In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — A joint force of police and national gendarmerie raided 1,600 homes last night in a search for suspected terrorist supporters of ousted dictator Juan D. Peron, it was announced today.

The number arrested was not announced but the raid carried out by 1,200 men who struck shortly after 1 a.m. was the greatest in the history of Argentina. Hundreds were believed to have been detained.

EX-OFFICIAL NABBED

Prominent prisoners were said to include former Foreign Minister Ildefonso Cavagna and Peronist youth leader Hector R. Lagomarsino. Other reports said police also captured the unidentified chief of the new terrorist movement.

A mid-day communique said anti-terrorist squads closed in on the Los Perales suburb in the slaughterhouse district where numerous Peronistas live, and in General Belgrano village near Ezeiza Airport.

EXPLOSIVES FOUND

Police, acting under a declaration of "internal war," said they found explosives, fuses, detonators, pistols and a "great quantity" of ammunition.

Police said that as their forces closed in on the raided areas the inhabitants hastily threw their guns, munitions and explosives into the gardens or streets, making it difficult to identify the actual owners.

There also were about 40 raids last night in downtown Buenos Aires. Forty-five persons were reported under formal arrest in these raids.

Fairfax Gets Site For Peri Memorial

The Fairfax School District board last night voted unanimously to lease a parcel of land to the city, to be used as a site for a memorial to Police Chief Andy J. Peri, who died last December.

The five members of the board agreed to lease the 100-by-120-foot parcel at the Fairfax Central School, off Park drive and the extension of School street, for the installation of tennis courts in memory of Chief Peri.

Lawrence F. Walsh of the Fairfax Recreation Commission presented the request to the board. The commission is sponsoring a citizens' committee that is raising money for the memorial fund.

The lease will be drawn on a 90-day termination period, said Supt. Harold R. DePue.

Mrs. Fay Jensen, president, did not make her scheduled report on the naming of a new superintendent to replace DePue, who will take over superintendent's duties in the Kentfield District at the end of the present fiscal year.

James R. Jordan, assistant superintendent for instruction, reported the "enriched" reading program introduced in the schools has been received with "enthusiasm."

A 181-day school calendar for 1960-61 was approved. The fall term will begin Sept. 6 and the spring term will close June 16. There will be a two-day holiday at Thanksgiving; a two-week vacation at Christmas and a one-week vacation at Easter.

The next board meeting will be April 18.

Kaiser Health Plan Fees To Be Raised

Membership fees in the Kaiser Foundation Health Plan will be increased by approximately 7½ per cent on July 1, the foundation announced today.

In the foundation's standard coverage, dues for individual subscribers will be increased from $6.55 to $6.95 a month. There are approximately 360,000 subscribers in the Bay Area.

Cost for a subscriber with one dependent will be increased from $11.95 to $12.90, and for two or more dependents from $15.55 to $16.85.

The foundation said higher costs and more service and equipment make the increases mandatory.

Injured Man Improving

SISTER CITY NAMES PEAK FOR SAUSALITO

Mayor Gustavo Lorca has sent a telegram to Mayor Howard Sievers saying that Lorca's city, Vina del Mar, Chile, has named the principal park and stadium of Vina del Mar after its sister city, Sausalito.

This was made known at last night's Sausalito City Council meeting.

Sausalito To Contract For Parking Lot

Sausalito, unable to make arrangements for private bidders to take over the development of its parking lot between Bridgeway and Humboldt streets, has decided to do it on contract.

The city council last night asked City Engineer John L. Hunter to draw up specifications for the approval of the council at its April 5 meeting. Hunter said the preliminary estimate for the project is $9,400.

Councilman George E. Keeney told the council that, at a special meeting last week, with prospective bidders on private development of the lot, no specifications offered by the city were acceptable to the bidders.

Sausalito Council Delays Decision On Use Permit

Rob Rose's request for a use permit and variance to build a restaurant, cocktail lounge and 10 shops on his El Portal street property was continued to April 5 by the Sausalito City Council last night. A committee was named to meet with Rose to see if some alternative might be worked out regarding his lack of offstreet parking.

The action was taken after long discussion on the matter, with Rose contending that he wants to be treated the same as other merchants who could not provide off-street parking.

The council held that Rose, with so much more need for off-street parking since his establishment would be larger than most, constitutes a unique case.

The committee who will consult with Rose consists of Mayor Howard Sievers and George E. Keeney.

The council also:

1. Put over until next meeting a report from the planning commission on William Wachter's request to enlarge seating space at the Alta Mira Hotel.
2. Approved unanimously a variance request for enlargement of the Valhalla's seating space, but insisted that the neon sign be removed from the restaurant's roof.
3. Authorized the city engineer to prepare specifications on a tennis court at South View Park and asked the city manager to seek an additional $2,300 to pay for it.
4. Approved a request of Mathew J. (Matts) Perry for the Lions Club to sponsor aerial fireworks July 4 on the sandspit.
5. Approved the expenditure of up to $500 for a floating public dock at the end of Turney street to allow boaters to alight from their craft.
6. Approved application by Sam Zakessian for a permit to encroach on Humboldt avenue at Turney street with a floating ramp to connect with mooring facilities.
7. Accepted withdrawal of a request by Albert K. Engel of the Glad Hand Restaurant for rezoning and lease of city tidelands.

9 Executives Accused Of Hunting Violation

Nine Bay Area executives, including five from Marin, are scheduled to appear before U. S. Commissioner Joseph Karesh in San Francisco Friday to answer charges that they "attempted to take ducks over a baited area."

Those from Marin are Jack Zander, 60, San Rafael beer distributor; Clifford Cox, 61, San Rafael restaurant owner; Robert Grey, 50, drug store executive of Novato; Albert Tognoli, real estate broker of San Rafael, and Jerome Duffy, 56, San Rafael attorney.

The five are accused along with Edward Gunderson, 68, brewery executive, Atherton; Jack Runyon, 53, advertising executive, Hillsborough; John Gallager, bottling plant manager, San Francisco, and William Gunderson, 35, brewery executive, San Francisco.

The complaint was filed Feb. 24. There is no allegation in the complaint that the nine knew the area was baited. According to Asst. U. S. Atty. Donald Constine, they were at a duck club known as Jack Zander's Shooting Pond, six miles south of Napa in Napa County.

He said they are charged with a violation of the federal migratory bird act in "participating or attempting to take birds in a baited area."

Constine said the complaint lists the violation as a "petty offense," and that the men had only to be present in a baited area to be cited.

They are expected to enter pleas before Karesh in his hearing at the San Francisco Post Office building. Maximum fine for the violation is $500, but Constine said the "usual" fine ranges from $25 to $200.

Planning Overload Reported To Board

Marin County's planners could keep working for the next two years on the jobs on hand right now, Planning Director Mary Summers told the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday.

Supervisor William Gnoss had said he was under pressure to see that a San Geronimo master plan is produced as soon as possible. Mrs. Summers said those interested in a Bolinas master plan and other projects are all seeking priority.

She said if the board wished all-out effort on some one thing it could be managed, as on certain occasions in the past. But other items would then have to wait longer, she made clear.

The board informally intimated her staff might keep on doing as it is doing.

Angels Sell Out

Man's Campfire Sets Grass Blaze

A marshland grass fire at Dubois street between Woodland avenue and Irwin street yesterday was started by a man cooking breakfast outdoors, according to San Rafael police.

Joseph D. Desmond, 69, who told police he had arrived early yesterday morning on a freight train, was found walking along the railroad tracks north of the scene of the fire. He said his cooking fire went out of control.

The grass fire was extinguished in 45 minutes by the San Rafael Fire Department.

$124,795—that's the average daily hospital and doctor bill PAID here at BLUE CROSS

For the past 23 years people in this community have banded together to ease the burden of hospital and doctor bills through regular subscription payments to Blue Cross.

Since Blue Cross was founded here, subscribers have received more than $123 million worth of hospital and doctor care paid for by Blue Cross in Northern California.

During 1959, Blue Cross broke all records for service.

- . . . More subscribers used their protection than ever before.
- . . . Doctor and hospital care amounted to $31,448,381, a record amount.
- . . . Membership, too, reached an all-time high of 800,484.

Because of its consistent growth, Blue Cross pioneered in the installation of some of the latest electronic equipment to further improve its service.

What Makes Blue Cross So Popular

There are many good reasons why well over three-quarters of a million Northern Californians have chosen Blue Cross protection.

- Blue Cross protection is universally recognized. A subscriber merely presents his Blue Cross card. There is no red tape. The hospital bills Blue Cross direct.
- Blue Cross provides actual hospital services, not just limited cash allowances.
- Blue Cross pays for the actual hospital services provided. Subscribers are always certain that protection will increase as hospital costs increase. Blue Cross protection, therefore, is not reduced by inflation.
- Blue Cross subscribers may select any licensed physician or surgeon and any general hospital in the world.
- Blue Cross returns more in benefits. Because of consistently low overhead and not-for-profit operation, more funds are available for benefits.
- Blue Cross provides sure protection. A Blue Cross program is available for those who retire or move to another part of the country. Blue Cross does not cancel a subscriber's protection because of illness or age.
- Blue Cross encourages careful use of benefits through an incentive program of merit rating. Rates are based upon use of benefits.
- Blue Cross is flexible in group programs—providing both hospital and doctor care benefits in response to specifications.

In order to keep rates as low as possible, Blue Cross has, during the past four years, sought the help of committees of doctors and hospitals to encourage a careful use of benefits.

The work of these committees has made it possible to define boundaries of unnecessary hospitalization and to insure . . .

- that the patient gets his money's worth from his Blue Cross protection;
- that Blue Cross is not charged unnecessarily; (This makes it possible to keep rates reasonable.)
- that the doctor's right to the medical management of his patient is protected.

The success of this program to encourage careful use of benefits is attested to by a significant development during 1959. There was an actual decrease in the percentage of subscribers who required hospitalization. (The trend had been in the opposite direction for over 10 years.)

As Blue Cross in Northern California nears a quarter-century of service, the Board of Directors and staff rededicate themselves to the fundamental principles that have made Blue Cross the vital public service it is today—to provide the maximum possible protection against the costs of hospital and doctor care for the greatest number of people at the lowest possible cost.

Unsung Guys On Spot In NCAA

By JACK STEVENSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati, Darrall Imhoff of California, Jerry Lucas of Ohio State and Tom Sanders of New York University . . .

Those are the big names here for the NCAA basketball championships this weekend, but it may be some unsung fellow who will play the big role in deciding the cage title.

Nominations in that category include Carl Bouldin of Cincinnati, Earl Shultz and Tandy Gillis of California, Larry Siegfried of Ohio State and Russ Cunningham of NYU.

All perhaps are more appreciated by their coaches and teammates than by the fans.

"Bouldin is a fine playmaker and great on defense," says Cincinnati Coach George Smith. "He does a lot of work without being noticed."

A junior guard standing 6-1, Bouldin lettered last year and had proven a steadying influence this year from his backcourt post.

Neither Shultz nor Gillis were starters, but both won letters on Cal's national championship team of last year. The former has proved an exceptionally good outside shooter this campaign and provided a big impetus as the Bears beat Oregon in the regionals.

Gillis held West Virginia's All-America Jerry West to one field goal when the teams met in the Los Angeles tournament finals. He probably will draw the job of guarding the nation's leading collegiate scorer, Robertson, when Cal plays the Bearcats on Friday night after Ohio State plays NYU.

Siegfried was voted Ohio State's most valuable performer a year ago and finished as the fourth leading scorer in the Big 10. This year he has become the playmaker for the Buckeyes.

"He has been our key man defensively and hasn't shot as much as last season," explains Coach Fred Taylor who has the sophomore Lucas as his leading scorer.

"Larry made quite a personal sacrifice this year, but it certainly has helped the team."

New York's Cunningham at 5-foot-8 is the shortest man in the tournament finals. But Coach Lou Rossini won't forget his score in the final three seconds that tied the score in the Eastern Regionals against West Virginia.

"He's small but strong with good leg power," observed Rossini. "And you can count on him in the clutch."

Cunningham, a flashy ball handler, has averaged 11 points per game. So has his back court running mate, Al Barden, probably the fastest man on the club. Both have shown tremendous improvement during the latter stages of the season.

Giants Test Monzant Today Against Cubs

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The San Francisco Giants, who absorbed their first beating in the Cactus League 6-5 from the Boston Red Sox Tuesday, faced the Chicago Cubs today.

Ramon Monzant was slated for his first appearance on the mound for the Giants this season.

Orlando Cepeda made his debut yesterday. He walked, hit a screaming grounder into a double play and cracked a double into right center for the Giants' last score.

Johnny Antonelli pitched perfectly for San Francisco through the first three innings while his mates built up a 4-0 lead on Earl Wilson. Willie Kirkland doubled home Cepeda in the first inning. In the third, Wilson gave up three runs on three walks, solid singles to Kirkland and Bob Schmidt, and a two-run homer to Willie Mays.

The Giants picked up another in the fifth on back-to-back doubles by Willie McCovey and Cepeda.

But the Red Sox got to Jack Sanford for two runs in the fourth inning on four straight singles and drew even with three runs in the sixth, including a homer by freshman Carl Yastrzemski over the left field fence.

Giant Billy Loes gave up the decider in the eighth inning on a walk, single and sacrifice fly.

In other games on a program abbreviated by rain, Chicago's American League champion White Sox remained undefeated by blanking New York 3-0; Pittsburgh outlasted Kansas City in a 17-3 slugfest; Cleveland edged Chicago's Cubs 7-5 and the Cincinnati Reds turned back the Baltimore Orioles 5-2, in a night game.

The White Sox, now 4-0, scored all their runs in the second and third innings on a pair of hits and four walks. Dick Brown tripled one home and a single by Nellie Fox, three walks and an infield out accounted for the others. Bob Shaw, Rodolfo Arias and Gerry Staley four-hit the Yankees.

The Pirates won their first game with Don Hoak, Hal Smith and Joe Christopher homering after a 10-run Athletic rally in the fourth inning put them 11 runs behind. Leading the A's attack was Norm Siebern, who collected two singles, a double and a triple.

Al Schroll pitched 3⅔ innings of perfect ball for the Cubs but the Indians came up with runs in the eighth and ninth to win it. Rock Colavito, who tied for the American League home run title last season, hit one with a man on for Cleveland.

Attitude Around Phoenix Camp Is: 'This Is The Year' For The Giants

HANLEY

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Lefty O'Doul, Giant batting coach, reported two weeks late at spring training camp but Horace Stoneham, president of the baseball club, did not dock him. O'Doul had a valid excuse for his slight tardiness. He explained it took him more than a fortnight to change partners in his Geary street restaurant back home.

Orlando Cepeda, a tardy arrival himself, was one of the first to welcome O'Doul. Cepeda, having hit .357 during the winter in the Caribbean League, did not seek batting tips from the old master. Cepeda asked O'Doul how much Giant players would make on their planned post-season tour of Japan.

"How should I know?" O'Doul countered.

"Because you been there many times," said Cepeda. "How much you think?"

O'Doul told the ex-first baseman, now turned left fielder, he had no idea.

CEPEDA'S INTEREST in money is not avaricious although a bystander overhearing his mercenary inquiries to O'Doul might have jumped to a wrong conclusion. Orlando's desire to accumulate some of the stuff is the normal and healthy feeling of young baseball players.

Even Chub Feeney, vice president of the Giants, said he had a complete and thorough understanding of Cepeda's brief holdout "to make an extra buck." Cepeda's holdout resulted in more than an extra dollar. His estimated $27,500 salary for 1960 is $10,000 more than his 1959 stipend.

THE POINT of this monetary discussion is not to inquire into the rapid growth of Cepeda's bank account. It is an intriguing discussion only because of something Orlando said to O'Doul: "With World Series money and Japan money, should be a good year."

That is just another bit of evidence indicating the confident mental attitude of the Giants this spring. Pennants can't be won without confidence and usually are never won with cocky over-confidence. But this quiet feeling of "this is the year" in the Giant camp lacks any cocky element.

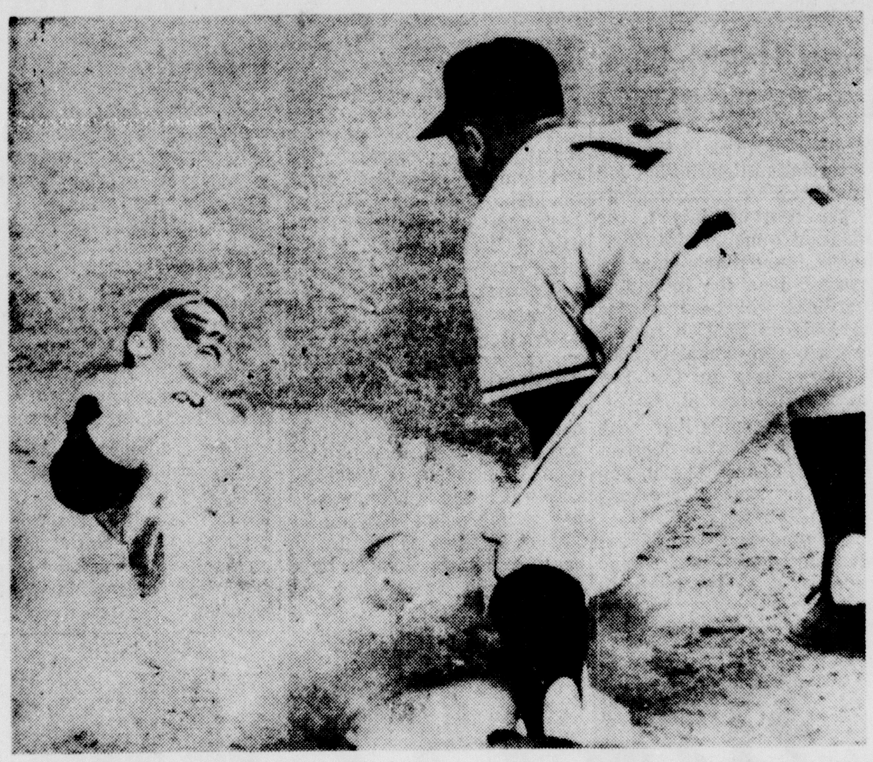
NOBODY IS going around giving pep talks. However, if you talk to the players individually you cannot escape that "this is the year" consensus of the team. None has made, or is likely to make, an outright pennant prediction. But each member readily acknowledges the Giants will go all the way if the team performs even close to the winter paper predictions.

Winter championships mean nothing in baseball which has its big payoff in the fall.

JOHNNY TEMPLE, new second baseman of the Cleveland Indians, after playing against the Giants in the Cactus League openers last weekend, said:

"It looks like they have a winner. That left hander (Billy O'Dell) is certain to help them."

Joe Gordon, Cleveland manager, also picked the Giants. But then Gordon picked them to win last year, too. And, as for Temple's pick, "Johnny-on-the-spot" no longer is in the National League so his prediction won't come back to haunt him in the A.L.



HE'S OUT — Carl Yastrzemski of the Boston Red Sox was tagged out by third baseman Joe Amalfitano of San Francisco in the fourth inning of exhibition game at Phoenix between the Sox and Giants. Yastrzemski, rookie infielder, was caught short trying to advance from first to third on a single by Bobby Thomson. The Sox won, 6-5.

FOLLEY CHOICE OVER DE JOHN IN TV CLASH

CLEVELAND (AP) — The odds-makers are saying Mike De John will need a knockout to defeat highly-ranked heavyweight Zora Foley, the favorite in tonight's 10-round televised bout at the Arena.

And De John, who has 27 knockouts to his credit in 48 professional bouts (40-7-1), says he is just the man who can do it.

"Just one good shot is all I might need to make those odds look foolish," said De John, a 212-pounder from Syracuse, N.Y.

Foley, from Chandler, Ariz., weighs 200 and is ranked by Ring magazine as the No. 1 contender for Ingemar Johansson's title. He has won 52 of his 56 professional fights, 30 of them by knockouts.

De John is ranked seventh.

The fight will be nationally-televised, ABC, 7 o'clock, PST.

Lyle Mackin Stops German In 2nd Round At Oakland

OAKLAND (UPI) — Slugger Lyle Mackin of Oakland knocked out Karl Heinz Guder of Germany last night early in the second round of the scheduled 10-round welterweight match at the auditorium.

Mackin didn't take any chances in this bout. Six weeks ago, he scored a TKO over Guder, but nearly lost the bout because of severe cuts.

After a tame first round last night, Mackin dropped the German with a smashing left hook to the jaw. Guder was up at the count of nine, but the Oakland fighter belted him about the ring and Referee Frankie Carter stopped the bout.

Mackin came in at 153 pounds, while Guder weighed 154.

The champion weighed 128¼. Elorde barely made the 130-pound limit of the newly organized division.

Records Fall As Tam Mermen Win

Sylvester White and Rick Snow each broke a pool record yesterday in leading the Tamalpais High School swim team to a 64-22 victory over Washington High at Tam's pool.

White won the 100-yard breaststroke in 1 minute, 10.5 seconds while Snow did the 200 individual medley in 2:25.3. Harry Hersh was high scorer for Tam by winning the 400 free in 5:24.4 and the 200 free in 2:23.

Tony DePrado set two school records for Tam in Class B competition with 29.6 in the 50 butterfly and 1:11.1 in the 100 individual medley. Tam won the Class B meet, 55-21.

All-Stars Battle Champs In S. R. Feature Tonight

MarVel ended the regular season this week with its 10th straight victory, 49-34 over second place Cain Tires.

Gaels, COP Split Wins

STOCKTON (UPI)—St. Mary's and College of Pacific split a baseball double-header yesterday as the West Coast Athletic Conference began competition.

COP took the opener, 3-1, behind the two-hit pitching of Mike Porter. St. Mary's won the nightcap, 2-1—although the Gaels were held to two hits in that game.

Report Giants To TV Games In North Cal

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The American Broadcasting Co. will telecast in northern California all 13 Saturday afternoon home baseball games of the Giants, it was reported today.

It will mark the first time for northern California viewers to see the San Francisco National League club's home games on television. San Francisco would be blacked out, the report added.

ABC is reported setting up the telecasts as part of a third baseball game-of-the-week series, screening the games at about 1:30 p.m. to avoid conflict with other network games.

On Saturdays when the Giants are not scheduled, Kansas City and Baltimore games would be taped for later showing.

Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, has said he received one million dollars advance from a pay TV firm, Skiatron, to telecast Giant games. In negotiations with ABC, Stoneham made clear the arrangement is for the 1960 season only.

Bonnies, Bradley Gain NIT Semi-Final; Meet Tomorrow

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Invitation Tournament takes a 24-hour breather today while the basketball gentry savors the play of little Sam Stith that has fired streaking St. Bonaventure into the semi-finals along with top-seeded Bradley, Utah State and Providence.

Sam's savoring it, too.

"Oh, man, it was delicious," he said last night after scoring a tournament high of 37 points in the Bonnies' 106-71 rout of defending champion St. John's.

Sam, a chunky 6-2 bundle of speed, has scored 64 points in St. Bonaventure's two NIT victories so far. With his ballhawking and floor generalship added in, he's overshadowing his more publicized brother, Tom, the nation's No. 2 scorer with a 32-point average. This although Tom has scored 51 points in the two games and has rebounded well.

"Little brother has his fun now and then," grinned Sam, who is actually the older of the two Stiths. He is referred to as "little" because Tom is 6-5 and the higher scorer over a season. "Let's hope we both have a big one coming up for Bradley. They'll be tough and won't rattle as easy as St. John's did."

The Bonnies, now 21-3 with an 18-game winning streak, get their semi-final test tomorrow night against Bradley, the nation's No. 4 team with a 25-2 record after spilling Dayton 78-64 in the opener of last night's doubleheader.

Providence (23-4) and Utah (23-4), who won their quarter-final games on Saturday, meet in the other semi with the two winners playing for the tournament championship Saturday afternoon.

HALL SCHOOL WINS

Bob Schefer pitched a three-hitter, struck out 12 and singled home a pair of runs yesterday in leading Henry Hall School's baseball team to an 11-3 victory over Kentfield. Steve Minutoli tripled for the losers.

TWO-YEAR CONTRACT

ABC Gets TV Rights For NCAA Football

NEW YORK (UPI)—The American Broadcasting Company has acquired the NCAA TV football rights for the 1960 and 1961 seasons.

Financial terms were not revealed in the joint announcement by Rix N. Yard, chairman of the NCAA Television Committee, and Thomas W. Moore, vice-president of the ABC, but it was emphasized that it is the first two-year agreement made by the NCAA. The National Broadcasting Co. held the NCAA TV rights the last few years.

"We are particularly pleased with the enthusiasm of ABC-TV and with their interest in this important American college sports activity," said Yard.

"The acquisition by ABC-TV of NCAA rights marks a new era in the field of sports programming for ABC-TV and we look forward to the beginning of the football season with high excitement," Moore said.

Two Homers Pace Tam To 4-3 Win Over Sonoma '9'

Coach Ray Bell's Tamalpais Indians opened their 1960 practice baseball schedule yesterday with a home run punch leading them to a 4-3 triumph over the Sonoma Dragons at Tam's diamond.

Dave Broome's solo home run and Norm Kreuter's two-run blast after Lou Piver's double in the fourth inning featured the Indians' big uprising. However, what proved to be the winning marker came in the fifth frame when Frank Brunini singled home Butch Herr.

Starting pitcher Russ Adams went four innings without giving up a hit or a run while striking out seven and walking only one.

Cards' Hopes Hinged On Series Of 'Ifs'

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—"If" is the word for the St. Louis Cardinals . . . if Stan Musial can come back . . . if Bill White can play center field . . . if Alex Grammas can handle second base . . . if the young pitchers come through.

Solly Hemus, the eternal optimist, has sold himself a bill of goods. Despite questionable pitching and two key experiments, he talks about a first division finish for his St. Louis club which finished a distant seventh last year.

"The National League is so well balanced that any first division club would win," said Hemus today. "Look at what Los Angeles did last year — all the way from seventh to first."

UP TO FIFTH?

Onlookers with less enthusiasm believe the Cardinals will do very well indeed if they can finish fifth. That would mark satisfactory progress in the rebuilding plan.

Last year the Cardinals ranked second in the league in hitting at .269 but were seventh in runs scored.

"That means we didn't have the power to knock them in after we got men on base," said Hemus. "So we went after power. We got Carl Sawatski from the Phillies, Bob Nieman from Baltimore and Daryl Spencer and Leon Wagner from San Francisco.

Musial, as usual, is the Cardinal key. He figures in a slightly different manner this season. The big question is can he still do the job? Musial toyed with retiring but was talked out of it. At 39, he will play first base. Hemus will give him as much rest as he needs. If Musial can bounce back from that .255 year and play 100 games, the Cardinals should be better. If he can't make it, Hemus will be ready with a series of switches.

At the moment, White (.302) is the center-fielder. One of the four first basemen on the club, his bat must be in the lineup. Hemus thinks he can do the job.

Joe Cunningham (.345), another first baseman, will be in right field with Nieman (.292 at Baltimore) and Leon Wagner (.225 at San Francisco) platooning in left.

If necessary, Cunningham will be returned to first base. Curt Flood (.255) is an accomplished center-fielder. Other outfield prospects are Ellis Bruton (.292 at Omaha) and Charles James (.300 at Rochester).

With Musial on first and Ken Boyer (.309) at third, the ends of the infield will be familiar. Spencer (.265 at San Francisco) returns to his favorite position at shortstop after playing second for the Giants. Grammas, a short-stop who hit .269 last season, has moved to second with Eddie Stanky as his tutor.

Larry Jackson (14-13), Vinegar Bend Mizell (13-10), 20-year-old Bob Miller (4-3), Ron Kline (11-13 at Pittsburgh), Bob Gibson (9-9 at Omaha and Ernie Broglio (7-12) are the likely starters. Lindy McDaniel (14-12), Marshall Bridges (6-3), and Ron Duliba (0-1) figure for the bullpen. Bob Keegan (18-10 at Rochester), Mel Nelson (9-9 at Tulsa), Jim Donohue (8-7 at Omaha) and Dick Ricketts (6-10 at Rochester) are fighting for jobs.

ONE WAY TO GET THERE

Elaine Lenci, 13, of San Anselmo, and Ricky Beckstrom, 11, of San Rafael, are headed for the Marin Sports, Boat and Travel Show, slated for Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Bermuda Palms in San Rafael, meanwhile trying out one of the fiberglass boats which will be on display at the show.

Skin Diving Demonstration Set For Sports, Boat Show

Charles M. Smithline, president of the National Skin Diving Institute, Marine Corps veteran, teacher, coach and athletic director, will demonstrate skin diving equipment and techniques at the Marin Sports, Boat and Travel Show at Bermuda Palms Hotel in San Rafael Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Smithline is one of the world's foremost authorities on skin and scuba diving. He has conducted courses in diving at West Point, New York University, Columbia University and other colleges and many high schools.

He has done underwater explorations from foreign governments and been employed in the laying of heavy underwater pipe lines and cable conduits.

He has been active in the establishment of marine science programs in public schools, and is an authority on commercial marine salvage.

Ross Li'l League Meeting Tomorrow

There will be a meeting of the Ross Little League Committee tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Ross town hall to plan the coming season.

Parents of eligible players should attend to sign permission slips for their sons, urged Chairman E. H. Osterloh.

"It is hoped that a more active parent participation will stimulate interest and increase game attendance," said Osterloh.

He said tryouts will be held, Saturday, March 26, at Ross School playgrounds.

Underground Atom Explosion Planned

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Atomic Energy Commission today started preparations for a deep underground test, with foreign observers, of peaceful uses of nuclear explosions.

The test explosion, subject to authorization by President Eisenhower, could take place next year in New Mexico. The project calls for a 10-kiloton blast, equivalent to 10,000 tons of TNT, 1,200 feet deep in the Salado salt beds 25 miles southeast of Carlsbad, N. M.

Whether the test will be authorized when the site preparations are completed next year depends on the world disarmament situation.

But the AEC noted that "during the current nuclear test suspension negotiations in Geneva, the United Kingdom, the United States and the U.S.S.R. have agreed in principle on the use of nuclear explosions for peaceful purposes."

The AEC said scientific results of the New Mexico test and any other similar experiments will be given to the world. It said the United States "will welcome observers from the United Nations or any of its member countries which are interested in the project."

Chairman Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.) of the congressional Atomic Energy Committee said the AEC decision to go ahead with site preparations "should be a good step if by opening it to scientists from every country we can show that our interest in peaceful atomic explosives is genuine."

The New Mexico program, known as Project Gnome, would explore the feasibility of storing atomic heat underground for use in production of electrical power.

It also would test the practicability of using underground explosions to create radioactive materials valuable to science and industry.

State Finds Taxpayers Cheat Selves

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California taxpayers, possibly in their haste to get through with an unhappy task, cheat themselves by the thousands in making out their state personal income tax returns.

State Controller Alan Cranston listed some of the most common errors found this year which result in overpayments. They are:

1. Married couples filing joint returns but computing their tax from the single person's column.
2. Taxpayers continuing to use $400 deductions rather than the new $600 allowance.
3. Taking an incorrect, and higher, tax figure from the table.
4. And of course, addition and subtraction errors which work to the taxpayers disadvantage.

A spokesman for the Franchise Tax Board said the mistakes worked both ways with many persons reporting less tax than they should. He added that there is an almost 100 per cent audit of tax forms for clerical errors.

Fine Imposed For False Theft Report

Sol Irving Lieberman, 45, former owner of the grocery department at MAC department store in San Rafael, yesterday drew a $105 fine and one year probation for giving false information to police about theft of money from his cash register.

He was sentenced after pleading guilty to the misdemeanor charge before Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court.

After a fire at the store last Dec. 4, Lieberman told police someone had slipped in during the blaze and taken about $600 from his cash register. He later told police he had taken the money himself.

'BEEF LOGS IN MUSHROOM SAUCE' is an interesting new treatment for a superb tasting supper dish. Baked tomatoes and a crisp green salad are all that's needed to make a satisfying supper complete.

Beef Logs In Mushroom Sauce Make A Delicious Supper Dish

Top quality ground, lean, California beef can't be beat when it comes to making interesting, superb tasting supper dishes. "Beef Logs in Mushroom Sauce" is a very good example. Lightly seasoned beef is rolled into small logs; a strip of dill pickle inserted in the center of each one and then the rolls are browned. A quick baking in mushroom soup and wine flavors the meat and makes a wonderful sauce. Serve the beef rolls in toast "cradles" or on crusty French bread with the sauce spooned over the top, if desired. Canned cling peach halves, hot or cold, lightly drizzled with lemon juice are a pleasant meat accompaniment. Baked tomatoes and a crisp green salad are all that's needed to make a satisfying supper complete.

BEEF LOGS IN MUSHROOM SAUCE

1½ pounds ground lean beef
1 egg
¾ cup soft stale bread crumbs
⅓ cup milk
1 tablespoon instant minced onion
1½ teaspoon salt
Dill pickle
1 to 2 tablespoons oil
1 (10½-ounce) can cream of mushroom soup
⅓ cup Sauterne or Chablis wine
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Combine beef, egg crumbs, milk, instant minced onion and salt, and mix well with a fork. Divide into 12 portions, and roll each into a little log about 3 inches long. Cut dill pickle into long thin slivers, and insert one in each roll, covering it completely with the beef. Brown rolls slowly on all sides in heated oil. Pour off any excess fat. Blend undiluted mushroom soup, wine and Worcestershire sauce, pour over browned beef logs and cover. Simmer about 20 minutes. Serve beef logs in toast "cradles," if desired. Make 6 servings.

Try Canned Tuna For Meatless Pizza

NEW YORK (UPI)—Use canned tuna for a meatless version of popular pizza. Combine 2 cups of biscuit mix with ½ cup of milk, mix well and knead gently 10 times. Roll out to a 12½-inch circle on a lightly floured surface. Arrange on a 12-inch pizza pan.

Spread the dough with a well-mixed sauce of two 7-ounce cans of tuna, drained, two 8-ounce cans of tomato sauce, 1 medium onion, thinly-sliced and one 3-ounce can of sliced mushrooms, drained. Top with 8 ounces of sliced mozzarella cheese and sprinkle with 1 teaspoon of oregano. Bake 25 minutes in a 425-degree oven. Serves 6-8.

Shrimp Dish Is Excellent For Family

White sauces, cheese sauces, custards and puddings take on new allure when made with homogenized milk, and they are extra nutritious, too, since most such milks are also fortified with Vitamin D.

The fat globules in the milk have been broken up by a mechanical process into minute droplets and distributed evenly throughout the milk. Each drop of milk, as a result, contains the same kinds and amounts of nutrients.

Creamy-cheese sauce makes a fine base for fish and meat dishes. These sauces are made better with homogenized milk. A fine shellfish which is currently in good supply is shrimp. Here is a receipe for Divan-type main dish worthy of its name—

COMPANY SHRIMP SUPREME
(Makes 4 to 6 servings)

¼ cup butter
¼ cup flour
1½ cups homogenized mlk
1 cup light cream
1 egg slightly beaten
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of freshly ground pepper
2 cups (½ lb.) shredded Chateau Cheese
1 pound cooked, shelled and deveined shrimp
2 packages (10 ozs. each) frozen broccoli
½ cup boiling water
Nutmeg

Melt butter in a saucepan; blend in the flour until smooth. Gradually add the milk, stirring constantly. Add the cream, egg, seasoning and cheese. Continue stirring until the cheese is melted and the sauce is thickened. Add the shrimp; heat thoroughly. Cook the broccoli in the boiling water according to package directors. Drain. Arrange broccoli on the bottom of a buttered 1-quart casserole. Pour the cheese-shrimp sauce over it. Sprinkle with nutmeg. Place under the broiler for a few minutes until delicately brown. Serve while piping hot.

DIVAN-TYPE MAIN dish worthy of its name is Company Shrimp Supreme which is a succulent recipe of shrimp and broccoli. Creamy-cheese sauces make a fine base for fish and meat dishes.

Marin Wine-Tasters Favor State Vinos

The one hundredth comparative wine tasting held throughout the United States between California and foreign wines took place recently at the home of San Rafael Mayor John F. McGinnis. Guests were the mayors of five other Marin County cities.

This tasting, in the nature of an "Experts vs. Upstarts" competition, resulted in a one-sided victory for California wines. The tasting, the latest in a series of "blind" testing of the finest vintages of this country and Europe, was also unusual in that six different categories of wines were tested.

California piled up wins in Dry Sherries, Roses, Rieslings, Clarets, and Sauternes, and tied for first in Champagnes. Total preference points of the winning California wines were 69, while the foreign wines scored 51.

Two California wines were tasted in each of six categories against two foreign wines; glasses were numbered, and each mayor in turn competed against his wife—facing opposite sides of the room and with no bottles or labels in sight.

Mayor Howard Sievers of Sausalito and Mayor Norbert D. Huber's wife of Mill Valley tied for top honors in correctly identifying the wines tasted. Each had a perfect score in correctly naming each of the four wines as to country of origin.

The overwhelming preferences of the Marin mayors and their wives toward the California product was made even more evident by the fact that California Sherries won first and second place, as did California Clarets, Roses, and Sauternes.

Others who participated in the tasting as guests of the San Rafael mayor and his wife were Mayor and Mrs. Dan Allen of Larkspur, Mayor and Mrs. Edward A. Smith of Fairfax, Mayor and Mrs. Wayne Womack of Novato, and the Sievers of Sausalito.

In the over-all taste tests held in 100 cities in the past four years, California wines hold a total point edge over foreign wines as well as a first place margin of victories.

Ham 'n Apple Pie—Entree Of Excellence

Once again, leftovers can serve the homemaker in a most elegant manner. How? In the case of diced cooked ham,, Imagine combining the ham with grated apples and an assortment of seasonings to create a recipe called Ham 'n Apple Pie.

The filling is combined and spooned into an unbaked 9-inch pie crust. The pie is baked in a hot oven (400° F.) for 30 minutes.

There is not a top crust for the pie as is indicated by the recipe. Instead a mixture of flour, brown sugar, butter or margarine and grated orange rind acts as a crumb topping.

A well known home economist and meat expert, Reba Staggs, states that whenever leftover meat . . . sliced, diced or cubed . . . is saved for a second meal, the meat should be tightly wrapped and stored in the refrigerator so as to retain its moisture.

HAM 'N APPLE PIE

1 unbaked 9-inch pie crust
2 cups diced cooked ham
1½ cups grated apple
1 tablespoon lemon juice
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup enriched flour
⅓ cup brown sugar, packed
⅓ cup butter or margarine, softened
1 teaspoon grated orange rind

Combine ham, apple, lemon juice and cinnamon. Spoon into unbaked pie crust. Mix together- flour sugar, butter or margarine and orange rind. Spread over ham mixture. Bake in a hot oven (400° F.) for 30 minutes. Yield: 6 servings.

Delicious Main Dish

NEW YORK (UPI)—Try tuna and green pepper loaf as a main dish. Combine two 7-ounce cans of tuna, drained, 1 medium green pepper, finely chopped, ½ cup each of chopped parsley and fine dry bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon each of prepared horseradish, prepared mustard and dehydrated minced onion, 1 teaspoon of salt, ¼ teaspoon of pepper and 1 egg, slightly beaten. Press into a 7⅜ by 3⅝ by 2¼-inch loaf pan and bake 1 hour in a 375-degree oven. Unmold. Serves six.

NO LAST-MINUTE scrambling necessary if you bake eggs in toast cups. Serve with a nippy cheese sauce for Sunday brunch or weekday lunch.

Chase Away Those Breakfast Blues

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

What's for brunch? Do you ever ask guests to this wonderfully lazy weekend meal when it's delicious to relax over good food and coffee?

If you're the cook, you can take it easy before brunch. Bake eggs in toast cups! They go into the oven and you join the company. A cheese sauce to accompany the eggs may be prepared ahead and heated gently over hot water.

BAKED EGGS IN TOAST CUPS

Ingredients: For each serving—1 thin slice white bread, 1 tablespoon butter (melted), 1 egg, salt, white pepper, 1 tablespoon grated Parmesan cheese, paprika.

Method: Cut crusts from bread. Brush both sides of bread with melted butter. Press bread into a 6-ounce heat-resistant glass custard cup (3½ inches across the top). Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven until very lightly toasted—5 to 10 minutes. Reduce oven heat to 350 degrees. Break the egg into the toast cup; sprinkle with salt, pepper, Parmesan and paprika. Return to oven and bake until the egg is firm—15 to 18 minutes. Remove carefully and serve with Savory Cheese Sauce.

SAVORY CHEESE SAUCE

Ingredients: ¼ cup butter, ¼ cup flour, ½ teaspoon salt, white pepper, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 2 cups milk, 1 cup (¼ pound)) grated sharp cheddar cheese.

Method: Melt butter in a 1-quart saucepan over low heat; blend in flour, salt, a dash of pepper and mustard. Add milk; cook and stir constantly until thickened and bubbly. Stir in cheese just until melted, keeping heat very low. Makes plenty of sauce for 8 Baked Egg Toast Cups.

Entertainment, Adult Awards Highlight Girl Scout Dinner

A program of varied entertainment and the presentation of adult awards were highlights of the Girl Scout Annual Dinner which took place recently at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

The event was opened by the Pledge of Allegiance led by Victoria Emerson and Virginia Carter. An invocation was delivered by Dr. Benton Gaskill followed by dinner which was served by Senior Scouts.

Mrs. Harold Green, president of the Marin County Girl Scout Council, welcomed the group and introduced officers and guests of honor.

Troop 238, with Mrs. Manual Dos Reis as leader and Mrs. David Hamm as choral director, entertained as "Singing Scouts" appropriately costumed for their number. Senior Scouts from the 1959 "Round-up" Patrol, which attended the Annual Girl Scout Round-up in Colorado last year, ignited a ceremonial fire with a torch made from a faggot brought home from the International Peace Fire which burned at the "Round-up" in honor of the 27 nations represented. Lighting the fire were Round-up Patrol members, Virginia Carter, Vicki Emerson, Barbara Ford, Barbara Hayes, Toni Leisure, Marianne Walsh and Winnie Watkins.

A total of 55 adults received their five year pins which were presented by Mrs. Joseph B. Purcell. Twelve women who have been registered in Girl Scouting for 10 years received their pins from Mrs. John O'Connell. Mrs. Walter Carter awarded 15 year pins to seven women and Miss Dorothy Erthle presented 20 year pins to five. Highlight of the year pin ceremony was presentation of a 25 year pin to Mrs. George L. Daum of Corte Madera. The award was given by Miss Ida Smith, executive director of San Francisco Girl Scouts from 1926 to 1957.

The daytime social bridge session is held every Wednesday except the fourth Wednesday of each month from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and Mrs. Robert L. Bilger is hostess. Lunch and snacks are available at the Center. This activity is free to members; non-members contribute a small fee. Wednesday night is night time social bridge with Dr. Albertine Nash as hostess. The group plays from 7:30 to 11 p.m. Coffee is available.

According to Dr. Nash the games are always pleasant and sometimes hilarious, the object being chiefly to have a game which is not so fiercely competitive as to be hard on the tired business man or his hausfrau."

All are welcome to attend and partners will be provided if persons needing one will call Dr. Nash before 7 p.m. on Wednesdays.

The group has accumulated enough from the small fee charged non-members to purchase an automatic coffee pot for the Recreation Center.

Among the regulars at evening bridge are Drs. and Mesdames Yiwen Tang, Ray Eldred, Robert Schultze and the William Guelphs, Henry Sterns and Mesdames L. V. Harder and Phoebe Bradley.

Bridge lessons for beginners, intermediates and experts are given Fridays from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. with Mrs. Josephine Hovis, teacher. Both non-members and members pay a fee for each lesson.

Mrs. Walter Johnson Chosen Auxiliary Conclave Delegate

The American Legion Auxiliary of San Anselmo, Unit 179, announces that one of its charter members, Mrs. Walter F. Johnson, has been appointed by Governor Brown to represent the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of California, at the President's White House Conference on Children and Youth to be held in Washington, D. C. from March 27 to April 2. She is one of 164 delegates from the state, five of whom are from Marin.

MRS. WALTER JOHNSON

Mrs. Johnson was chosen to represent the Auxiliary, not only for her work in guild welfare, as the State Child Welfare Chairman this year, but for her many years of dedicated service and interest to the youth in her community.

The purpose of the White House Conference is "to promote opportunities for children and youth to realize their full potential for a creative life in freedom and dignity."

Mrs. Johnson has been a resident of Marin County for 39 years. During these years she has managed her home and has reared three children, besides being engaged in organizational work, community activities and volunteer health agency work; all of which has had a direct influence on youth in the matter of patriotism, education and health.

Her first love has been the Americanism program of the American Legion Auxiliary, which she has chairmaned for 17 years and succeeded in bringing to her Unit the outstanding award for all-around youth activities program, the coveted Eliza London Shepard Trophy for three consecutive years. She has headed the essay contest in public schools for 14 years and has been the district chairman for the Girls' State Program.

On the State level in Legion Auxiliary work, she served as hospital representative for State Veteran's Home at Yountville; also poppy manager of production there when 460,000 poppies were produced to be sold for the benefit of wounded veterans.

Newly Married Couple Depart For Extended Tour Of Europe

Recently married at Stewart Memorial Chapel at the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo were Carol Bottarini and Charles Edward Emmons. The bride was escorted down an aisle marked by white satin ribbons and gladioli on the pews, by her father, Frank P. Bottarini of San Rafael. She wore a white Chantilly lace and bouquet taffeta gown. The round neckline was outlined with pearls and sequins. The full lace skirt has a sweep train. A wreath of orange blossoms seeded with pearls held the illusion fingertip veil. The bride carried a white satin covered prayerbook topped with Eucharist lilies.

Miss Leslie Dewing of San Rafael, maid of honor, wore a gown of apricot chiffon over taffeta designed with a fitted bodice, "v" neckline, long sleeves and short full skirt. Mandarin carnations were in her shower bouquet.

The gowns of the bridesmaids, Miss Sharon Deming of San Rafael and Barbara Traeger of San Quentin, were like the maid of honor's and they carried shower bouquets of ivory carnations.

Rodney Sonne of San Francisco was his brother's best man and guests were escorted to their pews by Craig Gould of San Anselmo and Walter Colson of San Rafael.

White gladioli and snapdragons were the church decorations. The Rev. Herrick J. Lane officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Carpenters Hall in San Rafael was decorated with white streamers and wedding bells, gladioli and snapdragons for the wedding reception which was attended by 250 guests. Camellias encircled the four tiered wedding cake.

In the foyer of the hall were travel posters and the guests were presented with leaflets with a picture of a ship "Maasdam" and the word Europe on the cover. The booklet carried information on the European trip and plans of the newlyweds. They flew to New York City where they had three days of sight seeing and show going. Then they sailed to Rotterdam, Holland, making short stops in Ireland, England and France. In Rotterdam they picked up a Volkswagen and drove to Frankfurt, Heidelberg and Germersheim, which will be their home for 14 months. Bride and bridegroom will attend Das Auslands a school in Germersheim. But before they begin the studies the young couple will make an extended tour. They'll travel through Germany, Switzerland, Austria to Italy. They'll spend several days in Lonate Pozzolo, a small town near the Swiss border where all of Carol's grandparents were born and where she will visit relatives. From Italy they'll go to the French Riviera then to Spain.

The new benedict is the son of Mrs. Noble Sonne of San Rafael and Lawrence Emmons of Petaluma. Both he and his bride were graduated from San Rafael High School and College of Marin and she attended University of California. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Catherine Bottarini of Sausalito and Mrs. Teresa Regalia of San Francisco.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Sonne wore a dark brown tailored suit, rose beige hat and brown accessories.

All the models will have names of silent screen stars and the commentator will be known as Louella Parsons.

Mrs. Frank Soares of San Rafael is making the centerpieces.

They will be miniature gay-20's figures with predominately lavender and black outfits as befitting the 1920's.

Is Anyone Still Working Toward A County Airport?

More than seven months ago we used this space to praise the City of San Rafael for moving "sensibly toward an airport for Marin." As you may recall, San Rafael's city council, under the leadership of the mayor, was taking definite steps toward cooperation with the County of Marin. The objective was a county airport in the tidelands off Pt. San Quentin.

We are unhappy that our praise apparently came too soon. In recent months there has been no talk at all, as far as we can learn, aimed at developing an airport for the county, except for Novato airport improvements.

Has everyone lost interest in providing an adequate airport for Marin County in the air age which is upon us?

We had mentioned here, too, that in the not too distant future there is the possibility that Hamilton Air Force Base might be inactivated entirely. Has anyone made even preliminary inquiries as to what would happen to the air field if it were to be abandoned and what steps would have to be taken to retain it for public use? Not that we've heard.

We hope we are wrong. We hope that this county's Aviation Committee has been quietly at work. We hope that the City of San Rafael has not lost its enthusiasm. We hope that the Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce's Aviation Committee is hard at work. And we hope individuals are keeping an active interest in the problem.

We'd feel better, however, if every once in a while something was done to reassure us that indeed someone is on the job.

Tomorrow Everyone Is Irish

Tomorrow is the day for wearing a bit of green in honor of St. Patrick.

Green will be worn by the Caseys, Murphys and O'Briens and other obvious Irishmen.

Green will also adorn the Smith, the Schultzes, the Petronis, the Kowalskis, the Finkelsteins, the Okomotos and the Wongs. It seems everyone is a self-proclaimed honorary Irishman on St. Patrick's Day.

St. Patrick was born about 389 in Britain. He was educated as a Christian and imbued with a reverence for the Roman Empire. When he was 16, he was carried off to Ireland by a band of Irish marauders. Tradition has it that he spent six years as the captive herdsman of a tribal chieftain.

Encouraged by visions, he escaped and made his way to France where he spent a number of years studying to return to Ireland as a missionary. When he returned, Patrick fought fearlessly for the struggling Christian faith.

He was not a literate man and his success must be attributed to his great enthusiasm, his spiritual qualities and his abilities as an organizer. His importance in the history of Ireland is largely due to his bringing that hitherto isolated island into contact with Western Europe and Rome.

Tomorrow, along with the wearing of the green, the sudden adoption of strange Irish brogues and the worship of genuine shamrocks from the Emerald Isle, we will be paying homage to this dedicated man.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Castro Deserves Our Support

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Since Teddy Roosevelt's time, our monopolistic class has invaded Cuba with their wealth, owning most of the sugar plantations and cattle ranches of that country, which are very large holdings, producing with slave labor and selling on the American market.

Their employees were given but a very scanty existence; thousands of families living in one-room shacks on a dirt floor; their poverty compares with that of India with all its attending evils, illiteracy, prostitution, disease, etc.

Those who objected to this order of things was put to death by Batista and our State Department never let out a peep in protest of their slaughter.

Along comes Castro, who actually is giving Cubans a far better way of life, contrary to the propaganda we are fed here at home. Bastista fled with the national treasury leaving Castro's government only 70 million dollars to operate on.

Castro started the printing press, turning out money to put his people to work. To make his system a success, he had to cut up large land holdings and distribute the parcels in family-sized farms; the first of such holdings to be cut up were those of his own family.

Now of course, our senators and representatives, the Republicans and the Democrats alike, are looking out for their rich constituents, attacking Cuba by many devious ways. Naturally Johnson of Texas is representing the King Ranch, who lost all but a thousand acres of their huge holdings in Cuba.

These private interest ambitions are transferred to our State Department to execute to the advantage of American monopolies in Cuba. They well know Cuba can not pay off immediately, but money is not what they want; actually they want their holdings returned and the old order of things.

If the people of the United States have any moral conscience left they would call off their dogs and as we are scattering the taxpayers' money around the world, try just once to give a helping hand to a close neighbor. Make a long-term loan to Castro's government to buy out American monopolies in Cuba at the prices they paid for them originally, as they have already reaped untold profits.

Quit pushing Castro into the communist camp before it's too late. Mexico years ago did what Castro's doing today.

Husband-Wife Comedy Team Feels Marriage Helps Mutual Career

NEW YORK (AP) — An elderly woman once told Phil Ford and Mimi Hines, "Love is like old lace — so easily torn, but so hard to repair."

The two young comedians, a husband-and-wife team in show business, have borne this in mind ever since.

"We try not to hurt each other in the little things," said Phil. "Sometimes it's the small wounds that never heal."

Phil started in San Francisco as a song-and-dance man at the age of 11. Mimi was only 12—just past pigtails—when she began as a singer in a Vancouver supper club.

Eight years ago they met in an Anchorage, Alaska, night club and decided to team in a comedy act. They were married in 1954.

Life was hurried, hectic, but happy in the next few years as they toured through dozens of small night clubs in the United States and Canada, polishing their act, learning how to deal with every type of audience.

"Looking back, I can't say they were hard times," said Phil. "We kept busy. We weren't nationally known. We were" — he smiled — "a very successful unknown act."

They now earn up to $10,000 a week, and their annual income is about $300,000 — or higher.

They still have to live out of a suitcase. But success has not so far dented their happiness, as it often does with husband-wife teams. They feel being married is a help rather than a handicap in their mutual career.

"I deem it a very great help," said Mimi positively. "Being in love and having a certain rapport is good for your sense of humor."

"YOU HAVE to love each other if you do comedy together. Otherwise you're almost sure to break up in time.

"We never want to work apart. We have fun together. After the show, we take the dog for a walk and laugh it up. I wouldn't trade places with anyone in the world."

THE ONLY TIME tension bothers them, she said, is the last 10 minutes before they go one stage.

"It gets a little crowded when both of us try to make up in the same bathroom mirror at the same time," she said. "But the rest of the day goes smoothly."

Voters Get No Chance To Vote For Party Candidates For President

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The convention method of selecting candidates for president of the United States may be a good one, and in fact, may be the only type of a program that will work in a country as big as the United States, or on behalf of a state the size of California.

But if any contentions are made that the candidates "come from the people" (none have been heard lately), a look at the delegates selected from California for both of the major parties belies this democratic belief.

UNDER THE CONVENTION system, the voters of California have little to say concerning who will be the candidates for the presidency. There was some strong sentiment on the Republican side for Nelson Rockefeller, governor of New York, but Rockefeller bowed himself out of the picture, and left the entire field to Vice President Richard Nixon.

There are several candidates on the Democratic side, which is par for the course. The Democrats of California are going to have little to say about which one of these several candidates comes up with the nomination, due to the long-established policy of naming a governor as a "favorite son" candidate, and going through the motions of trying to make the rest of the United States believe Californians want their governor in the White House.

ACTUALLY, SELECTION of the Democratic candidate, as far as California is concerned, will be made on the basis of what one man, out of several million electors, thinks. This one man is the governor of the state. His selection, unless the signs are wrong, will be the selection of all the Democrats in the state.

There seems to be no question by what Gov. Edmund G. Brown will control the state's Democratic delegation next July. His list of delegates to the convention is strangely made up of senators, assemblymen, state officials, and contributors to the Democratic party.

Although the governor says it is really representative of the state, it has little if any bearing on the thinking of hundreds of thousands of voters who might, in the final analysis, like to vote for a particular candidate for the presidency.

THE SAME THING holds true of the Republican delegation. It will do nothing more in the convention than cast its ballots for Vice President Nixon. And Nixon probably will be named on the first ballot, as the Republicans are famous for fixing things up beforehand, thereby avoiding public controversies.

By reason of the system, and it's not the fault of any individual, the voters of the state and nation in most instances are cheated out of any opportunity to vote in the primaries for the candidate of their choosing.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Kay Fraser, Toronto socialite and beauty queen, tells of a Canadian prep school whose band failed to satisfy the trustees. So they hired a formidable band master from London, whose military bearing and bristling mustache promptly scared the bejabers out of the 34 lads in the band.

Came the day of the first home football game, and the bandmaster was still totally dissatisfied with the progress — or lack of same — his charges had made. Before they marched out on the field, he gave them a final admonition. "Men," he barked, "remember there are 34 of you. So when I give the signal, if you're not sure you can play the piece, fake it. The others will cover you."

The band struggled onto the field. Thirty-four musicians raised their instruments The band leader blew his whistle — and not one sound was heard!

Irish playwright Brendan Behan was asked what reform he'd institute first if he found himself president of the world. Unhesitatingly, he replied, "I'd reduce the price of good liquor!"

Alexander Woollcott and Heywood Broun, who met often at parties, but disliked each other thoroughly, were once fellow-celebrities at an autographing party in a big Cleveland department store. Broun was photographed holding a copy of Woollcott's book in his hands.

"Why don't you hold your own book?" scoffed Woollcott. Broun answered softly, "My books are all sold out."

10 YEARS AGO

State Sen. Thomas Keating of San Rafael got a spectacular start in his campaign for a judgeship when a fellow senator at Sacramento, James McBride of Ventura, paraded around the Senate chamber wearing a large tin plate lettered: "Vote for Kourageous Keating for No. 1 Judge."

Mill Valley residents were told by the Marin County Board of Supervisors that work on the proposed highway to by-pass Tamalpais High School campus would be started during the coming fiscal year.

20 YEARS AGO

Secretary Fred Cairns of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce received encouragement from the Richmond chamber in his efforts to bring about improvement of the Richmond approach to the San Rafael ferry.

Passenger travel over the Northwest Pacific's train-ferry system fell off 40,000 during January as compared with January, 1939, according to E. H. Maggard, president of the railroad. He wouldn't admit that curtailment of service helped create this situation but felt that higher fares played a big part.

School District's 'Wrassle' Over Budget Deserves Spectator Support

Reed Union School District board of trustees is about to start its annual "wrassle" with the 1960-1961 budget. And a real out and out wrestling match it is!

In one corner we have this year's approximated district assessed evaluation of $3,985,095 and the approximate $177,900 allocated by the state for ADA funds.

The maximum permissive tax rate is $2.25 per $100 assessed evaluation, which means that the district will be allowed at least $95 per cent of $314,644.62 for operating expense in addition to the $177,900.

In addition, there are the funds derived from the 5-cent community service over-ride tax, which this year amounted to nearly $7,000. Plus the bond redemption fund. This makes a total of a half a million dollars which is to be budgeted.

IN THE OTHER corner the five trustees, whose task it is to budget this amount to gain the most benefit for the 1,186 students in the district, pay the salaries of the 51 administrators and teaching personnel and provide instructional materials.

It is also up to them to decide whether or not to keep the tax rate at its present $2.05 per $100 assessed evaluation, or "go the limit to the top."

The audience in this wrestling math, are parents and taxpayers in the school district. Or, rather, the audience SHOULD BE these people, because the prize money for which the match is being fought cames out of their pocketbooks.

Yet, too many wait until the budget is tentatively drawn up before they appear to protest expenses. By then, it is too late.

THE AUDIENCE should be there when the ground rules are being drawn up, the contestants lining up behind their convictions and the preliminary skirmishing going on. Then, the audience can insert its ideas, and if it disagrees with the school board, can say so before the fight is finished.

The school board members serve without pay. They not only attend two regular meetings each month but many, many committee meetings in between. And with the proposed bond issue for construction of Del Mar Estates junior high school in the air this spring, trustees' meetings are fraught with significant discussions on the future development of the district.

A RECENT MEETING, was attended by one district teacher, her husband, your I-J reporter, and a nine-weeks old miniature dachshund puppy (the latter slept quietly during the proceedings). Yet at this meeting, trustees drew up an important list of discussion items to go on the budget meetings.

They are:

1. Should the district initiate a hot lunch program?
2. Should the Bel Aire site improvements be completed this year?
3. Should the Community Service Funds (a 5c over-ride tax which the district levies and which amounts to about $7,000 per year) be used to improve the purchased school sites at Ring Point and the Brazil site for recreational use by the community?
4. What major equipment should be purchased?
5. Should the teacher in-service training program be expanded next year?
6. Should a curriculum consultant be employed for the district?
7. What special personnel should be employed this year?
8. Should television be used to augment classroom teaching aids?
9. Re-evaluation of the Grey hound bus transportation now used by the district.
10. Study of the organization and administration of the district.

DURING THE next three months on the second and fourth Tuesdays, the trustees are going to have to come up with positive answers on these and other questions.

They need comments and ideas in order to get answers that meet with the community's approval. And they deserve help now, not criticisms later.

Kennedy Making Real Progress Toward Democratic Nomination

WASHINGTON—The shape of the presidential nominations is becoming clearer. It would be foolhardy to say that it couldn't change, but in the wake of the New Hampshire voting, this firm trend is visible:

Sen. John F. Kennedy is gaining delegate strength continuously. There is nothing that can now be seen on the horizon likely to stop him. Obviously his nomination is not a certainty, but developments put it within his reach.

THE OTHER Democratic contenders are losing ground.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey is making no headway nationally.

Adlai Stevenson, Sen. Stuart Symington, and Sen. Lyndon Johnson are serious contenders only in the event of a Democratic convention deadlock. Unless Kennedy's pace is slowed by events which cannot now be foreseen, there will be no convention deadlock.

Kennedy had many things going for him in New Hampshire. He was on home New England territory. His campaign was handsomely financed. He had a superbly functioning organization, particularly in the larger cities. These factors do not discount his resplendent victory. They only help to explain it.

THE CENTRAL FACT is that Kennedy attracted more votes than any Democrat who ever ran in any New Hampshire primary. This is the argument which he can use to the full in Wisconsin, Nebraska, Oregon, and at the convention: that he can make the best race against Vice President Nixon.

Nixon also fared well in New Hampshire.

If you concede that Dwight Eisenhower was a powerful Republican vote-getter, then it is noteworthy that Nixon, with 65,000 votes, received 9,000 more than President Eisenhower won when he was unopposed in the 1956 New Hampshire primary.

When you consider that Nixon did not make a personal appearance in New Hampshire while Kennedy campaigned actively on the spot, the Nixon showing is more than creditable. The fact that Gov. Nelson Rockefeller received fewer than 3,000 write-in votes suggests that he made no mistake withdrawing from the race.

IT ISN'T NEW Hampshire alone which gives Sen. Kennedy his near-decisive lead for the nomination. He is doing well on every front.

He is gaining strength among the party leaders. He took the whole Ohio delegation by threatening to enter the primary against Gov. getting half or more of California's delegation by promising not to enter the primary against Gov. Pat Brown.

HE IS GAINING strength in the public opinion polls. The latest Gallup report shows that he has drawn even with Nixon after trailing the Vice President for six months. In January Gallup showed Nixon 53 per cent, Kennedy 47. Last week it was 50-50.

If Sen. Kennedy wins signally over Sen. Humphrey in the Wisconsin primary April 5, there may be by convention time as little uncertainty about the Democratic nomination as there is now about the Republican.

Today is Wednesday, March 16, the 76th day of the year, with 290 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1751, James Madison, fourth President of the United States, was born in Port Conway, Va.

In 1802, Congress established the United States Military Academy at West Point, N.Y.

In 1829, Ohio legislators authorized the first night school classes in the nation.

In 1830, the New York Stock Exchange recorded its slowest day, trading 31 shares of stock valued at $3,470.

In 1850, The Scarlet Letter, Nathaniel Hawthorne's great novel, was published for the first time.

A thought for today: U. S. President James Madison said: "I believe there are more instances of the abridgement of the freedom of people by gradual and silent encroachments of those in power than by violent and sudden usurpation."

SPEECH WINNERS — Three Marin Catholic High School first place winners in regional speech tourney pose with their trophies. # Marin Catholic Students Win In Speech Contests

Marin Catholic High School students today are the proud holders of two sweepstakes trophies from high school Golden Gate Speech Assn. tournaments held the last two weekends.

They won the qualifying trophy for Northern California by capturing six debates at San Francisco's Riordan Catholic High School Saturday. They also scored a large number of points in the speech portion of the tournament, held the Saturday before last, at College of Holy Names in Oakland.

Father Bernard Cummins, speech coach, said the other sweepstakes trophy was won at a tournament at Westmore High School in Daly City.

Out of the three contests, five individual trophies were also won.

Trophy winners of the San tournament will participate in the state speech tournament at Santa Barbara, April 29-30. They are:

Michael Wilsey of Kentfield and Joel Stross of San Rafael, members of one debating team, and David Paynter of Greenbrae and Elaine Hedge of Mill Valley, members of the other team.

Qualifying trophies in speaking were won by Peter Mitchell of Ross, Joan Moran of San Rafael and Kathy Bodeen of San Anselmo.

Trophy winners of the tournament held in Daly City are Patricia Monaghan of Novato and Kathy Young of Mill Valley.

Avenue Has New Name For 2 Hours

The Fairfax City Council Tuesday night changed the name of a section of Ridgeway avenue on request of a housewife resident of the street.

That was before councilmen came across a letter written by her husband objecting to the proposed rechristening of his street.

Mrs. Donald M. Farling suggested that the name of the deadend road be changed to Le Fleur (because of all the flowers on the street, said Planning Commissioner Waldemar R. Radtke) or Farling drive.

Two hours later, City Clerk Alice Leonesio came across a letter from Donald M. Farling, the husband, objecting to the changing of his street. He reminded the councilmen that 18 months ago they told him to put a sign up at the street entrance marking it a private road, after refusing to pay for its maintenance.

The council quickly reversed its earlier decision and instructed the city clerk to write the Farlings a letter (or letters) of explanation.

Strawberry Assn. Sets Bid Opening For Landscaping

Final contracts are expected to be acted upon at the April 11 meeting of the Strawberry Property Owners' Assn. with regard to landscaping of the Ricardo road and Belvedere drive entrances to Strawberry.

At Tuesday's meeting the members were shown the detailed plans, President Forrest Randolph said.

Also at the meeting, Dr. James Dawson, petition chairman of the Children's Dental Health Committee, spoke for fluoridation of Marin Municipal Water District and Chester A. Kerfoot, chairman of the Marin Pure Water Committee, spoke against fluoridation.

It was announced that the annual distribution of earwig paste would take place in the first week in May.

Famed for its manufacture of razor-sharp sword blades is Toledo, a cathedral city in Spain.

Child Care Expense Can Be Deducted

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

You can deduct up to $600 for the care of your children to enable you to work, if you qualify.

Peter J. Wikel

This can be deducted only if it is for the care of your child or stepchild under 12 years of age; or for the care of any other dependent for whom you are entitled to an exemption who is mentally or physically incapable of caring for himself.

The expense must be paid and it cannot be paid to an individual for whom you claim a dependency exemption.

You can only make this deduction provided the cost is for you to earn a living or to enable you to look for work.

If you work only part of the day and pay for child care for all the day, then you can deduct only the part that corresponds to the time you are working.

If the person who receives the payment does work other than child care, the payment is allowed only for that part that is child care.

The deduction is allowed only to women and to widowers. Widowers include men who are divorced or legally separated and have not remarried.

Also a married woman can deduct her child care expense only if she and her husband file a joint return and together earn less than $4,500 per year. If they earn over $4,500 per year, then the deduction is reduced by the amount earned over the $4,500. If they earn over $5,100, then there is no deduction. This does not apply if the taxpayer's husband is incapable of self-support because he is mentally or physically defective.

Booklet Gives Advice On Law

An attorney might agree that it's far easier to advise a person how to stay out of trouble than it is to get him out of trouble once he's in it.

This is the reason for a new handbook on preventive law, "Now You Know," released by the staff judge advocate of the 4th Air Force, Hamilton Air Force Base.

The booklet contains advice on a multitude of items. Fourth Air Force's entire staff contributed to the 40 page booklet, with First Lt. K. L. Abrams serving as editor.

Two Given Fines For Drunk Driving

James Sam Broadbridge, 44, of 4 Laurel avenue, San Anselmo, must pay $200 fine and remain on six months probation for drunken driving.

He was sentenced by Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court. He was caught on Highway 101 last Jan 9.

Guy Goldberg Hussey, 59, of P.O. Box 191, Sausaltio, drew $150 fine and six months probation for his first drunken driving offense. Hussey was caught on Magnolia avenue in Larkspur on Washington's birthday.

Redwood Empire Convention Slated

The Sonoma County host committee and Carney J. Campion, newly appointed general manager of REA, will organize the convention.

Campion, who is scheduled to assume his duties with REA April 1, said he "believes the Redwood Empire is on the threshold of an explosive expansion and development program."

M. R. YOST
District general manager

Ward Regional Manager Will Take Part In Opening Events

Elden E. Peterson, Ward's west coast regional general manager, will participate in opening ceremonies tomorrow of the company's third new full-line California store in Corte Madera.

After a tour of the store with S. D. Ward, merchandise manager of the region; M. R. Yost, district general manager, and Robert C. Batty, store manager, Peterson put his stamp of approval on the merchandise layout and display.

Peterson, whose West Coast headquarters are in Oakland, is a native of California. He joined Ward's in 1933 as a salesman in the Merced store. In subsequent years he managed Ward stores at Reno, Nev., and Salem, Ore. From 1949 to 1951, he was district general manager of the company's Portland district.

He was named western regional general manager in 1955 and now has responsibility for the operation of 170 retail and catalog stores and two mail order houses in eight states (one of them in Alaska). He resides in Oakland with his wife and two children.

In 1959, Montgomery Ward purchased 2.8 per cent of all street dresses produced in the United States—representing 17 million yards of material.

Three-Day Celebration Scheduled

Occupying one-fourth of the total building area in the 33-store Corte Madera Center, Montgomery Ward and Co.'s 78,000 square feet department store will open its doors to the public tomorrow.

Ceremonies at 10 a.m. will kick off a three-day grand opening celebration featuring special sale merchandise and free prizes.

With nearly 200 employees on hand, the new Ward's store offers: one-stop shopping—everything from stereo hi-fi to high fashions; free parking; air-conditioning throughout the store; a selection of credit plans; kitchen and bathroom planning centers, and many other services.

Featured in the store's broad assortment of merchandise are fashions fresh from the markets of New York and Los Angeles; a complete line of men's suits and furnishings; a gift-ware section; more than 100 ceiling and wall light fixtures; a lawn and garden shop; a camera department, and a complete line of 1960 appliances.

The Corte Madera Ward's store is one of four stores being added to the company's nationwide network of retail outlets tomorrow. The others will open in Austin, Tex., Tampa, Fla., and Baltimore, Md. All are part of the company's 500-million-dollar expansion program launched in 1958.

5 Radio-Controlled Trucks On Duty For Repair Calls

Five radio-controlled, Ward's service trucks are on duty in Marin County every day to handle in-the-home repairs of appliances and home equipment.

"When a call somes into our service desk," says William Shanor, operating manager of Ward's new Corte Madera store, "our dispatcher takes the necessary information and schedules a repairman for the next working day.

"If it is an emergency call, however, the dispatcher radios the service truck closest to the trouble and it is on the scene in minutes."

Shanor said each truck is a mobile repair shop equipped with essential tools and stocked with 90 per cent of the parts required for most repair calls.

The mobile units also handle television antenna installation jobs.

Ward's new Corte Madera store will have a customer service department where items in need of repair may be brought. The department has in stock more than 2,000 parts which can be drawn from the stock room for immediate delivery to customers.

Also on hand is a complete assortment of stereo and monaural hi-fi needles and a wide selection of TV and radio tubes.

Major repairs, requiring special equipment and testing devices, are serviced at Montgomery Ward's central service repair unit at San Leandro which opened last October.

New equipment makes it possible for Ward's servicemen to repair all types of gasoline engines, and an outboard motor testing tank assures foolproof repairs and adjustments.

Steam cleaning and baked enamel spraying rooms enable the repair unit to deliver like-new lawn mowers, outboard motors, etc., to customers.

Complete gun repair facilities also are available for Ward's Marin County customers. A crew of gun experts is at San Leandro. Factory service also is available on specialized items.

"We're doing everything possible to provide the service facilities required to support the statement: "Ward's services what it sells," says Shanor.

Ward Store Features Latest For Milady

Style and value conscious women of Marin County will have a particular interest in the opening of Montgomery Ward's Corte Madera Center store tomorrow.

Opening ceremonies will reveal a spacious fashion center freshly stocked with the latest styles selected by the company's fashion buyers in New York and Los Angeles. All are attractively displayed on mannequins and on newly designed floor racks.

Fashion theme for the opening of the new Ward store will be navy blue and white, according to Mrs. Hazel Rupe, the store's fashion manager.

"Navy will be offered in smart daytime wear, in active sportswear, and in dress-up frocks," says Mrs. Rupe.

Many adaptations of originals purchased by Ward's buyers in the European fashion houses of Balenciage, Nina Ricce, Feraud and Cardin, will be available for the store opening.

"The adaptations underline Ward's insistence that there need be no price penalty for good taste in fashion," says Thomas Moore, the company's West Coast fashion merchandiser, who supervised the merchandising of the store's fashion department.

He explained that the essential spirit of the original design is retained regardless of the modifications.

Moore said Ward's is the only national retail and mail order firm represented at the European haute couture spring and fall showings.

"Although sleeves, color and texture will be important this summer," says Mrs. Rupe, "feminism is the term that best describes the most wanted styles."

The fashions section also includes colorful and tastefully selected accessories and hats and handbags.

With a view toward the warmer summer months, a wide assortment of shorts, slacks, swimsuits and other sportswear is available in the new store.

The fashion department also offers many customer conveniences. Fitting booths are roomy and complete—down to cleverly designed ash trays and purse holders.

A foundation garment section is another addition to the fashion department. A registered corsettier is available to give advice.

Streamlined Credit Plan To Serve Marin Customers

Keeping pace with its new, modern department store in the Corte Madera Shopping Center, Montgomery Ward and Co. has streamlined its credit operations to better serve Marin County residents, according to Alexis Balmy, credit manager.

Everything that Ward sells now can be purchased on one of five credit plans. The newest of these plans and the most popular is Ward's Revolving Charge.

Designed to take care of everyday purchases, the WRC plan has a double function. It is a 30-day charge—permitting payment within 30 days after billing date, and as with a 30-day charge, there is no service charge.

The WRC plan also is an extended pay plan—a customer may take up to 10 months to pay for his purchases. In this case there is a service charge on the balance extended over 30 days.

Balmy emphasized that no down payment is required on a WRC account no matter how large the purchase.

Wards' modernized credit operation eliminates credit approval delays on established accounts. All a customer has to do is present his charge plate to the salesperson, who uses it to print the sales check, and the merchandise is delivered.

All sales checks and a statement of the account are sent to Wards' customers each month. In addition, the statement advises how much can be added to an account without further increasing the payments.

For larger purchases such as furniture, appliances or for home improvement merchandise, Balmy said, a customer can have a separate monthly payment account with grants a longer period over which to make payments.

Wards' terms on oppliances and home furnishings permit up to 24 months to pay. For home improvement merchandise Wards has a plan that provides up to 36 months.

Ward Expansion Program Offers Big Opportunities

Montgomery Ward and Co. has embarked on an expansion program that offers greater opportunities than ever before to bright young men and women interested in a future in the merchandising field, according to Robert C. Batty, manager of Ward's new Corte Madera store.

"While it is true that we will open 24 big department stores in 1960, as well as 45 catalog stores, some hard lines stores and two distribution centers, these things represent only brick and mortar until they are filled with desirable merchandise and staffed by competent people," said Batty.

"To date, our promotion-from-within policy has provided most of the management personnel required by our accelerated program, and it will be satisfactory for some time," he said. "But 1960 will be the peak year in the present 500-million-dollar expansion program and new peaks will be reached in 1961, 1962 and 1963.

"It is quite obvious that we must have a reserve of trained personnel to fill the 5,000 management positions required to supervise the new facilities that will go into operation in those years."

To meet the challenge, Ward's president Paul M. Hammaker announced establishment of a $1,500,000-a-year manpower development program. Hundreds of future Ward's executives have qualified for the program. Thousands of opportunities still exist, says Hammaker.

Batty is one person who took advantage of the company's promotional policy in a period when few opportunities existed.

He began his Ward's career in 1934 as a men's clothing salesman in Denver, Colo. Two years later, he moved up to men's department manager at Greeley, Colo. In 1938, he became assistant manager in Oskaloosa, Iowa. He was subsequently assistant manager of Ward stores in Red Bluff, Tulare, Monterey and Bakersfield.

His first store manager assignment came in 1951 at Turlock. He subsequently managed stores at San Luis Obispo; Pocatello, Idaho, and Redding.

From 1958 until it closed March 5, he managed Ward's San Rafael store.

Batty is a native of Denver. He is married to the former Marguerite Brady of Kimball, Neb. They are the parents of two daughters. The Batty family resides at 42 Winship avenue in Ross.

Batty has been active in civic and social organizations, among them the San Rafael Merchants Assn., Elks Lodge and Chamber of Commerce.

LIQUOR DIDN'T LAST LONG IN WARD CATALOG

One line of goods that lasted only briefly in the Montgomery Ward catalog was hard liquor.

It was advertised in the 1875 catalog with this note of explanation: "We beg to state that we allow these quotations at the request of many of our customers."

A wave of protetst from prohibitionists followed. Liquor was dropped from the next catalog.

The climate hadn't changed by 1941, when, by accident, a can of beer appeared among other foods in a photo of a Ward refrigerator and drew 300 complaints from customers.

In 1872, Montgomery Ward issued its first catalog. It was a single sheet printed on one side and listed about 30 items. Montgomery Ward's 1960 spring-summer catalog is nearly 1,000 pages, listing more than 100,000 items.

For the first 54 years of its existence, Montgomery Ward was entirely a mail order operation. It opened its first retail store in 1926.

Auto Service Station Has Huge Stock

Ward's new Corte Madera Center auto service station, located approximately 200 feet north of the store proper, is equipped to do almost everything in the way of auto service.

The station will stock a selection of 1,500 tires, 200 tail pipes, hundreds of seat covers in 30 different styles, and an inventory of the most requested auto accessories and parts.

For city, highway and farm tire service, one specially designed and completely equipped auto service truck will go into service. It carries the most modern tire and auto service equipment available, including automatic bead breakers and pneumatic impact wrenches.

"We're offering installation service on seat covers, radios and all auto parts; micro-precision wheel balancing; minor tune-ups, and complete shock absorber and brake service," says Johan Van Linden, manager of the auto service station.

Ready to install everything sold in the 8,000 square feet eight-car auto service facility are a score of trained and experienced personnel.

Hydraulic and electrical power tools are provided to simplify and speed installation. One is an electrical tire changer, so simple that a child can operate it, according to Van Linden. Another machine grinds new brake shoes and turns drums to assure new-brake performance.

Not unlike the familiar drug store soda fountain is an oil bar which dispenses oil for customers wishing to purchase oil in bulk.

About the only thing old-time auto mechanics will find familiar are the old-fashioned prices in effect for the store's three-day grand opening sale, Van Linden said.

FOR YOUNG HOMEMAKERS—Ward's coordinated modern furniture line, "Suburbia," headlines a wide selection of furniture available in the new Corte Madera Center Store. The recently introduced line retains a coordinated styling in bedroom, living room and dining room pieces, permitting intermixing if desired. Reviewing the wide selection of fabrics and colors available in "Suburbia" are Mrs. Shirley Feldman and M. A. McConnell, furniture department manager. (George Wheeler photo)

'Why Give Agent That Cow?' Asked Catalog Of 1908

The "hard sell" in advertising is far from a modern invention.

Montgomery Ward's 1908 catalog sought to impress prospects with the low price of the company's cream separator, compared with those sold by the traveling agents of other firms. So it phrased its argument in terms the prospects were sure to understand.

"If a good sow is worth $50, then every time you buy a cream separator off an agent at his high price, you give him one cow. Our lowest priced cream separator is $29.90. The price of one good cow is $50. Thus, off us you get a guaranteed separator and (off your neighbor) a new cow, both for $79.90. The agent's price for one cream separator alone (no cow) is $75 to $125.

"Why give the agent that cow?"

WARD FOUNDER BLAZED NEW SELLING TRAILS

A. MONTGOMERY WARD
He started something

Pioneer Mail Order Merchandiser Revolutionized U. S. Buying Habits

This is a success story that would have dazzled Horatio Alger, and it's true. It is the story of a man who created one of the country's leading businesses and blazed new trails in retail selling.

Aaron Montgomery Ward was born in New Jersey in February, 1843. To help his poverty-stricken family, he had to leave school at the age of 14 and go to work in a barrel factory for 25 cents a day.

When he was 20, his family moved to St. Joseph, Mich., where he got a job as a shoe clerk for $5 a month and board. After three years, he was made manager of the store at a salary of $100 a month and board.

Several years later, he decided there was greater opportunity in a larger city, and obtained employment in Chicago as a traveling salesman with a wholesale concern. This experience, plus the fact that the first transcontinental railroad had been completed, made Montgomery Ward believe the time was right for a merchandising service such as had never before been attempted—selling by mail the varied lines of merchandise available in big city department stores.

In 1871, as he was about to start his new retailing plan, the Chicago fire wiped out his capital and his job. But Ward did not give up. A year later, in August of 1872, he issued his first mail order catalog. He and his friend and partner, George R. Thorne, operated this early business from a single room 12 by 14 feet, on Chicago's near-north side.

This was the beginning of the mail order business, destined to have a revolutionary effect upon the merchandising methods of the time.

The attitude of the new firm toward the customer had much to do with its success. No sale was considered complete unless the customer was satisfied. If not, he could return the goods and get his money back. This was an unusual concept in business practice in a day when sugar was sanded and molasses watered.

Ward's continued solely as a mail order business for 54 years before the first retail store came into being, by chance rather than plan. In 1926 three "merchandise exhibits"—forerunners of today's catalog stores—were opened as an experiment to stimulate mail order buying. These were located in Marysville, Kan.; Little Falls, Minn., and Plymouth, Ind.

In Plymouth, the people were not content merely to look, but insisted on buying the samples. Thus, Ward's first retail store was born.

In 1930 Ward's held its first Ward Week Sale. It has since become a traditional, twice-a-year event, nation-wide in scope.

Today, the firm has grown to 550 retail stores, 572 catalog stores, 12 metropolitan phone units and nine mail order houses serving customers all over the world.

Not only did Montgomery Ward lay the foundation for one of the world's greatest merchandising successes, but he revolutionized retail trade throughout the country.

With Woolworth, who created the "five and ten," and Wanamaker, who originated the department store, Montgomery Ward stands out as one of the Big Three who changed the buying habits of the nation.

Ward died in 1913, but the company still follows many of the policies he laid down in 1872.

Ward's TV Sets Are Well Tested

Every television model bearing Montgomery Ward's Airline name has undergone months of rigid tests for excellence in performance before arriving at Ward's new San Rafael store, says Edward Breavlt, appliance manager.

The factory which manufactures Airline television for Ward's is the largest television manufacturer in the country to make sets under private labels. Its laboratories are competent.

But Ward's does not stop there. Its own bureau of standards testing laboratory in Chicago has one of the most completely equipped electronic laboratories in the country, staffed by experienced engineers and technicians who test for about one hundred critical performance factors and compare the set with other brands in order to iron out "bugs" and check new developments.

Different Items Total Thousands

It would take a store about the size of Grand Central Station in New York, according to Robert C. Batty, manager of Ward's new Corte Madera store, to stock the thousands of different items that shoppers can purchase at Ward's.

Making this number of items available to North Bay shoppers is the province of the modern catalog order department.

"Should a customer fail to find what she wants on our counters," Batty says, "she merely has to go to our catalog order department and make selection, with the help of a trained clerk, from one of the company's big catalogs." The clerk will write out her order for her and mail it postage-free to a Ward mail order house.

One of Ward's first catalogs, one page, issued in 1872, listed these items and prices: One hoop skirt, one bustle and one hair braid, all for $2; 10 boxes of paper collars with cloth-lined button holes, $1; five linen shirt fronts, $1.

A gigantic welcoming celebration will be held at Corte Madera Shopping Center tomorrow, Friday and Saturday for Montgomery Ward and Co.'s huge new store, the new Corte Madera office of the First National Bank in San Rafael and three shops in the bank building.

Thousands of Marinites are expected to turn out for the three-day fete at the convenient one-stop shopping community on Highway 101.

In addition to its new retail outlet, Montgomery Ward will open an auto service center on a triangular site near the Edgewater Inn. The modern bank building at the south end of the shopping center houses a beauty salon, Mam'selle Stylists; a Herbert Sherbert Shoppe and the Keifer Shoe Repair Center.

The Ward store and the three shops will open tomorrow. An open house will be held in the bank office Saturday from 3 to 6 p. m.

In conjuction with the grand openings, there will be a three-day centerwide merchandising event featuring hundreds of special values for bargain-hungry Marin shoppers.

Parking is no problem at Corte Madera Center, thanks to the spacious—and free—parking areas at the front and rear of the stores. Some 2,100 cars can be accommodated with ease.

For convenience of late shoppers, all Corte Madera Center stores will be open until 9 o'clock Friday night.

Here is a handy list of the 33 stores and services at the multi-million-dollar shopping center:

Montgomery Ward and Co., First National Bank, Herbert Sherbert Shoppe, Keifer Shoe Repair Center, Mam'selle Stylists salon, J. C. Penney Co., W. T. Grant Co., F. W. Woolworth Co., Thrifty Drug Store, Littleman Market.

Louis George Men's Apparel, Harmony Music Center, Gallen-Kamp's Shoe Store, Toy World, Martin and Harris Appliances, Kramar's Shoe Store, Anita Dress Shop, Junior Junction Infants' to Teens' Wear, Luana's Fashions.

Jay Vee Women's and Misses' Apparel, Kirby Shoe Store, Lady Baltimore Bakery, Kerns and Walker Cleaners, Peerless Laundry and Dry Cleaning Co., Marina Family Barber Shop, Household Finance Corp.

Edgewater Inn, Bob's of Marin Restaurant, Dr. Sbuso Kumata (optometrist), Jerry Jones' Chevron Service, Zim's Restaurant, Friend's Union Service and the Swiss Watchmaker (Eric Mathias).

ONE-STOP SHOP CENTER—Distant view of south portion of Corte Madera Center shows modern buildings housing W. T. Grant Co. outlet, Thrifty Drug Store and smaller shops and services. Parking area is one of two providing space for some 2,100 cars. Big three-day merchandising event will start at center tomorrow, coinciding with celebration welcoming new Montgomery Ward and Co. store, First National Bank office, Herbert Sherbet Shoppe, Keifer Shoe Repair Center and Mam'selle Stylists beauty salon. ## Beauty Salon To Open Tomorrow

Free makeup, facials and color consultation will be offered tomorrow at the grand opening of Mam'selle Stylists, Corte Madera's newest beauty salon, in the First National Bank building at Corte Madera Center.

The modern, complete salon will be operated by Mrs. Flora C. May of Mill Valley. Her two assistants, both experienced beauty operators, will be Miss Kimmy of San Rafael and Miss Rose Ann, who came to Corte Madera recently from Monterey.

Color consultation will be offered without charge from 9:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. tomorrow by Mr. Howard, renowned color consultant of the L'Oreal de Paris organization.

"All interested women are invited to meet Mr. Howard and let him create the perfect color scheme to frame their beauty," said Mrs. May.

The complimentary facials and makeup will be given by Miss Grace Palmer from 9:30 to 4:30. Miss Palmer is a make-up artist and consultant for the She Cosmetic Co. of Hollywood. She will feature the firm's special non-allergic cosmetic preparations, available only in salons.

"Come in and let Miss Palmer advise you and show you the art of applying glamour in your makeup," Mrs. May urged prospective opening day visitors.

Regular hours of the Mam'selle Salon will coincide with those of all other Corte Madera Center stores and shops: 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Wednesday and Friday.

Mrs. May is an experienced operator, trained at the Marinello Schools of Beauty in San Rafael and San Francisco.

She and her husband, John, and their 14-year-old son, Ronald, reside at 534 East Blithedale avenue, Mill Valley, their home since 1943. Ronald is a freshman at Tamalpais High School.

John May is a retired veteran of 27 years in the regular Army and an active member of the Marin County Boy Scout Council. He was a chief engineer in the Army mine planting service and inventor of the anti-mine degaussing system used on all Army and Navy ships during World War II.

Practical Matter

NORTH TROY, Vt. (UPI) — Robert Galipeau, who quit teaching mathematics and science seven years ago to work in a butcher store, returned to the classroom saying, "With this store business under my belt I think I can convince even the most reluctant student how important math is. You really have to know it to run a grocery store. You've got to figure things down to the last penny."

2 Celebrations At Sherbert Shop Opening

ALBERT FITZGERALD
Two happy events

When Albert Fitzgerald opens his new Herbert Sherbet Shoppe tomorrow in the First National Bank building at Corte Madera Center, he will be celebrating another happy event as well—his 12th wedding anniversary.

Fitgerald and his wife, Muriel, were married March 17, 1948, in San Francisco, where they reside at present.

The Herbert Sherbert Shoppe, Fitzgerald emphasized, is wholly owned by him. He is featuring the famous Herbert name and complete line of Herbert ice cream products on a franchise basis.

From his shop in the new bank building, patrons will enjoy a spectacular view of Mt. Tamalpais through huge ceiling-to-floor plate glass windows.

Thirty-two flavors of ice cream—bulk and hand-packed—will be available at the Herbert Sherbert Shoppe, as well as "take-out" milk shakes, ice cream sodas, sundaes and cones.

Fitzgerald will have four fountain employees to provide continuous service from 11 a. m. to 10 p. m. seven days a week. They are James Street and Bill Gardner, both of Mill Valley, Gaye Ferrick of Madera Gardens in Corte Madera and Douglas Smith of Corte Madera's Mariners Cove district.

No stranger to ice cream, Fitzgerald has four years of experience in the dairy business behind him. A former resident of Mill Valley, he has also been a service station operator in San Francisco.

Fitzgerald said the idea of a "take-out" ice cream shop struck him some years ago when he and his wife were living in Mill Valley.

"On our evening drives the need for an ice cream shop was so apparent that we decided some day we would have one of our own in this general area," he related.

The Corte Madera Center shop is the fulfillment of that dream.

The Fitzgeralds are planning an early move back to Marin County. They have two children, Debra, 7, and Michael, 6.

A former Navy Seabee, Fitzgerald lists stamp and rare coin collecting as his hobbies.

Gulls Once Roamed Shop Center Site

Corte Madera Shopping Center, which tomorrow will expand to 33 stores and services, was a swampy site frequented by seagulls when developer Frank Rusalem purchased the acreage in 1945.

Rusalem's vision and the know-how of many others resulted in the development of Marin's largest one-stop retail center. First to be built were the Edgewater Inn and two service stations.

In September, 1958, the first major unit of the multi-million-dollar center officially opened for business on the more than 20-acre commercial site.

Within a year the center had expanded to 29 stores and services. And tomorrow, Friday and Saturday it will celebrate the opening of still more: a huge Montgomery Ward and Co. retail store and auto service center, a new Corte Madera office of the First National Bank in San Rafael, a Herbert Sherbert Shoppe, a beauty salon (Mam'selle Stylists) and Keifer's Shoe Repair Center.

Corte Madera Center has even more room for expansion in the years ahead on a 45,000-square-foot site between the Montgomery Ward and First National Bank buildings.

Bank Clearings

Check clearings figures for the six Marin offices of the First National Bank in San Rafael totaled $23,446,000 for the period of Feb. 16 through Feb. 29, the bank reported today.

Shoe Repair Center Slates Grand Opening

Grand opening of Keifer's Shoe Repair Center will be celebrated tomorrow in the new First National Bank building at Corte Madera Shopping Center.

The fully equipped shop will be owned and operated by James A. Keifer, who said he will provide the only complete shoe clinic in the Corte Madera community.

Available services will include complete restyling, renovating, dyeing and cleaning of all types of shoes. Keifer said he is also prepared to do special orthopedic work in accordance with doctors' prescriptions.

In connection with tomorrow's grand opening, Keifer said he will give away a bicycle at his shop on April 30.

No novice in the shoe repair business, he cut his first leather as a youth and quickly advanced from the apprentice ranks to the ownership of his own shop. He has 20 years experience behind him, the last 14 as owner-operator of the Veterans Shoe Repair in San Francisco.

Keifer will retain the Veterans shop in addition to the new one at Corte Madera Center, there he will employ two assistants. His hobby is woodworking, and he built all the fixtures of the new shop with his power tools.

Currently residents of San Francisco, Keifer and his wife, Johnny Mae, are planning to move to Marin in the near future. They have two daughters, Glenna, 9, and Donna, 5.

'Wise Old 'Crow'

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The owl, ballyhooed in song and verse as being wise, is stupid, says a bird expert.

Albert F. Ganier, curator of the Tennessee Orinthological Society, suggests that the "wise old owl" be replaced by "the wise old crow."

"The black crow is probably the smartest bird we have," Gainier says. "He is quick-witted, loves to play and has worked out a watch system that protects him."

Falls For His Pooch

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Like most 10-year-old boys, Richard Johnson is mighty fond of his dog.

Richard was on a high flying swing when his pooch Toby came dangerously close. Rather than hit Toby, the boy jumped out of the swing in an effort to slow its motion.

Richard broke both arms in the fall.

Call The Police

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP)—Members of a male chorus in a minstrel show returned to their dressing room to find that the pockets of their street clothes had been rifled.

That was bad enough, but even worse considering who sponsored the shaw—the Police Athletic League.

New Office Marks Milestone In Long History Of Bank

Completion of the spacious new Corte Madera office of the First National Bank in San Rafael marks another important milestone in the progress of Marin County's only home-owned and home-operated bank.

First National's history can be traced back to 1868, when Marin's pioneer banker, Upton M. Gordon, started providing banking services out of his real estate office in San Rafael.

Gordon was county treasurer in 1869-71, during which period he was available for banking "by appointment only." He and his silent partner, Anson P. Hotaling built Marin's first bank building in 1871 on the south side of San Rafael's Fourth street, between C and D streets.

At that time, San Rafael had 307 dwellings and 800 residents. The value of assessed property in Marin County was around $3,500,000.

Gordon died in 1888 and Dr. S. M. Augustine, who had been his cashier (and sole employee) for six years, assumed management of the bank. Dr. Augustine previously had been county superintendent of schools.

In 1890, the Bank of U. M. Gordon became the Bank of A. P. Hotaling and Co. It was incorporated as the Hotaling Banking Co. in 1907, the year the nation became gripped in a widespread financial panic.

One result of the panic was a shortage of coin in the western states. To extend the best possible service to Marin County merchants, Dr. Augustine made arrangements with a number of San Francisco saloon keepers and merchants to send their coin to the bank every day by Wells Fargo Express.

Many of the coins arrived wet, sticky and even stuck together as a result of having been in contact with beer and whiskey. They were cleaned in buckets of water and sorted before distribution to the merchants.

In 1910, the Hotaling Banking Co. was bought by the Bank of San Rafael, a new corporation. Six years later the bank moved to its present location at Fourth and B streets, San Rafael. In 1925, the board of directors formed the First National Bank in San Rafael as an affiliate of the Bank of San Rafael.

Both banks, located under the same roof, were — and still are—owned by the same stockholders and managed as a unit by the same directors and officers. The Bank of San Rafael is purely a savings bank and, as such, is a rarity in California and the west.

First National rapidly expanded in the 1950s to meet the needs of its Marin and Sonoma County customers. The bank introduced drive-in banking to Marin in 1950 and later estabilshed offices in Novato, Belevedere-Tiburon, Kentfield, Petaluma, Corte Madera, Mill Valley and San Anselmo.

The San Anselmo office at 120 Sir Francis Drake boulevard opened last December. It occupies the former Purity Store building, which was completely remodeled.

Two Corte Madera offices of First National, one at 15 First street and the other in the shopping center arcade, will close when the handsome new building in Corte Madera Center opens for business.

William P. Murray has served as president of the First aNtional Bank and Bank of San Rafael since the death of M. J. Pedrotti in 1933. Since that year, total resources of the two firms have jumped from $4,507,625 to $57,494,669.

Better Receptions

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra says audiences behind the Iron Curtain are more receptive to good music than those of Europe or Israel.

Eugene Ormandy adds that audiences in Russia and other Iron Curtain nations often cheered for 30 minutes after recent Philadelphia Orchestra concerts.

Ormandy's observations were made in a recent letter from Europe, where he is vacationing, to C. Wanton Balis Jr., president of the Philadelphia Orchestra Assn.

Many Enterprises

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — The Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co. decided to send pieces of metal from the carrier Enterprise of World War II to newspapers with Enterprise in the masthead. It found 245.

Home Saving Banks Are Available

"A home book-bank for every home."

With that slogan, First National Bank in San Rafael has made many thousands of home savings banks available to its customers.

The handsome banks are available to all First National savings account customers who have a balance of at least $2 in their account.

They will be obtainable at the bank's new office in Corte Madera Shopping Center. And incidentally, it should be noted that First National keeps temptation out of your way — by keeping the key.

At Ripon, Wis., in 1854, a movement was organized that later became the modern day Republican Party.

Third Opening For Bank For This Executive

BEVERLEY A. SILL
Opened first office

An old hand at opening banks in Corte Madera is Beverley A. Sill, manager of the First National Bank office there.

The handsome new quarters of the bank in Corte Madera Shopping Center actually will be the First National's third Corte Madera location since October, 1956.

The first office was opened by Sill near the town's post office. In August, 1958, he opened the second one in the shopping center arcade, and since then has managed both offices concurrently. They will cease to exist when the new quarters open for business.

Sill joined the First National Bank in June, 1941, after having been with Safeway Stores, Inc., for nearly three years. He is a graduate of San Rafael High School and attended the College of Marin.

Before his appointment as manager of the Corte Madera office, Sill was assistant manager in First National's Kentfield office.

Sill and his wife, Therezinha, whom he met in Rio de Janeiro, and their three children, reside at 11 Birch avenue, Corte Madera.

A director and treasurer of the Corte Madera Center Merchants' Council, Sill held similar posts with the Corte Madera Lions Club, of which he is still a member. He is chairman of the Salvation Army Citizens Committee of Larkspur-Corte Madera.

Sill served in the Army in 1946-47 as an investigative agent in Nurenberg, Germany, for the Criminal Investigation Division and in 1950-51 as an investigator for the provost mashal at the Presido of San Francsco.

In past years, he has been associated with the Marin County Sheriff's Mounted Posse, once serving as its captain, and the Contra Costa County Mounted Sheriff's Posse.

RALPH B. MANNELLA
Joined bank in 1951

Experienced Assistant At New Office

Ralph B. Mannella, an experienced member of the First National Bank family, will continue to serve as assistant manager of the bank's Corte Madera office when its spacious new quarters open in Corte Madera Center.

He joined First National in September, 1951, serving in the auditing department. Since then he has also been chief clerk in the Tiburon and Corte Madera offices.

Mannella is a veteran of four and one-half years on the army during World War II. More than half of his service was spent in the Pacific Theater, where he was awarded the Silver Star and Bronze Star for gallantry.

He attended the Golden Gate School of Accounting for three years and holds a public accountant's license. Currently he is a member of the board of governors of the Marin County Chapter of the American Institute of Banking. He has been treasurer of the Marin Music Chest for the past six years.

Mannella is a member of the American Legion, Toastmasters Club 890 and the California Society of Accountants. He is a past president of the San Francisco Safe Deposit Assn. and past treasurer of the Young Men's Institute in San Rafael.

He and his wife and their four children reside at 5 Valley road, San Anselmo.

BUSY OPERATORS

Bank Office Boasts Modern Equipment

It takes a great deal of equipment to operate a modern, efficient bank, and First National Bank's new office in Corte Madera Shopping Center will be no exception.

Beverley A. Sill, Corte Madera manager said equipment necessary to maintain First National's high standard of customer service will include IBM proof machines and a Recordak microfilm camera and viewer.

The proof machines prepare 24 tapes and one master tape which help balance all bank deposits. Simultaneously, they stamp the bank's endorsement on the backs of checks and distribute the checks to one of 24 receptacles for final sorting to the bookkeeping section or to other banks.

"It sounds involved—and it is!" said Sill.

"Our operators will be very busy," he added. "For example, in our San Rafael office these IBM machines handle an average of 5,600 items daily. And they have processed as many as 10,000 in a single day."

Sill said the Recordak microfilmer and viewer permit photographic check protection, an important service which the new Corte Madera office will render to its customers at no additional cost.

"This is an invaluable aid to customers in cases of disputes on an account where proof of payment is required," Sill declared. "By photographing all checks and other items that come into the bank, a microfilm record can be kept indefinitely in First National's vaults."

The microfilmer is a high speed camera capable of photographing the front and back of checks at the rate of at least 400 per minute. A 100-foot reel of film will hold the photos of 29,000 checks.

Security Is Password For Safety Deposit

"Security" is the password of the safe deposit department at First National Bank in San Rafael and its various Marin and Sonoma County offices.

Chief emthod of implementing this security is the dual custody system which requires that two keys be used to open each safe deposit box.

One key is kept by the customer, while the bank keeps a completely separate key in its custody. The locks are pick-proof.

Here are some answers to frequent queries about First National's safe deposit system:

1. How much does a safe deposit box cost? Answer: As little as $5 per year. Cost is regulated by the cubic inch capacity of the box. At present, a 10 per cent federal tax is added to the rental fee.

2. Can the bank enter a safe deposit box? Answer: The bank does not have any keys to individual boxes. However, if a renter abandons his box and fails to pay the rent, the bank has the right to make forcible entry after all other efforts have failed. Such entry is made by an outside safe expert, supervised with extreme caution, and is done in the presence of a bank officer.

3. Why is it necessary to have two keys to open the boxes? Answer: The customer has the only keys which will open the box. The bank furnishes only the guard key, which permits the customer's key to work. The guard key is for the bank's use in supervising each entry.

4. What if the customer loses his key? Answer: "If one is lost, he may make entry with the second. Two identical keys are issued with each rental. If the customer cannot locate the lost key, a new lock is installed with two keys. If both are lost, the box must be drilled open by a mechanic in the presence of the renter.

5. Can the government open a safe deposit box or force the bank to open it? Answer: The government, by court order, can direct the bank to open a box, but this is seldom done and only in case of litigation.

6. Are the boxes fireproof? Answer: They are lodged in fireproof vaults, and each is placed in its own guarded receptacle.

BANK INVITES PUBLIC TO OPEN HOUSE FETE

Spacious new quarters of the Corte Madera office of First National Bank in San Rafael and its affiliate, the Bank of San Rafael, will be open for public inspection Saturday from 3 to 6 p.m. in Corte Madera Shopping Center.

Refreshments will be served during the three-hour open house.

The handsome new office, which will replace the bank's two temporary locations in the Corte Madera area, is expected to open for business next week.

First National originally opened at 15 First street, Corte Madera in October, 1956. A second office in the shopping center arcade started business in August, 1958.

Inviting the public to Saturday's open house, W. P. Murray, bank president, said he is "certain that present and prospective customers of the bank will be very happy with the beautiful new building in Corte Madera Center."

Sensitive Microphones Monitor Bank's Vault

The vault in First National Bank's new Corte Madera office contains sensitive alarm microphones — so sensitive that if a small mouse were left inside during the night, his running around would set off the alarm.

The new Mosler Century Vault door is three and one-half inches thick and weighs three tons. Its face is finished in gleaming stainless steel and it is engineered to give maximum protection against fire as well as all known methods of attack, including drills, torches, explosives and sledges.

For additional security, the door's boltwork is controlled by three movement time locks and two combination locks. These are capable of one million changes, which means that if one were to spin a new combination every minute, 24 hours a day, seven days a week it would take more than 190 years to exhaust the combination changes of even one lock.

But the multi-ton door is so finely tooled that even a child can move it with one finger.

Another safety feature of the new vault is a ventilator which may be used by anyone who might inadvertently — or deliberately — be locked inside.

Merely by turning a trigger handle, the trapped person could receive a stream of forced fresh air from outside the vault to prevent being suffocated.

Bank Has Grown Under Murray's Presidency

The First National Bank in San Rafael, soon to open a handsome new office at Corte Madera Center, has achieved its greatest growth under the guidance of William P. Murray, its president since 1933.

When Murray succeeded the late M. J. Pedrotti, the great depression still had an unrelenting grip on the nation.

But Marin County families, businessmen and farmers had an abiding faith in Will Murray's ability and his desire to help them through any financial crisis. Their faith was rewarded.

Total resources of First National and its affiliated savings institution, the Bank of San Rafael, were $4,507,615 at the end of 1933. By the end of last year, the figure had soared to $57,494,669.

Born in San Rafael, Murray attended local schools and Heald's Business College in San Francisco. As a youth, he worked for Equitable Life Assurance Co. as an office boy. In the fall of 1904 he entered the banking field as an employee of the Humboldt Savings Bank in San Francisco.

Seven years later, Murray was offered the post of cashier of the Bank of San Rafael, which eventually was to be operated with First National as a single unit.

Murray jumped at the opportunity to work with and for the people of his home county, starting his more than 49-year career with the bank on Oct. 2, 1911.

Off The Map

RICHMOND, R. I. (AP) — Although there are five post offices in the township of Richmond, you can't find the dot for Richmond on the map because there is no village or town by that name.

The post offices are in the villages of Alton, Wood River Junction, Shannock, Kenyon and Wyoming. But perhaps this town of 1772 inhabitants is more famous for streets, ponds and locations.

Among the more colorful names are Smallpox Lane, Quarrelsome Corners, Skunk Hill Road, Moonshine Swamp, Coward's Hole, and Frying Pan Pond.

Bank Offers Money Order Service, Too

What is a postal money order? The average person can answer that one, but he's probably less familiar with the term "bank money order."

Actually, a bank money order is a novel and inexpensive check writing service maintained by many banks, including all Marin County offices of the Frist National Bank in San Rafael.

First National, soon to open a new Corte Madera office, maintains this service under the name of "Registered Checks." It permits the writing of checks without requiring a bank account either at First National or any other bank.

These checks are available for sale at many Marin retail stores as well as First National offices. Here's how the system works:

1. The customer asks for a check in the amount he desires — for example, $34.15. He pays the clerk $34.35, the additional 20 cents being the charge for the very low cost of the service. The clerk imprints the three copies of the check in the amount of $34.15 in a single operation on a special Protectograph check writer.

Original and triplicate copies of the check go to the customer, the bank maintaining the duplicate copy for its records — and for the customer's protection. The entire process takes less than 20 seconds.

2. The customer completes the check by filling in the date, payee's name and his own signature. He mails the original and keeps the triplicate copy of his registered check as a receipt.

Help Needed For Relic

NEW YORK (AP) — A two-story frame house which was once the home of American statesman and former Secretary of the Treasury Alexander Hamilton is slowly mouldering away on New York City's upper West Side.

The house, built by Hamilton in 1801 and called The Grange, is in dilapidated contrast to the appearance of luxury it had when occupied by one of the men closest to Gen. George Washington during the Revolution. It is a museum now but the organization maintaining it cannot find the $400,000 necessary to move it to a more suitable site and restore it. Meantime, paint peels, plaster falls and vandals get in their work.

Toughtful Thieves

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — Thieves broke into T. V. Pennington's car and stole his portable television set, which was on the blink and being taken to a repair shop.

Police arrested the thieves a short while later and Pennington reclaimed the set. It was working fine.

'Round Clock Service In Night Depository

First National Bank's new office in Corte Madera Shopping Center will offer the latest in night depository facilities to local residents, merchants, business people and shoppers.

"The bank will never be closed to its depositors," said Ralph B. Mannella, assistant manager of the Corte Madera office.

Designed and installed by Herring-Hall-Marvin, famous maker of U.S. Silver Storage Vaults, the new "Five-Star" depository embodies every possible safeguard for deposits made after banking hours.

"This 'round-the-clock depository service is of great advantage to restaurants, churches, theaters, food stores, service stations and every other type of business whose hours do not coincide with banking hours," Mannella said.

The depository's counter-balanced hinged door for bags and other bulky packages is equipped with a special corrugated key lock. Each customer also is furnished with a key-locked deposit bag.

In addition, there's an envelope slot with a hinged lid. This is a feature appreciated by many customers—a quick, handy way to make ordinary envelope deposits at any hour of the day or night. No key is needed for the envelope depository.

All deposits—bags and envelopes—drop through a chute into a steel receiving safe inside the bank. The safe is embedded in concrete.

She Has A Problem

DES MOINES (AP) —A woman who moved to Des Moines from a small town in Missouri joined a club for stout persons — not because she's overweight, but because she was lonely and wanted to make friends.

"I had the feeling," she explained, "that fat people are jolly people and would make good new friends. But the funny part of the story is that I've lot 12 pounds; I don't want to lose any more, and I don't want to quit the club, either."

Resort Hotel Cupid Has Started 400 To Altar

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (UPI) — Marriages may be made in heaven, but they frequently get a helping hand from a blonde cupid at a resort hotel here.

She is Barbara Brooke, social director of the Hollywood Beach Hotel and Country Club. She figures she has started 200 couples on the way to the altar.

"To be frank," she says, "the most important part of my job is to see that unmarried women vacationing at our hotel meet unmarried men with similar interests."

Miss Brooke's mail regularly includes wedding invitations from people she has brought together.

"One night I had to turn down three invitations because I had accepted a fourth," she says. "So far, there have been 50 babies named after me by couples I've introduced."

Match-making is easiest in the younger age groups, according to Miss Brooke. "Single young men always want to meet single young women, and vice versa."

With people past 40, the job is harder. "An older man practically never wants to be introduced to a woman," says Miss Brooke. "But a mature woman is always very anxious to meet a man of her own age and of similar interests."

This calls for laying some traps, or "little tricks" as Miss Brooke calls them.

"Let's say I know that Mr. Smith, a bachelor, likes to play bridge. And I know that Mrs. Jones, a widow, also likes to play bridge. I will go to Mr. Smith's table and start a conversation, and have Mrs. Jones walk by five minutes later and ask me some question.

"This gives me a chance to introduce them. I'll off-handedly mention that Mr. Jones loves to play bridge, and wouldn't it be nice if she and Mr Smith got together that evening for bridge . . ."

Change In Climate Threatens Switzerland's Famed Glaciers

ZUERICH, Switzerland (UPI)— A gradual change in climate is threatening one of Switzerland's greatest tourist assets — the 95 big glaciers that girdle her Alpine peaks.

Like the "blue" Danube which turned a muddy gray many years ago, Switzerland's once ice-blue glaciers are getting progressively dirty.

And what is worse — they are shrinking at an ever increasing rate. More and more cracks are opening up on their big, round backs that bend down over the mountain sides.

A series of long, hot summers and a marked change in the Swiss climate are the main cause of a process that has alarmed many mountain-loving Swiss.

A recent study by the Swiss Alpine Club said that of 89 glaciers examined by experts last year, 83 had shrunk three to 783 feet in length in 12 months. Shrinkage during this abnormally warm year has been even bigger, although exact figures were not available yet.

What makes this especially sad from a tourist point of view is that those glaciers which protrude farthest into the valleys and are the most easily accessible are shrinking fastest.

The famous Grindelwald Glacier in the Bernese Oberland is "retracting" up the mountainside. The Fee Glacier in the Zermatt region has shrunk by 1,337 feet within the last five years, and the Findelen Glacier by 1,567 feet in two years.

At the end of this summer, mountain climbers reported that the glaciers looked "awful."

"They are covered with dirt and dust," said Walter Kuhn, a scientist employed by the Swiss weather bureau.

"They are loosening up and are full of cracks."

Kuhn has been making special studies on climate changes in Switzerland.

"The average temperature in the Swiss Alps in the months from May to September — the period that affects the size of glaciers — has risen by as much as three degrees," Kuhn said.

"Once the glaciers started shrinking in the late thirties, the process was sped up progressively.

"As rocks and mountainsides were bared, they began to crumble away under atmospheric action, covering the glaciers with dust and small rocks.

"A dirty glacier melts faster than a clean one. The darker its surface, the more it absorbs sun warmth instead of reflecting it."

The shrinking of glaciers, in turn, influences average temperatures. The less ice there is around on a summer day, the higher the temperature.

Renaud reported in Die Alpen, the official organ of the Swiss Alpine Club, that the area covered by Swiss glaciers has shrunk by 25 per cent. In the past 83 years, shrinkage was 15 per cent. Between 1876 and 1934, another 10 per cent in the 25 years since then.

For Better Butts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — More than $314 million has been spent by the American tobacco industry during the past nine years for new and improved manufacturing, processing and research facilities, the Tobacco Institute reported.

An additional $80 million is so far planned for similar work in 1960 and 1961. Included in the improvement program to date is an item of more than $164 million for new machinery or more than half the total outlay.

Bowling Itch Lures Increasing Number Of Marin Housewives

By DOT FOGARTY

A new threat to the domestication of Marin housewives looms on the horizon these days. Lured by free lessons and free baby-sitting, local women are trekking in steadily increasing numbers to the nearest bowling alley.

This bowling itch by the "weaker sex" is one of the major contributions to the support of three bowling alleys in Marin County, two of them less than a year old.

The national fever for bowling, on a steady rise for the past decade, erupted locally in the construction of $790,000 Greenbrae Lanes in March of 1959, two-and-a-half-million dollar Country Club Bowl in August of 1959, and an elaborate remodeling of Marin Bowl, the county's oldest bowling alley.

Now rounding out a year of operation, Greenbrae Lanes is a typical example of the stomping ground for local women bowlers. With 24 lanes, a nursery, coffee shop and bar, the Marin housewife has found this alley an ideal antidote for "cabin fever."

The average introduction to bowling for local women has come through a pleasant phone call invitation to join a free class. At Greenbrae Lanes these are conducted twice a month, overlapping in three-week sessions. Each bowler is given three lessons, free shoe rental, free coffee, and at the end of the session she is even offered a free cocktail and analysis of her particular bowling problems. As one housewife stated, "You can hardly beat the price."

Once inticed within the doors the prospective bowler meets a handsome young man in a blazer jacket who manages to inject a large dose of charm into the business of instructing. He is Tom Coates, general manager and late of Los Angeles and IBM.

Tom, as everyone knows and calls him, is assisted by an equally personable young man, Ron Gurries, who has been sidetracked from the study of law by the bowling craze. With these two teachers at the head of the class, it's not too hard to pay attention.

To date there have been six classes of instruction, averaging 50 women to a class, and there are many more in the offering. Such free instruction has paid off well, furnishing the nucleus for eight women's bowling leagues. Of the entire number of people bowling at Greenbrae Lanes, Tom estimates more than one third are women.

Also working on the proven theory of "hooking them young," classes are conducted for "bantams," 8 through 12, and juniors 13 through 17, with a liberal sprinkling of girls. More than 90 youngsters are bowling steadily under such instruction.

On the opposite end of the age cycle, there are a number of women in their 70s now bowling at Greenbrae Lanes.

If age is no barrier, neither is size nor shape. Since pedal pushers, slacks and bermuda shorts are favorite bowling attire, the casual observer can get a rear-action view to bear out this statement.

As if enough incentive had not already been dangled before the prospective woman bowler, it has been suggested she might melt off a few pounds through such exercise. There are even a few charts lying around which indicate that bowling creates a calorie cost of 7.1 per minute, ranking it behind swimming and above rowing. Since the charm of rowing eludes many women, and swimming is highly seasonal, bowling has itself a case.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday are the main bowling days for Marin housewives with leagues and classes spotted for 10 o'clock in the morning. Activity begins to boil about 9:30 a.m. as mothers with sometimes two and three children in tow begin to arrive. Some women accomplish quite a feat in just making it from the car to the door with infant, car bed, diapers, bottles, bowling ball and shoes.

Under the smooth guidance of Tom Coates the new bowler is introduced to 62 feet of wooden lane and instructed in such matters as the four step approach and the foul line. She finds out right away that if she varies more than 42 inches to the right or left she will never make it up the 62 feet. In fact, the first terminology learned by the beginning bowler is "gutter ball."

In surprisingly fast time, however, she is glib in the glossary of such terms as "strikes," "spares," "doubles," "turkeys," "bedposts," "railroads" and "sleepers." She learns to score properly, and she learns the etiquette of the lanes.

The new bowler is shown fitting of balls to the hand for the right span and she soon finds which weight is best. Balls vary in weight from nine to 16 pounds, and the average woman bowls with a ball weighing from 10 to 14 pounds. A large portion of the women bowling on local leagues now have their own balls with names engraved.

"Women are easy to teach," Tom says, "and not the least bit temperamental as a rule."

He has found, however, that he has to go along with a fixation or two occasionally. One woman asked to be moved to a new lane because the one she was using had a hump in it. She could see right there in the middle.

Since the variance allowed in a lane is 40 thousands of one inch, such a hump is highly unlikely, but the lady was moved and promptly bowled much better on another lane. So much so that engineers were called in to check a hump nobody else could see. They still haven't found it.

On final bit of instruction Tom Coates gives each class of women before dismissal.

"Practice what you've learned, and don't let your husband change it!"

Apothecary Jars Shown At Pharmacy

Apothecary jars and ewers now on display at the Greenbrae Pharmacy is part of the collection of memorabilia selected in all parts of the world by Ellen Schultz of Greenbrae.

Mrs. Schultz is the wife of Niels Schultz, developer of Greenbrae. In recent years, the Schultzes have become world travelers and, in these travels, Mrs. Schultz has tried to select a few of the best examples of craftsmanship in the countries visited. Thus this collection.

These jars and ewers from Europe, and principally from Italy, are examples of the finest craftsmanship of this ancient art, she notes.

The collection has been loaned by the Schultzes to Lorraine and Henry Brocco for the pleasure of their customers.

Decorator Gives Tips On Furnishings

John deVries, interior decorator, was a successful accounting and business systems executive who turned an avocation into a vocation at the insistence of his friends.

DeVries, for years an executive with Macy's in New York, was interested in interior arrangements and in painting. He came to the West Coast several years ago to install a stock control system for one of the major San Francisco fabric wholesalers.

OTHER CHALLENGES

One of his friends in Atherton heard him theorizing on interior design and invited him to put his theories into practice. This led to other challenges.

Affected by the slower pace of California living, the driving executive became the leisurely artist.

From the first, deVries has not been pressed to oversell or insist on the most expensive, and this has established an identifying pattern. His contention that his lifetime experience in fabrics and furnishings in the wholesaling end actually saves his clients the amount of his fee is borne out by his clients.

SOME SUGGESTIONS

DeVries offers these suggestions for genuine savings to the home owner without any apperance of stinting:

Call your interior decorator into consultation with your architect to the end that your home plans include the furnishings. Fabrics and carpeting come from the mills in standard widths and, for economy, this should be considered. In homes with view windows, how your drapes will hang and "stack" is important. Fabric colors are much harder to match to paint than paint to fabric, so select the fabrics first and paint to harmonize.

These are just a few of the simple, practical suggestions that lead to economy but result in harmonious interiors.

DeVries does interiors because the career pleases him. It pleases his clients, too.

READY FOR SALE — Floyd Hilty (left) compares green thumbs with Murray Hilty, his son and partner, in preparation for their St. Patrick's Day sale of gardening supplies and equipment at Bon Air Hardware.

Shoe Repair Is One Of Center's Newest Services

One of Bon Air Shopping Center's newest services is Frank's Shoe Repair, owned by Frank Lucchesi, now in its sixth month of operation. Lucchesi, a third generation shoemaker, offers several special services.

Women's shoes can take on a new look for spring by being re-dyed or given a different heel style, he notes, and practical investments is to have present heels replaced by unbreakable ones.

Relics Of Earlier Ages Discovered

Niels Schultz, developer of Greenbrae, has found early California artifacts in his developments.

In Millbrae, crews excavated a mastadon skeleton. The skeleton, including patches of hair from the Neolithic ancestor of the elephant, was turned over to Stanford University.

At Greenbrae bits of Indian pottery and other evidences indicate an Indian burial ground was located there.

Bon Air Hardware Has Grown Greatly In Year

Floyd Hilty of Bon Air Hardware is a happy man.

In the past year he has doubled his floor space, the services offered to his customers and the number of customers served.

And his partner in his success is his son, Murray.

Hilty came into the Bon Air Shopping Center five years ago in a partnership, at No. 136. A year ago, he bought out his partner and Murray joined the firm.

In October, they moved to No. 180, with double the floor space and a rear service entrance. Together, the partners have increased the goods and services to the store's present capacity.

Murray Hilty was brought up in the hardware business but, after completing his schooling in the East Bay, went to work for Purity Stores.

Last year, he came back to hardware and is satisfied that this is what he has always wanted to do.

The Hiltys have complete supply selections for both the weekend gardener and the home handyman. They can supply complete plans and materials for such projects as lawn sprinkler systems.

A visit to the Bon Air Hardware will convince you that Floyd Hilty has a lot of time for your hardware problems. He doesn't have any himself that he and Murray can't work out together.

Flattop Haircut Proves Popular

Louis M. Nickle, proprietor of the Greenbrae Barber Shop, says that one-third of the haircuts he gives now are flattops. This flattop style started out as a fad for youngsters some years ago but today it's a definite favorite with men, one reason being that it minimizes the look of thinning hair.

Nickle has been a barber for 38 years and opened his shop in the Bon Air Center in June, 1955. His is a four-chair shop, with one chair devoted exclusively to the "younger set." Nickle is also on 24-hour call at Marin General Hospital.

MARIN LANDMARK

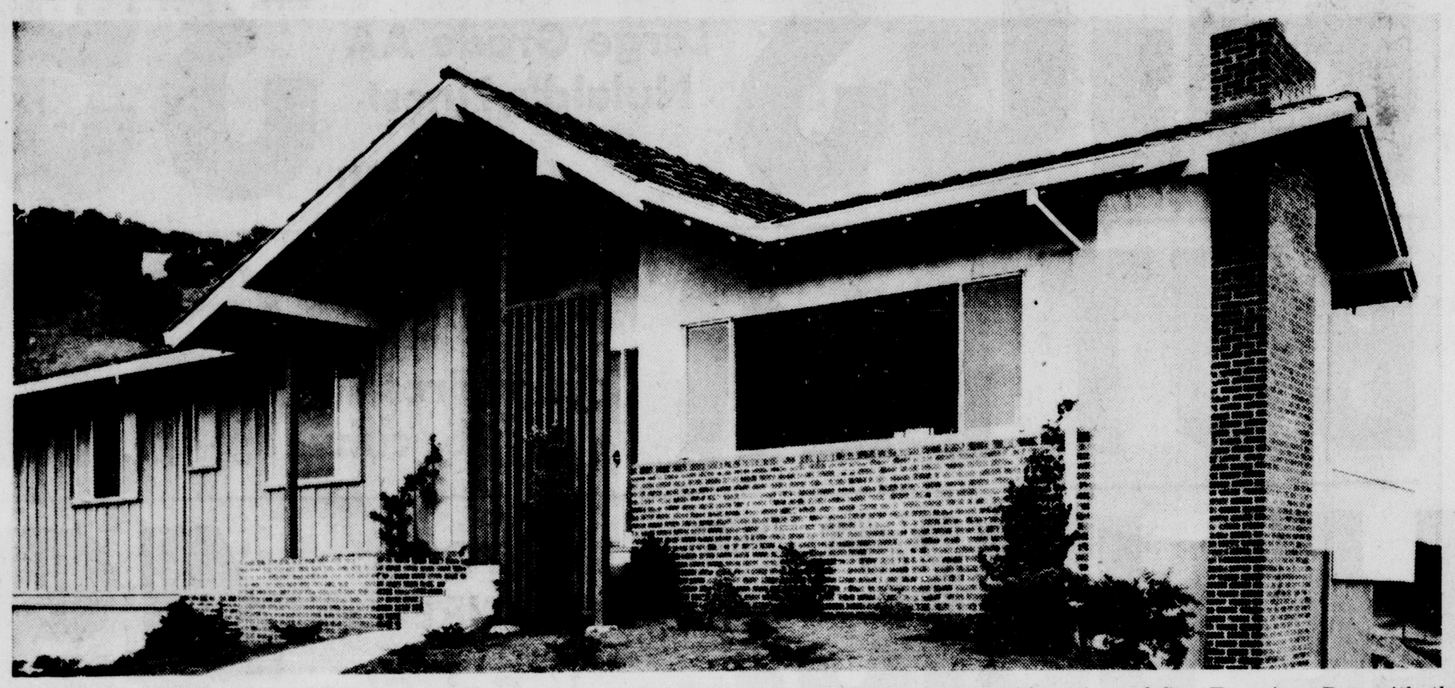
This turreted manor house at the entrance to Greenbrae is the office of the Greenbrae Co. The striking structure, located across Sir Francis Drake boulevard from the Bon Air Shopping Center, has become a familiar landmark to Marinites in the years since the Schultz interests started development of Greenbrae just after World War II.



NEW GREENBRAE HOME—This level-entrance hillside home in one of Greenbrae's newest sections is situated on a ridgetop cul de sac and features a sweeping view of San Francisco Bay with the Bay Bridge in the distance. The home was built by the Schultz Building Co.

How Bon Air Got Its Present Name

Before the turn of the century the sporting gentry from San Francisco came to Marin to hold boxing exhibitions and attend the races at Ross Landing. One of the favorite dining spots of this generation was a hotel on a hillside beside Corte Madera Creek. The hotel was called the Bon Air and the hill was named for the hotel.

When the Schultz Co. purchased the area for the development of Greenbrae the name was so identified with the area that it was given to the proposed apartment and shopping area.

LUXURY LIVING IN GREENBRAE

Shamrocks Coming For St. Pat's Day

Bringing shamrocks from Ireland has been a tradition among the California Irish for generations, but before the era of trans-oceanic flight the greenery was pressed and dried. Now, with jet service, the live shamrock is available. When the Bon Air Shopping Center decided to celebrate St. Patrick's Day, Niels Schultz, Greenbrae developer, suggested the old tradition be honored.

An inquiry to Orrick Travel Bureau in San Anselmo set the wheels in motion. Harry Orrick, manager of the bureau, contacted Irish Air Lines and Peter Murray, regional sales manager, arranged the shipment. The shamrocks will arrive today as fresh as when they left the Emerald Isle yesterday.

Greenbrae Opens 12th Subdivision—70 Lots

Greenbrae, Marin County's largest luxury home development, is growing with the steady increase in demand for finer homes, individually built.

A new area, north of Via Baranca, comprising approximately 18 acres, has been opened up for construction. Seventy graded homesites rise up the Greenbrae hills to join with San Rafael at Bret Harte Drive.

The lots, with frontages from 65 feet to more than 100 feet, range in size up to three-quarters of an acre, and range in price from $4,350 to $12,500.

The new streets, just completed, conform to Greenbrae standards, with high crowns and rolling curbs and gutters. The area adjoins Via La Paz and has almost immediate access to Sir Francis Drake boulevard and the Highway 101 interchange.

Site graded, so that level homesites are obtained with a maximum of privacy and view, this area looks out over San Francisco Bay with the Bay Bridge on the horizon. Across the wooded Marin hills and dominating the vista is beautiful, legendary Mt. Tamalpais.

This spectacular new area, designated as Subdivision 12, can be easily reached from Greenbrae's main entrance gate across from the Bon Air Shopping Center. A stop at the Greenbrae Co. office, at the entrance gate, will provide full information and a guide to the area. The Greenbrae Co. office is staffed every day from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. for this convenience.

As in all of Greenbrae, the homesites may be purchased for future building or, if immediate use is indicated, assistance with selection of architect and builder will be provided on request.

Home areas with seascape views are rapidly diminishing in Marin's home market and this will be one of the best, the developers declare.

Creek Returned To Old Course

Corte Madera Creek, which once admited tugs as far as Ross Landing, now part of the College of Marin campus, later gradually filled to the point that it was a crooked shallow stream meandering through a vast mudflat until recent dredging.

When the development of Greenbrae started in 1946 it was decided to widen and deepen the section that touched on the development. With the advice of the State of California, the Schulz Co. started a dredging and filling operation three years ago, returning the creek to its surveyed course and widening and deepening it to make it a water playground.

APARTMENTS SPAN BON AIR HILL—The Bon Air Apartments, started in 1951 and grown to the status of Marin's largest apartment development, blend into hillsides at Greenbrae, affording occupants unobstructed views of the bay or Mt. Tamalpais. The steadily growing development recently added a swimming pool-recreation area for residents.

FAVORITE RECREATION CENTER

Greenbrae Lanes, new, spacious bowling and recreation center, provides a family play spot easily accessible from any area of Marin and, indeed, of the Bay Area. Plenty of parking space is provided around the building, designed, like every structure in Greenbrae, to harmonize with the area's natural woodland beauty.

Careful Planning Gave Color Scheme Harmony

A rainbow of soft pastels covers the side of Bon Air Hill in Greenbrae and is the result of the imagination of Niels Schultz, developer of Greenbrae.

A close analysis of the Bon Air Apartments' exterior color scheme shows a variety of blended colors—a wall, a balcony, a stairway, each in different but blending color and all keyed to the other apartment buildings.

Schultz on a trip to Portugal several years ago, saw this color arrangement employed on an apartment development near Lisbon. He brought the formula back with him for use in his development on the Marin hillside.

The Bon Air Apartments, part of Greenbrae, has grown from 60 units in 1951 to the largest apartment development in Marin County. Built on varying elevations on the slopes of Bon Air Hill, the apartments allow outside units throughout with large balconies or patios for each unit. Some view the bay, some Mt. Tamalpais and the Marin hills. The apartments are one and two-bedroom units.

The apartment development also includes a 26 by 75-foot swimming pool set apart from the living area in a unit that includes a wading pool, dressing rooms and a sun deck.

Local Hopping

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A total of 426,000 passengers was carried by local airlines in 1948, the first full year of service. Last year, more than that number were carried each month, the Air Transport Association reports.

More For Food

NEW YORK (UPI) — Food spending through all channels of distribution should rise to $76 billion this year, as against approximately $73 billion in 1959, according to a forecast by the Grocery Manufacturers Association.
